ENVIRONMENT PROTECTION AND BIODIVERSITY CONSERVATION ACT 1999

Notice by the State of South Australia under subsection 130 (1b)

Name:	Dr Gabriel Bittar
Description of action:	Subdivide and develop Allotment 218 in Filed Plan 181060 at Archibald Street, American River, Kangaroo Island.
Reference No.:	2004/1631
Controlling provisions under Part 3, Division 1, for action under the Environment Protection and Biodiversity Conservation Act are:	Sections 18 and 18A (Listed threatened species and communities)

I, THE HONOURABLE JOHN DAVID HILL, Minister for Environment and Conservation, hereby give notice on behalf of the State of South Australia, that the certain and likely impacts of the above action on things other than matters protected by the controlling provisions for that action under the Environment Protection and Biodiversity Conservation Act 1999, have been assessed to the greatest extent practicable.

The abovementioned development was assessed according to objectives and principles of development control outlined in the Kangaroo Island Council Development Plan of 7 August 2003.

The Kangaroo Island Council received Development Application 520/D554/03 from Weber, Frankiw and Associates on behalf of G. Bittar, who sought provisional Development Plan consent and Land Division consent to allow for a land division of one allotment to create five allotments at Lot 218 in Filed Plan 181060 of Part Section 224, Archibald Street, American River, Hundred of Haines.

The subject site is located within the Residential Zone of the Kangaroo Island Council Development Plan. The division of land is neither complying nor non-complying in the Zone. The application was considered on its merits and does not require public notification pursuant to Schedule 9, Part 1, Category 1, Development 2 (1) (e) of the Development Regulations 1993.

As part of its assessment under the Development Act 1993, the proposal was forwarded to the Native Vegetation Council for assessment. The Native Vegetation Council is responsible under the Native Vegetation Act 1991, for the preservation of native vegetation and regulating clearance. A report in relation to the proposed clearance was provided on behalf of the Council in September 2003 and the impacts on native vegetation were assessed in accordance with the criteria prescribed under the Native Vegetation Act 1991, for those purposes.

This matter was referred to the Development Assessment Panel for consideration of the proposal as it raised a number of concerns with regard to the proposals potential impact on native vegetation.

On 7 April 2004, the Development Assessment Panel refused the Development Application, pursuant to section 40 (1) of the Development Act 1993.

The application was refused for the following reasons:

1. The proposal is at variance with the following Objectives of the Kangaroo Island Development Plan:

- Objective 58—Development should ensure the protection of the Island's unique and endemic flora and fauna. Particular regard must be given to threatened and endangered species and their habitat, including the Glossy Black Cockatoo.
- Objective 62—The retention of environmentally significant areas of native vegetation.
- Objective 64—The retention of native vegetation, particularly areas containing threatened plant species . . . for the movement of native wildlife.

2. The proposal is at variance with the following Principles of Development Control of the Kangaroo Island Development Plan:

- PDC 3—New housing, holiday accommodation and other urban development should:
  - (e) not result in clearance of valuable native vegetation . . .
- PDC 183—Development should be undertaken with the minimal effect on natural features, significant stands of native vegetation . . .
- PDC 195—Native vegetation should not be cleared if it:
  - (a) provides important habitat for wildlife.

Pursuant to section 40 (1) of the Development Act 1993, the applicant lodged an appeal to the Environment Resources and Development Court against the Panel's decision.

Dated 9 November 2005.

JOHN HILL, Minister for Environment and Conservation

ELECTORAL DISTRICTS BOUNDARIES COMMISSION*AMENDMENT TO 2003 REPORT

The statistics set out in Appendix 13 of the 2003 Report of the Electoral Districts Boundaries Commission contain an inadvertent error with respect to the swing-to-lose figures. The swing-to-lose percentage for Mount Gambier is shown as 30.4%, whereas the correct figure should have been 28.2%. At a meeting held on 9 November 2005 the Commission resolved that Appendix 13 be corrected so as to read as set out below.

The corrected Appendix 13 is to be read in substitution for that published with the 2003 report.

The Commission also points out that the correction to Appendix 13 could not have affected the redistribution made by its order dated 20 March 2003.

Signed for and on behalf of the Commission

- 1 It is alleged that you have engaged in conduct in contravention of the Heritage Places Act 1993 (“the Act”). The particulars of the alleged contravention are set out in Part B of this notice.
- 2 The purposes of this notice is to give you the opportunity to elect to be prosecuted for the alleged contravention under section 38A(5)(a) of the Act. If you do not elect to be prosecuted, the Minister, a local council, or any other person acting with the leave of the Environment, Resources and Development Court may commence civil penalty proceedings under section 38A(1)(c) of the Act for the purposes of obtaining an order from the Court that you pay into the South Australian Heritage Fund an amount as a monetary penalty on account of the contravention. In these civil proceedings, any contravention of the Act would only need to be proved “on the balance of probabilities”.
- 3 If you elect to be prosecuted rather than facing the civil penalty proceedings, you must serve a written notice on the Minister within 21 days after service of this notice.
- 4 The following matters are relevant to the provision of a notice of election to the Minister:
  - (1) The notice must be addressed to the Minister as follows:

PART C—General information*1 Heritage Places Act 1993

The Heritage Places Act 1993 is an Act to make provision for the identification, recording and conservation of places and objects of non-Aboriginal heritage significance, to establish the South Australian Heritage Council, and for other purposes.

2 Section 38A—ERD Court

- Subsection (1) allows an order to be made only where a contravention of the Act has occurred.
- Subsection (1)(c) allows the Court to order a monetary penalty to be paid into the South Australian Heritage Fund on account of the breach. A monetary penalty such as this is sometimes known as a “civil penalty” because it is a financial penalty imposed by a Court in civil proceedings. The penalty is intended as a deterrent.

- Subsection (5)(a)(i) imposes limits on the circumstances and manner of application and use of a civil penalty order. A person who is faced with the possibility of a civil penalty may elect to be prosecuted for a criminal offence, which must be proved at the higher standard of “beyond reasonable doubt”.
  - For the purposes of allowing a person to make an election, the Minister must serve a notice on the person advising the person that he or she may, by written notice to the Minister, elect to be prosecuted for the contravention, and allowing the person not less than 21 days to do so. This is the reason for the service of this notice.
- 3 Proceedings for a civil penalty are stayed if criminal proceedings are started or have already been started against the person for an offence that is the same (or substantially the same) as the conduct alleged to constitute the contravention to which the proceedings relate. They may be resumed if the criminal proceedings do not result in a formal finding of guilty being made against the person.
  - 4 If an amount is paid in the civil proceedings, criminal proceedings may not be initiated against the person for an offence constituted by conduct that is the same (or substantially the same) as the conduct alleged to constitute the contravention in relation to which the amount has been paid.
