SHOP TRADING HOURS ACT 1977 SECTION 13: AUTHORISATION TO OPEN SHOP DURING SPECIFIED HOURS—BIG W AT GAWLER

Proclamation By The Governor

PURSUANT to section 13 of the Shop Trading Hours Act 1977 and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, I authorise the opening of the shop known as Big W, located at 2 Commercial Lane, Gawler ("the shop") from 7 p.m. until 9 p.m. on Friday, 13 September 2002, subject to the conditions specified in the Schedule.

SCHEDULE

This proclamation only authorises the opening of the shop if—

- the shop keeper ensures that the only persons allowed to enter or remain in the shop during the hours specified in this proclamation (other than persons employed in the business of the shop during those hours) are persons who hold a Woolworths Limited staff discount card, the immediate families of those persons, and by special invitation, the suppliers, builders, technicians and contractors of the shop; and
- all relevant industrial awards, workplace agreements and enterprise agreements are observed by the shopkeeper and persons employed in the business of the shop during and in relation to the hours specified in this proclamation during which the shop is open; and
- subject to an industrial award, workplace agreement or enterprise agreement to the contrary—a person who is employed in the business of the shop is entitled to refuse to work at the shop during the hours specified in this proclamation unless he or she has agreed with the shopkeeper to work during those hours.

PUBLIC SECTOR MANAGEMENT ACT 1995 SECTION 71:
EXTENSION OF CLAUSES 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 AND 13 OF
SCHEDULE 2 TO PUBLIC SECTOR EMPLOYEES
COVERED BY THE FIREFIGHTING INDUSTRY
EMPLOYEES AWARD 1993

PURSUANT to section 71 of the Public Sector Management Act 1995 and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, I extend the operation of clauses 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13 of Schedule 2 of that Act (the "relevant clauses") to public sector employees covered by the Firefighting Industry Employees Award 1993 (or its successor) (the "specified class"), subject to the following modifications:

(a) the following subclause is inserted after subclause (1) of clause 8:

(1a) The following provisions apply in relation to a public sector employee covered by the Firefighting Industry Employees Award 1993 (or its successor):

(a) if, immediately prior to the commencement of this subclause, the employee was entitled to any long service leave under the Long Service Leave Act 1987, that long service leave entitlement will be taken to be the employee's accrued long service leave entitlement under this clause;

(b) however, despite paragraph (a)—

(i) if the employee's 16th year of effective service, or a subsequent year of effective service, commenced prior to 1 January 2002 but ends on or after that date, the employee is, in respect of that year, entitled (instead of the amount to which he or she would otherwise be entitled under paragraph (a)) to an amount determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$E = \frac{9D}{365} + \frac{15(365 - D)}{365}$$

where—

E is the number of days leave to which the employee is entitled (any remaining fraction of half or more of one day being regarded as one day);

D is the number of days in the period commencing on (and including) the day on which the 16th or subsequent year of effective service, as the case requires, of the employee commenced and concluding on (and including) 31 December 2001;

(ii) if the employee's 16th year of effective service, or a subsequent year of effective service, commenced or commences on or after 1 January 2002, the employee is entitled—

(A) in respect of that year (instead of the amount to which he or she would otherwise be entitled under paragraph (a)); and

(B) in respect of each subsequent year of effective service, to 15 days of long service leave.;

(b) for the purpose of applying the relevant clauses (as modified by paragraph (a)) to employees in the specified class—

(i) all references in those clauses to "effective service" are to be read as references to—

(A) service (within the meaning of the Long Service Leave Act 1987) of the employee in a public sector agency, or with another organisation where such service has been previously recognised by the Chief Officer of the South Australian Metropolitan Fire Service for the purpose of determining long service leave entitlements, occurring before the making of this proclamation; and

(B) service of the employee in the public sector occurring after the making of this proclamation that is recognised, in accordance with directions issued by the Commissioner, as a period of effective service;

(ii) all references in those clauses to an "employee" are to be read as including reference to employees in the specified class;

(iii) all references in those clauses to the "Chief Executive of the administrative unit in which the employee is employed" or "Chief Executive" are, in relation to employees in the specified class, to be read as references to the Chief Officer of the South Australian Metropolitan Fire Service;

(iv) all references in those clauses to an "executive" are to be read as references to an employee in the specified class recognised, in accordance with directions issued by the Commissioner, as an executive.

