or police security officer

9—Insertion of Part 16

After regulation 93 insert:

Part 16—Provisions enabling police security officers to perform certain additional dutiesDivision 1—Preliminary*94—Interpretation

In this Part—

additional duties means additional duties imposed on police security officers, a class of police security officers or a specified police security officer or officers by the Commissioner under the Act (being additional duties contemplated by section 63D(2) of the Act).

95—Application of Part

- (1) This Part applies to police security officers, a class of police security officers, or a specified police security officer or officers who are, pursuant to regulations made under section 63D(2) of the Act, able to perform additional duties.
- (2) Nothing in this Part limits the Commissioner's ability to impose limitations on the powers of a police security officer to whom this Part applies under section 63O of the Act.
- (3) Nothing in this Part limits or derogates from any other powers of a police security officer under the Act or any other Act or law.
- (4) This Part applies despite a provision of the Summary Offences Act 1953 or any other Act or law.

Division 2—Provisions enabling police security officers to perform additional duties96—Power of arrest of certain police security officers

Pursuant to section 63D(2) of the Act, a police security officer to whom this Part applies, without any warrant other than this Part, at any hour of the day or night, may, in the course of performing additional duties, apprehend any person whom the police security officer finds committing, or has reasonable cause to suspect of having committed, or being about to commit, an offence.

97—Person apprehended by police security officer without warrant—how dealt with

- (1) Pursuant to section 63D(2) of the Act, a person who is apprehended without warrant by a police security officer to whom this Part applies must, as soon as reasonably practicable, be delivered into the custody of a police officer.
- (2) Pursuant to section 63D(2) of the Act, if a police officer decides not to accept custody of a person apprehended by a police security officer, the police security officer must ensure that the person is, if the person so requires—
 - (a) returned to the place of apprehension; or
 - (b) delivered to another place that may be reasonably nominated by the person.
- (3) To avoid doubt, nothing in this Division limits any other power or discretion that a police officer into whose custody a person is delivered under subregulation (1) has in relation to the person.

Example—

A police officer may, for example, give the person a formal caution, release the person without charge or decide to report the person for the relevant offence.

- (4) Pursuant to section 63D(2) of the Act, section 78 of the Summary Offences Act 1953 will be taken not to apply to, or in relation to, the apprehension of a person by a police security officer to whom this Part applies during the period between apprehension and delivery into the custody of a police officer under subregulation (1) (however, section 78 will apply to, or in relation to, the person from the time the person is delivered into such custody).
- (5) Pursuant to section 63D(2) of the Act, the requirements under section 79A of the Summary Offences Act 1953 relating to the rights of a person apprehended by a police officer are modified as follows in relation to the apprehension of a person by a police security officer to whom this Part applies:
 - (a) the rights conferred on an apprehended person under that section will be taken not to apply until the person is delivered into the custody of a police officer; and
 - (b) for the purposes of that section, the apprehended person will, once delivered into the custody of a police officer, be taken to have been apprehended by the police officer.

98—Other powers etc of police security officers performing additional duties

Pursuant to section 63D(2) of the Act, but subject to this Part and to any limitations imposed by the Commissioner, a police security officer to whom this Part applies—

- (a) has, in the course of performing additional duties, the same powers, responsibilities and immunities as a member of SA Police; and
- (b) has, in addition to the powers, privileges, duties and responsibilities conferred or imposed by this or any other Act, all such powers, privileges, duties and responsibilities as a constable has by the common law.

Division 3—Miscellaneous

99—Application of section 82A of Summary Offences Act 1953

Pursuant to section 63D of the Act, section 82A of the Summary Offences Act 1953 applies to a police security officer to whom this Part applies as if a reference in that section to a police officer were a reference to a police security officer.

100—Form of oath or affirmation

- (1) For the purposes of section 63G of the Act, the form of the oath or affirmation to be made by a police security officer on appointment is as set out in Schedule 3A.
- (2) An oath or affirmation in the form specified in Schedule 3A may be made before a justice of the peace for South Australia or of another State or a Territory of the Commonwealth.

