LIVESTOCK ACT 1997, SECTION 37: DECLARATION OF A
LIVESTOCK STANDSTILL IN RELATION TO HORSES,
DONKEYS, ASSES AND MULES

Notice under the Livestock Act, 1997 for Preventing the Introduction and Spread of Equine Influenza

BY virtue of the provisions of the Livestock Act 1997, and for the purpose of preventing the introduction to, and spread within, the State of South Australia of the declared exotic disease Equine Influenza, I do hereby:

1. Prohibit the introduction of any horses, donkeys, asses or mules into the State of South Australia, except as provided in any written authority given by an inspector duly appointed under the Livestock Act 1997, and
2. Prohibit the travelling or movement of any horses, donkeys, asses or mules within the State of South Australia, except as provided in any written authority given by an inspector duly appointed under the Livestock Act 1997, and
3. Any horses, donkeys, asses or mules in transit at the time of imposition of this movement prohibition must either complete their journey expeditiously or return to the place where the movement commenced (if commenced within South Australia), and the horses, donkeys, asses or mules must not have contact with animals not of the same consignment.

This Notice shall remain in force for a period of 66 hours commencing 6 p.m., Saturday, 25 August 2007, unless amended or revoked by subsequent notice.

PAUL CAICA, Acting Minister for Racing