Given under my hand and the Public Seal of South Australia, at Adelaide, 5 September 2002.

AUTHORISED BETTING OPERATIONS ACT 2000

NO. 2 OF 2002

A rule to consolidate and reform the provisions in relation to the placement of bets by telephone and other telecommunications devices and for other purposes

Bookmakers Licensing (Telecommunications Betting) Rules 2002

[28 August 2002]

The Independent Gambling Authority makes the following rules:

PART 1—PRELIMINARY1. Citation, commencement

- (1) These rules may be cited as the Bookmakers Licensing (Telecommunications Betting) Rules 2002.
- (2) The Bookmakers Licensing Rules 2000 are referred to in these rules as “the Principal Rules”.
- (3) These rules come into operation on 1 January 2003.
- (4) These rules are made under section 62 of the Authorised Betting Operations Act 2000.

PART 2—TELECOMMUNICATIONS BETTING2. Amendment of definitions and consequential changes

- (1) Rule 2 of the Principal Rules is amended by—
 - (a) striking out the definition of “betting ticket” and substituting—

“ ‘betting ticket’ means—

 - (a) a pre-printed, serially numbered ticket in a form approved by the Commissioner; or
 - (b) a computer generated paper ticket in a form approved by the Commissioner; or
 - (c) a form of facsimile transmission approved by the Commissioner for the purposes of rule 130AC; or
 - (d) an electronic message, in a format approved by the Commissioner, approved by the Commissioner for the purposes of rule 130AC; ”;and

 - “ race or running contest ”; and
 - (b) striking out “as it thinks fit” and substituting—
 - “ as the Commissioner thinks fit ”.
- (3) Rule 123(1) of the Principal Rules, in the definition of “eligible race”, is amended by striking out paragraph (c).

3. Amendment of Part 17A—Telecommunications betting

Part 17A of the Principal Rules is amended by striking out the Part and substituting—

“PART 17A—TELECOMMUNICATIONS BETTING

130A. Telecommunications betting

- (1) A bookmaker who holds a permit to make bets by telephone or another telecommunications device must comply with the provisions of this Part and, except to the extent of any inconsistency with this Part, the other provisions of these Rules.
- (2) A bookmaker may only advertise his or her availability to make bets by telephone or another telecommunications device in the manner approved by the Commissioner.

130AA. Telephone betting—systems and procedures

- (1) A bookmaker who makes bets by telephone must have in place systems and procedures approved by Commissioner for the purposes of this rule.
- (2) The Commissioner must not approve systems and procedures for the purposes of this rule unless the systems and procedures provide adequately—
 - (a) for the voice recording of telephone conversations conducted in the betting operations of the bookmaker’s business (whether or not a bet is made); and

- (b) for the retention in safe custody of voice recordings for no less than 3 months; and
 - (c) for the delivery of voice recordings to the Commissioner in a format which allows the Commissioner to be able to listen to the voice recordings; and
 - (d) for a person, when opening a betting account—
 - (i) to be identified as an adult; and
 - (ii) to be advised that calls will be recorded; and
 - (e) for such other matters as, in the opinion of the Commissioner, are necessary—
 - (i) to facilitate constant scrutiny by the Commissioner of; and
 - (ii) to ensure the maintenance of an effective and efficient system of supervision is maintained with respect to—the telephone betting operations of the bookmaker.
- (3) When considering the adequacy of proposed systems and procedures, the Commissioner may take into account their cost in relation to the turnover of the bookmaker's business and the risk posed to the integrity of the bookmaker's betting operations.

130AB. Telephone betting—requirements

A bookmaker who makes bets by telephone must—

- (a) follow the systems the bookmaker has in place under rule 130AA; and
- (b) record or cause to be recorded by electronic or mechanical means each telephone conversation commenced with the prospect of a bet being made (whether or not a bet is made);
- (c) record or cause to be recorded on his or her betting sheet each bet made by telephone with the bet identified as such.

130AC. Betting by other telecommunications devices

- (1) A bookmaker who makes bets by a telecommunications device other than a telephone must have in place systems and procedures approved by Commissioner for the purposes of this rule.

