AUTHORISED BETTING OPERATIONS ACT 2000

GR Notice No. 1 of 2013
Advertising Codes of Practice (Live Odds) Variation
Notice 2013

[11 July 2013]

By this notice, the Independent Gambling Authority varies notices prescribing advertising codes of practice, as follows:

1. Citation, commencement

- (1) This notice may be cited as the Advertising Codes of Practice (Live Odds) Variation Notice 2013.
- (2) This notice comes into operation on 1 August 2013.
- (3) In this notice, a reference to a named advertising code of practice is a reference to a notice published under section 6A(1)(a) of the Authorised Betting Operations Act 2000 prescribing an advertising code of practice of that name.
- (4) This notice is authorised by section 6A(4) of the Authorised Betting Operations Act 2000.

2. Variation of the Advertising (Authorised Interstate Betting Operators) Code of Practice¹

- (1) In this clause, the Advertising (Authorised Interstate Betting Operators) Code of Practice is referred to as “the Principal Code”.
- (2) After clause 3(3) of the Principal Code, insert—

“(4) Schedule 1 applies to advertising by a gambling provider in respect of an event which has commenced.”.

¹ Code prescribed by notice published in the South Australian Government Gazette on 27 February 2009 (No. 14 of 2009) at pages 835–839, and varied by further notice published on 15 July 2010 (No. 46 of 2010), at pages 3421–3423.

- (3) After clause 8 of the Principal Code, insert a schedule—

“Schedule 1

LIVE ODDS

1 Live odds—application

- (1) Subject to sub-clause (2), this Schedule applies to gambling advertising which—
- (a) encourages betting on a form of gambling to which clause 2 states this Schedule applies; and
 - (b) is undertaken at a time to which clause 3 states this Schedule applies.
- (2) This Schedule does not apply to gambling advertising placed in a live sporting broadcast in a manner which complies with a recognised broadcasting code.

2 Live odds—forms of gambling

- (1) The forms of gambling to which this Schedule applies are—
- (a) betting on a contingency as to the outcome of an event;

Examples: These forms of betting include predicting the winner of a match, the winning margin for a match, etc.
 - (b) betting on a contingency which is dependent on the holding of an event; and

Examples: These forms of betting include predicting the lead at particular intervals (quarter-by-quarter scores, etc), the identity of the first scorer in an event, the number of possessions, kicks, catches, wickets achieved by a player, etc.
 - (c) betting on a contingency which is dependent on the outcomes of multiple related events or rounds of events (a “tournament”).

Examples: These forms of betting include predicting the outcome of a whole year or series of competition, which teams will make a finals series, or a particular level in a finals series, etc.
- (2) For the purposes of this Schedule, gambling advertising encourages betting on a form of gambling if—
- (a) it quotes a price; or
 - (b) it draws attention to the time period in which the form of gambling is available; or
 - (c) it draws attention in any way to the availability of the form of gambling; or
 - (d) it otherwise encourages the betting—
- regardless of whether that form of gambling is approved, or capable of being approved, for the gambling provider in South Australia.

3 Live odds—applicable times

The times to which this Schedule applies are—

- (a) in respect of an event which is completed in a single period of 24 hours—any time after the commencement of the event;

Example: Live odds on any outcome of a football game could not be advertised once play has commenced in the first quarter.
- (b) in respect of an event which is scheduled to be completed over more than one period of 24 hours—

- (i) if the relevant contingency relates to the actual outcome of the event—any time after the commencement of the event during the 24 hour period in which the event is scheduled to conclude; and

Example: Live odds on the outcome of a 5 day test cricket match could not be advertised after the start of play on the fifth day.

- (ii) if sub-paragraph (i) does not apply—any time between the commencement of the event in a particular period of 24 hours and the end of the event in that period; and

Example: This relates to the “derivative” forms of betting—the identity of the first scorer in an event, the number of possessions, kicks, catches, wickets achieved by a player, etc—and also to contingencies such as that the event will conclude early, or on the day of the bet.

- (c) in respect of a tournament—the commencement of the related event or round of events (as the case requires) by or in which the relevant contingency will be determined.

Example: Live odds on a tennis player reaching the semi-finals of a tournament could not be advertised after the start of the player’s quarter-final round match.

4. Regulation of live odds advertising

Gambling advertising to which this Schedule applies may only be undertaken—

- (a) in print media;
- (b) on a dedicated sports channel;
- (c) on a public webpage;
- (d) by telephone voice call; or
- (e) in a virtual gambling area.

5. Definitions

- (1) In this Schedule—

“Broadcasting Services Act” means the Broadcasting Services Act 1992 (Commonwealth) as in force from time to time;

“celebrity commentary” means any commentary on radio or television about the performance or prospects of an entrant in an event on which betting takes place made directly or indirectly by a person expressly or impliedly representing a gambling provider;

“dedicated sports channel” means a radio broadcasting service or a television broadcasting service principally operated for the purpose of promoting gambling products of the nature of a gambling provider’s products, or events related to those gambling products;

“direct customer communication” means a message (including an email message) sent to an account holder or a person enrolled in a loyalty program at an address provided for that purpose;

“gambling advertising”—see sub-clause (2);

“plug” means—

- (a) any mention on radio or television which—
 - (i) includes information about a gambling provider’s gambling products; or

- (ii) associates a gambling provider or one or more of the gambling provider's gambling products with a particular program or period of programming; or

(b) celebrity commentary;

“radio or television” means any kind of radio or television broadcasting service within the meaning given by the Broadcasting Services Act 1992 (Commonwealth) and “radio” and “television” have corresponding meanings;

“recognised broadcasting code” means a code, or specified provisions of a code—

- (a) which is a registered code of practice within the meaning given by the Broadcasting Services Act;
- (b) with which a licensee under the Broadcasting Services Act is required to comply (whether by licence condition or otherwise); and
- (c) which has been recognised by the Authority by instrument in writing;

“virtual gambling area” means a webpage or a display on an internet-enabled device which provides for a person to gamble with a gambling provider.