101—Liability for loss of equipment

A police security officer to whom equipment is issued is responsible for that equipment and is liable for any loss of or damage to the equipment incurred as a result of the police security officer's negligence.

102—Offence for former police security officers to use or disclose information

- (1) A person who has been a protective security officer (within the meaning of the Protective Security Act 2007) or police security officer must not, after the person ceases to be a protective security officer or police security officer (as the case requires), use or disclose information gained by virtue of that appointment if the use or disclosure of the information would constitute an offence or breach of the Code assuming that the person were a police security officer.

Penalty: $1 250.

- (2) It is a defence to a charge of an offence against subregulation (1) if the person charged proves that they had lawful authority or excuse to so use or disclose the information.

10—Insertion of Schedule 3A

After Schedule 3 insert:

Schedule 3A—Form of oath or affirmation—police security officers

1—Form of oath or affirmation for police security officer

I, A.B. do swear [or I, A.B. do solemnly and truly declare and affirm] that I will well and truly serve His Majesty King Charles III and His heirs and successors according to law in the office of police security officer, without favour or affection, malice or ill will; and that I will faithfully discharge all duties imposed on me as a police security officer—[So help me God!].

BUILDING WORK CONTRACTORS ACT 1995

Exemption

TAKE notice that, pursuant to section 45 of the Building Work Contractors Act 1995, I, Zoe Thomas as a delegate for the Minister for Consumer and Business Affairs, do hereby exempt the licensee named in Schedule 1 from the application of Division 3 of Part 5 of the above Act in relation to domestic building work described in Schedule 2 and subject to the conditions specified in Schedule 3.

SCHEDULE 1

RICHARD DEWIT (BLD 38150)

SCHEDULE 2

Construction of a detached single storey residential dwelling intended for use as a private residence at Allotment 39, Deposited Plan 61273, being a portion of the land described in Certificate of Title Volume 5893 Folio 682, more commonly known as Lot 39, Chucka Bend Road, Bowhill SA 5238.

SCHEDULE 3

1. This exemption is limited to domestic building work personally performed by the licensee in relation to the building work described in Schedule 2.
2. This exemption does not apply to any domestic building work the licensee contracts to another building work contractor, for which that contractor is required by law to hold building indemnity insurance.
3. That the licensee does not transfer his interest in the land prior to five years from the date of completion of the building work the subject of this exemption, without the prior authorisation of Consumer and Business Services (CBS). Before giving such authorisation, CBS may require the licensee to take any reasonable steps to protect the future purchaser(s) of the property, including but not limited to:
 - Providing evidence that an adequate policy of building indemnity insurance is in force to cover the balance of the five-year period from the date of completion of the building work the subject of this exemption;
 - Providing evidence of an independent expert inspection of the building work the subject of this exemption;
 - Making an independent expert report available to prospective purchasers of the property;
 - Giving prospective purchasers of the property notice of the absence of a policy of building indemnity insurance.

NOTICE SUBMISSION

The South Australian Government Gazette is published each Thursday afternoon.

Notices must be emailed by 4 p.m. Tuesday, the week of publication.

Submissions are formatted per the gazette style and a proof will be supplied prior to publication, along with a quote if applicable. Please allow one day for processing notices.

Alterations to the proof must be returned by 4 p.m. Wednesday.

Gazette notices must be submitted as Word files, in the following format:

- Title—the governing legislation
- Subtitle—a summary of the notice content
- Body—structured text, which can include numbered lists, tables, and images
- Date—day, month, and year of authorisation
- Signature block—name, role, and department/organisation authorising the notice

Please provide the following information in your email:

- Date of intended publication
- Contact details of the person responsible for the notice content
- Name and organisation to be charged for the publication—Local Council and Public notices only
- Purchase order, if required—Local Council and Public notices only