- (2) The Commissioner must not approve systems and procedures for the purposes of this rule unless the systems and procedures provide—
- (a) for the delivery of a betting ticket to the bettor forthwith upon the bet being made; and
 - (b) for the retention in safe custody of records of telecommunications betting for no less than 12 months; and
 - (c) for the delivery of records of betting to the Commissioner in a format which the Commissioner is able to read; and
 - (d) for a person, when opening a betting account—
 - (i) to be identified as an adult; and
 - (ii) to be advised that calls will be recorded; and
 - (e) for such other matters as, in the opinion of the Commissioner, are necessary—
 - (i) to facilitate constant scrutiny by the Commissioner of; and
 - (ii) to ensure the maintenance of an effective and efficient system of supervision is maintained with respect to—the betting operations of the bookmaker.

130AD. Telecommunications betting—requirements

A bookmaker who makes bets by a telecommunications device other than a telephone must—

- (a) follow the systems the bookmaker has in place under rule 130AC; and
- (b) deliver a betting ticket to the bettor forthwith upon the bet being made;
- (c) record or cause to be recorded on his or her betting sheet each bet made by the telecommunications device with the bet identified as such.

130AE. Telephone betting—minimum bets and risk limits

A bookmaker who is operating—

- (a) at a galloping meeting in the metropolitan area; or
- (b) in a betting auditorium at a time when a galloping meeting is being conducted in the metropolitan area—must not make a bet by a telecommunications device on a race unless the amount of the bet or the risk incurred is at least the lesser of the relevant minimum bet or risk set out in Schedule 2.”.

4. Amendment of rule 130B—consequential

Rule 130B of the Principal Rules is amended—

- (a) by striking out the expressions appearing before paragraph (b) beginning “The preceding rules” and ending “apply;” and substituting—

“(1) A bookmaker who holds a permit to make bets in a betting auditorium must comply with the provisions of this Part and, except to the extent of any inconsistency with this Part, the other provisions of these Rules.

(2) In, or in relation to betting in, a betting auditorium—”.

- (b) by striking out the expressions in paragraph (f) starting “the provisions of” and ending “in a betting auditorium.” and substituting—

- (c) in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (f) by striking out “can” and substituting—

“ may ”.

5. Transitional and savings—telecommunications devices

Part 19 of the Principal Rules is amended by inserting the following rule after rule 133—

“134. Transitional and savings (Telecommunications Devices)

- (1) If, prior to the appointed day, a bookmaker had in place an arrangement for the voice recording of telephone bets which had been—

(a) provided by the Commissioner for the purposes of rule 130A in force prior to the appointed day; or

(b) approved by the Commissioner for the purposes of a licence condition requiring the voice recording of telephone bets—an approval of that arrangement, regardless of any requirement for an instrument in writing—

(c) is deemed to be approved for the purposes of rule 130AA; and

- (d) may be revoked or varied as though it had been made under rule 130AA.
- (2) A bookmaker who, prior to the appointed day, had been authorised to make bets by telephone without a requirement under these Rules or the conditions of the bookmaker's licence is exempted from complying with rules 130AA and 130AB until the first anniversary of the appointed day.
- (3) A bookmaker who had, at any time in the 6 months prior to the appointed day, made bets by a telecommunications device other than a telephone—
- (a) if the bookmaker is authorised to make bets by facsimile, may despite rules 130AC and 130AD, until the end of the first Monday of the seventh month following the appointed day, continue to make bets by the last arrangement in place prior to the appointed day;
- (b) if the bookmaker relies on paragraph (a), must before the end of 3 months following the appointed day apply to the Commissioner for an approval under rule 130AC.
- (4) In this rule—
- 'appointed day' means the day on which the Bookmakers Licensing (Telecommunications Devices) Rules 2002 came into operation.”.

6. Insertion of Schedule 2—minimum telephone bets

The Principal Rules are amended by inserting the following schedule after Schedule 1—

“Schedule 2

PART 3—MISCELLANEOUS

7. Revision of definitions

Section 2(1) of the Principal Rules is amended by striking out the definition of “rules of racing” and substituting—

“ ‘rules of racing’ means—

- (a) the rules applied by the relevant racing controlling authority as notified in writing to the Authority and the Commissioner from time to time; or
- (b) if there is no relevant racing controlling authority, the rules under which the relevant event is conducted;”.

8. Insertion of rule 2A—approvals

- (1) The Principal Rules are amended by inserting the following rule after rule 2—

“2A. Approvals

- (1) A reference in these Rules to an approval, consent or permission of, or the doing of a thing with the authority of, the Authority or the Commissioner is a reference to an approval under subrule (2) or subrule (3).
- (2) An approval given by the Authority for the purposes of these Rules—
 - (a) must be in writing, under seal or signed by a delegate, a member or the secretary of the Authority; and
 - (b) may be given generally or in relation to a specific case or class of cases; and
 - (c) may be made subject to conditions; and
 - (d) may be varied from time to time by instrument in writing; and
 - (e) may only be revoked by instrument in writing.
- (3) An approval given by the Commissioner for the purposes of these Rules—
 - (a) must be in writing, signed by the Commissioner personally or by the Commissioner’s delegate; and
 - (b) may be given generally or in relation to a specific case or class of cases; and
 - (c) may be made subject to conditions; and

(d) may be varied from time to time by instrument in writing; and

(e) may only be revoked by instrument in writing.”.

(2) Rule 29 of the Principal Rules is revoked.

(3) Rule 61 of the Principal Rules is amended—

(a) by striking out “(1)” from subrule (1); and

(b) by striking out subrule (2).

9. Amendment of references to Commissioner

(1) Rule 9 of the Principal Rules is amended by striking out “satisfy it” and substituting—

“ satisfy the Commissioner”.

(2) Rule 94 of the Principal Rules is amended by striking out paragraph (b) and substituting—

“(b) any other information which the Commissioner may from time to time require.”.

AUTHORISED BETTING OPERATIONS ACT 2000

NO. 3 OF 2002

A rule to better provide for the protection of information held by bookmakers and for the necessary disclosure of that information and for other purposes

Bookmakers Licensing (Information Protection) Rules 2002

[28 August 2002]

The Independent Gambling Authority makes the following rules:

1. Citation, commencement

- (1) These rules may be cited as the Bookmakers Licensing (Information Protection) Rules 2002.
- (2) The Bookmakers Licensing Rules 2000 are referred to in these rules as “the Principal Rules”.
- (3) These rules come into operation on 1 January 2003.
- (4) These rules are made under section 62 of the Authorised Betting Operations Act 2000.

2. Definitions

- (1) Section 2(1) of the Principal Rules is amended by inserting, after the definition of “credit bet”—

“ ‘document custodian’ means a person, other than a licensee or an authorised officer, to whom protected information is disclosed for the purposes of or in compliance or purported compliance with these Rules; ”.

- (2) Section 2(1) of the Principal Rules is amended by inserting, after the definition of “Presiding Member”—

“ ‘protected information’—

- (a) means information contained in a record which a licensee is required by the Act or these Rules to make or to cause to have made; and
- (b) without limiting paragraph (a), includes the contents of a voice recording of a telephone bet in the possession or under the control of a licensee; ‘protected identifying information’ means protected information which identifies a person;”.

3. Insertion of new Part 3—Information protection

The Principal Rules are amended by inserting after rule 10—

“PART 3—INFORMATION PROTECTION

11. Offence to disclose information without authorisation

- (1) A licensee must not knowingly disclose protected information without being authorised.

Penalty: $5 000 fine.

- (2) A document custodian must not knowingly disclose protected information without being authorised.

Penalty: $5 000 fine.

- (3) A licensee must not, through inadvertence or otherwise, disclose protected information without being authorised.

Penalty: $4 000 fine.

- (4) A document custodian must not, through inadvertence or otherwise, disclose protected information without being authorised.

Penalty: $4 000 fine.

- (5) A person must not—

- (a) obtain for the person or another person; or
- (b) attempt to obtain for the person or another person; or
- (c) assist in another person obtaining—a disclosure of protected information in circumstances where the disclosure would contravene subrule (1), subrule (2), subrule (3) or subrule (4).

Penalty: $5 000 fine.

- (6) Without limiting the ordinary meaning of “disclose” and “disclosure”, a licensee must be regarded as having disclosed protected information if—

- (a) the protected information was contained in a record held in the custody or under the control of the licensee, an employee or agent of the licensee or a person having a fiduciary relationship with the licensee; and

- (b) a person, to whom the disclosure of the protected information is or was not authorised, became aware of the protected information by having direct or indirect access to the record.
- (7) A licensee will not be liable for prosecution under, or disciplinary action founded on, subrule (3) if the licensee is able to prove that—
 - (a) if the licensee is a bookmaker and the relevant record had been made in the course of the bookmaker's business, the licensee had established and was maintaining reasonable processes and procedures for the non-disclosure of protected information; or
 - (b) reasonable processes and procedures for the non-disclosure of protected information were in place in the bookmaking business in which the record had been made, and the licensee was following those processes and procedures; or
 - (c) the relevant disclosure was wilfully made by another person.
- (8) A document custodian will not be liable for prosecution under subrule (4) if the document custodian is able to prove that—
 - (a) reasonable processes and procedures for the non-disclosure of protected information were in place with respect to the document custodian's custody of protected information and the document custodian was following those processes and procedures; or
 - (b) the relevant disclosure was wilfully made by another person.
- (9) For the purpose of determining the liability of a person under subrule (5), a disclosure will be deemed to contravene subrule (3) or subrule (4) despite—
 - (a) in the case of subrule (3), the relevant licensee being able to avoid liability by reason of subrule (7); or
 - (b) in the case of subrule (4), the relevant licensee being able to avoid liability by reason of subrule (8).

12. Authorised disclosures

A licensee or document custodian is authorised to disclose protected information—

- (a) if required to do so under the Act or these Rules; or

- (b) if required to do so by the order of a Court having jurisdiction in a place where the relevant record is kept or is accessible; or
- (c) if required to do so under a law (other than the Act) imposing penalties for failure to comply with the requirement; or
- (d) if the disclosure is necessary for the operation of the bookmaking business in which the relevant record was made; or
- (e) if the disclosure is made for the purposes of an audit under rule 15; or
- (f) in the case of protected identifying information, if each person identified has consented to the disclosure; or
- (g) in the case of protected information other than protected identifying information, if the bookmaker to whom the protected information relates has consented.

13. Inspection by authorised officers

A licensee or document custodian must, if an authorised officer requests it—

- (a) allow the authorised officer to inspect a betting sheet in the custody of the licensee or document custodian; and
- (b) disclose other protected information—

and to make extracts from related records.

14. Inspection by stewards

- (1) A licensee or document custodian must, if a steward requests it under this rule—

- (a) allow the steward to inspect a betting sheet in the custody of the licensee or document custodian; and
- (b) disclose other protected information.

- (2) A steward may only make a request under this rule if the steward's purpose in seeking the disclosure of protected information is—

- (a) to determine the adequacy of the standards of probity which applied to a particular race;
- (b) to determine whether the standards of probity which applied to a particular race had been breached;

(c) to determine whether there had been compliance with a provision of the rules of racing (being a provision not inconsistent with the Act and these Rules).

(3) A licensee may, before complying with a request under subrule (1), require the steward to make a note (whether on the betting sheet or otherwise)—

(a) of the date and time of the request; and

(b) that the request had been made under this rule.

15. Audit

(1) If—

(a) there is an agreement between a bookmaker and a racing club; and

(b) it is necessary or convenient for the operation of that agreement for financial information about the betting operations of the bookmaker's business to be verified—

the bookmaker may disclose protected information to an auditor appointed under subrule (2).

(2) A person who is eligible to be appointed by reason of subrule (3) may be jointly appointed by the bookmaker and the racing club subject to the following mandatory terms—

(a) the auditor must act independently;

(b) the auditor may, in his or her report, disclose protected information, other than protected identifying information, to the extent that the disclosure is necessary for the purposes of the agreement;

(c) the auditor must establish and maintain reasonable processes and procedures for the non-disclosure of protected information.

(3) A person is eligible to be appointed for the purposes of this rule if the person—

(a) is a member of—

(i) the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia; or

(ii) CPA Australia; or

(iii) the National Institute of Accountants—holding a current practising certificate (however described); or

(b) has been approved for the purposes of this rule by the Commissioner.

(4) For the purposes of this rule, an agreement between a bookmaker and a racing club includes an agreement between—

(a) one or more bookmakers together; or

(b) a body representative of bookmakers for and on behalf of one or more bookmakers (whether as agent or otherwise)— on one part and on the other part—

(c) one or more racing clubs together; or

(d) a body representative of racing clubs for and on behalf of one or more racing clubs (whether as agent or otherwise).”.

4. Amendment of rules 69 and 70—document custodians

(1) The Principal Rules are amended by striking out rule 69 and substituting—

“69. Information for starting price officers

A licensee must, for the purpose only of enabling a starting price officer to ascertain the starting prices—

(a) give the starting price officer such information as is requested; and

(b) allow the starting price officer to inspect the licensee’s betting sheets.”.

(2) Rule 70 of the Principal Rules is amended—

(a) by inserting, before “A bookmaker who is betting” the expression “(1)”; and

(b) by inserting at the end of the rule—

“(2) A decision or direction of the stewards or the committee of a racing club must only be made for one or more of the following purposes:

(a) to ensure compliance with the Act or these Rules;

(b) to ensure compliance with a provision of the rules of racing, to the extent that the provision is not inconsistent with the Act and these Rules;

(c) to ensure the maintenance of order and public safety within premises and on any land for which the racing club is responsible.”.

5. Revocation of redundant rules

The Principal Rules are amended by striking out—

- (a) rule 54; and
- (b) rule 67(3); and
- (c) rule 68; and
- (d) rule 87; and
- (e) rule 95; and
- (f) paragraph (c) of rule 130B.

6. Insertion of transitional provision

The following rule is inserted at the end of Part 19 of the Principal Rules—

“135. Transitional—protected information

For the purposes of the definition of “protected information” in rule 2, a record includes a record made before the commencement of the Bookmakers Licensing (Information Protection) Rules 2002.”.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT 1999

Regulations by the Local Government Superannuation Board

THE Local Government Superannuation Board makes the following regulations pursuant to Part 2 of Schedule 1 of the Local Government Act 1999.

The rules constituting the Local Government Superannuation Scheme known as Local Super are amended with effect from 1 October 2002 as follows:

1. Rule 2 is amended by inserting a definition of "Sustainable Shares Portfolio" immediately after the definition of "Spouse Member" as follows:

"Sustainable Shares Portfolio means the Investment Portfolio identified as such by the Board and maintained pursuant to Part XII of these rules."

2. Rule 80(a) is deleted and replaced with the following:

"On and from 1 October 2002 the Fund will be notionally divided by the Board into the following Investment Portfolios:

- (i) Shares Portfolio;*
- (ii) Sustainable Shares Portfolio*
- (iii) Growth Portfolio;*
- (iv) Conservative Growth Portfolio; and*
- (iv) Cash Portfolio."*

3. Rule 87 is amended by:

- 3.1 deleting the opening words of rule 80(a) commencing "On and from 1 October 2001" and ending "to have:" and substituting the following:

"On and from 1 October 2002, a Member may elect by notice in writing to the Board (which notice may be received by the Board before 1 October 2002), in a form approved by the Board, to have all or any part of:"

- 3.2 deleting the reference from rule 87(a) to "one Investment Portfolio" and substituting the following:

"one or more Investment Portfolios";

- 3.3 inserting at the end of rule 87(b) the following:

"so that the balance of the Member's Surcharge Payment Account from time to time will be notionally invested in the same proportion of units applied to the Investment Portfolios for the amounts invested from time to time under rule 87(a)";

- 3.4 deleting rule 87(d) and substituting the following:

“(d) From 1 October 2002 a Member may have more than one Investment Portfolio attributable to all or any part of the Member’s Credit and any of the other amounts referred to under rule 87(a) (if applicable) at any time. Without limiting the foregoing a Member may elect that one or more Investment Portfolios apply to any future contributions to be applied to the Member’s Credit or to other amounts under rule 87(a) which may differ to the Investment Portfolios that apply to all or any part of the then balances of those amounts under rule 87(a).”

3.5 amending rule 87(f) as follows:

3.5.1 deleting from subparagraph (i) the words “with respect to the Investment Portfolio into which the balance of the Member’s Credit and the other accounts referred to under rule 87(a) (if applicable) is to be applied” and substituting the following:

“with respect to the Investment Portfolios into which the then balance of all or any part of the Member’s Credit and the other amounts referred to under rule 87(a) (if applicable) are to be applied”;

3.5.2 deleting subparagraph (ii) and substituting the following:

“(ii) all or such part of the then balance of the Member’s Credit and the other amounts referred to under rule 87(a) (if applicable) for which a Member wishes to select an Investment Portfolio does not exceed a minimum amount determined by the Board from time to time for application to an Investment Portfolio;”;

3.5.3 deleting the paragraph at the end of rule 87(f) and substituting the following:

“the Member is deemed to have elected to apply such all or part of the then balance (as the case may be) of their Member’s Credit and the other amounts referred to under rule 87(a) (including any future contributions to be applied to the Member’s Credit or other amounts) to the Growth Portfolio.”;

3.6 inserting a new rule 87(fa) immediately after rule 87(f) as follows:

“(fa) If a Member makes an election in accordance with this Part XII of the rules with respect to the Investment Portfolios into which the then balance of the Member’s Credit and the other amounts referred to under rule 87(a) (if applicable) are to be applied, but fails to make an election with respect to the Investment Portfolio into which future contributions to the Member’s Credit or other amounts are to be applied, the Member is deemed to have elected to apply such future contributions to the same Investment Portfolios and in the same proportions as apply to the existing balances of the Member’s Credit or other amounts under rule 87(a).”

Dated 27 August 2002.

NOTICE OF EXEMPTION

Road Traffic (Road Rules—Ancillary and Miscellaneous Provisions) Regulations 1999—Regulation 7

I, MICHAEL WRIGHT, Minister for Transport, grant the following exemption pursuant to Regulation 7 of the Road Traffic (Road Rules—Ancillary and Miscellaneous Provisions) Regulations 1999.

I exempt drivers of vehicles travelling on the South Eastern Freeway from the provisions of Rule 177 (Stopping on Freeway) provided:

- (a) The vehicle stops wholly within a vehicle lay-by on the Freeway which has been specifically set aside and designated by sign for that purpose; and
- (b) The vehicle is not stopped for a period longer than, or for a purpose contrary to, that stipulated by sign; and
- (c) Drivers and/or passengers do not move beyond the constructed area of the lay-by or beyond any fencing, kerb or line which separates the road related area and road adjacent to that lay-by; and
- (d) The driver must remain with the vehicle at all times whilst it is parked in a lay-by.

This exemption revokes and replaces the exemption notice issued on 28 March 2000, and is effective immediately.

All other provisions contained in the Road Traffic Act 1961 and the Australian Road Rules 1999 continue to have full force and effect.

Dated 29 August 2002.

KANGAROO ISLAND COUNCIL

DEVELOPMENT ACT 1993

Kangaroo Island General Plan Amendment Report (PAR)— Draft for Public Exhibition and Agency Consultation

NOTICE is hereby given that the Kangaroo Island Council has prepared a draft Plan Amendment Report to amend the Kingscote (DC) and Dudley (DC) Development Plans.

The purpose of the Plan Amendment Report (PAR) is to consolidate the two existing Development Plans into one island-wide Development Plan.

The PAR consolidates both the Kingscote (DC) and Dudley (DC) Development Plans in order to allow the council to have one cohesive planning document to guide and control existing and future development. The PAR affects the whole area contained within the area of the Kangaroo Island Council. The PAR will update the policies relating to Kangaroo Island which are currently covered by the Dudley (DC) and Kingscote (DC) Development Plans.

The draft PAR will be available for public inspection at the Kingscote Library, Council Offices, Dauncey Street, Kingscote; Parndana Community Hall; American River General Store and the Penneshaw Town Hall from Thursday, 5 September 2002 to Friday, 8 November 2002. Copies of the PAR can be purchased at the Council Offices for $20 each.

Written submissions regarding the draft amendment will be accepted by the Kangaroo Island Council until 5 p.m. on Friday, 8 November 2002. All submissions should be addressed to Patrick Mitchell, Planning Officer, P.O. Box 121, Kingscote, S.A. 5223. (Note: Submissions should indicate whether you wish to be heard at the public hearing on 28 November 2002). Copies of all written submissions received will be available for inspection by interested persons at the council offices from Monday, 11 November 2002 to Thursday, 28 November 2002.

Community Information Sessions relating to the PAR will be held as follows:

- Monday, 21 October 2002 at the Kingscote Town Hall from 7.30 p.m.
- Tuesday, 22 October 2002 at the Parndana Town Hall from 7.30 p.m.
- Wednesday, 23 October 2002 at the Penneshaw Town Hall from 7.30 p.m.
- Thursday, 24 October 2002 at the American River Town Hall from 7.30 p.m.

A public hearing will be held on Thursday, 28 November 2002 from 7.30 p.m. at the Kingscote Town Hall, to enable people to speak to council's committee in relation to the PAR and submissions.

For further information, contact Patrick Mitchell, Planning Officer, on 8553 2015.

Dated 5 September 2002.