- (2) For the purposes of this Schedule, gambling advertising includes—
- (a) advertising by a gambling provider of a particular gambling product or particular gambling products;
 - (b) advertising by a gambling provider which draws attention to the gambling provider without referring to particular gambling or products or products which are not gambling; and
 - (c) advertising by a gambling provider of the opportunity to open a gambling account with the gambling provider—

and a provision of this Schedule which requires that gambling advertising have (or not have) a particular quality or attribute must be read as imposing a corresponding obligation on a gambling provider to ensure that its gambling advertising has (or does not have) that quality or attribute.

- (3) For the purposes of this Schedule, a gambling provider will be regarded as advertising—
- (a) if a provider of radio or television runs—
 - (i) a plug (other than celebrity commentary) in exchange for a payment or for some other form of valuable consideration (including an agreement to purchase advertising); or
 - (ii) a plug in the nature of celebrity commentary; or
 - (b) if a provider of radio or television, or a publisher, includes content in exchange for a payment or for some other form of valuable consideration (including an agreement to purchase advertising).
- (4) For the purposes of this Schedule, a gambling provider will not be regarded as advertising when the gambling provider sends a direct customer communication.
- (5) For avoidance of doubt—
- (a) to the extent of any inconsistency between expressions defined by this clause and their definitions in this code or the Act, the expression given by this clause will prevail;

- (b) the operation of this Schedule is not intended to limit the operation of the rest of the code.”.

3. Variation of the Advertising (Bookmakers) Code of Practice²

- (1) In this clause, the Advertising (Bookmakers) Code of Practice is referred to as “the Principal Code”.
- (2) After clause 3(3) of the Principal Code, insert—
- “(4) Schedule 1 applies to advertising by a gambling provider in respect of an event which has commenced.”.
- (3) After clause 8 of the Principal Code, insert a schedule—

“Schedule 1

- (5) For avoidance of doubt—
- (a) to the extent of any inconsistency between expressions defined by this clause and their definitions in this code or the Act, the expression given by this clause will prevail;
 - (b) the operation of this Schedule is not intended to limit the operation of the rest of the code.”.

5. Variation of the Advertising (SA TAB) Code of Practice⁴

- (1) In this clause, the Advertising (SA TAB) Code of Practice is referred to as “the Principal Code”.
- (2) After clause 3(3) of the Principal Code, insert—
- “(4) Schedule 1 applies to advertising by a gambling provider in respect of an event which has commenced.”.
- (3) After clause 8 of the Principal Code, insert a schedule—

“Schedule 1

LIVE ODDS

1 Live odds—application

- (1) Subject to sub-clause (2), this Schedule applies to gambling advertising which—
- (a) encourages betting on a form of gambling to which clause 2 states this Schedule applies; and
 - (b) is undertaken at a time to which clause 3 states this Schedule applies.
- (2) This Schedule does not apply to gambling advertising placed in a live sporting broadcast in a manner which complies with a recognised broadcasting code.

⁴ Code prescribed by notice published in the South Australian Government Gazette on 27 February 2009 (No. 14 of 2009) at pages 849–853, and varied by further notice published on 15 July 2010 (No. 46 of 2010), at pages 3421–3423.

2 Live odds—forms of gambling

(1) The forms of gambling to which this Schedule applies are—

(a) betting on a contingency as to the outcome of an event;

Examples: These forms of betting include predicting the winner of a match, the winning margin for a match, etc.

(b) betting on a contingency which is dependent on the holding of an event; and

Examples: These forms of betting include predicting the lead at particular intervals (quarter-by-quarter scores, etc), the identity of the first scorer in an event, the number of possessions, kicks, catches, wickets achieved by a player, etc.

(c) betting on a contingency which is dependent on the outcomes of multiple related events or rounds of events (a “tournament”).

Examples: These forms of betting include predicting the outcome of a whole year or series of competition, which teams will make a finals series, or a particular level in a finals series, etc.

(2) For the purposes of this Schedule, gambling advertising encourages betting on a form of gambling if—

(a) it quotes a price; or

(b) it draws attention to the time period in which the form of gambling is available; or

(c) it draws attention in any way to the availability of the form of gambling; or

(d) it otherwise encourages the betting—

regardless of whether that form of gambling is approved, or capable of being approved, for the gambling provider in South Australia.

3 Live odds—applicable times

The times to which this Schedule applies are—

(a) in respect of an event which is completed in a single period of 24 hours—any time after the commencement of the event;

Example: Live odds on any outcome of a football game could not be advertised once play has commenced in the first quarter.

(b) in respect of an event which is scheduled to be completed over more than one period of 24 hours—

(i) if the relevant contingency relates to the actual outcome of the event—any time after the commencement of the event during the 24 hour period in which the event is scheduled to conclude; and

Example: Live odds on the outcome of a 5 day test cricket match could not be advertised after the start of play on the fifth day.

(ii) if sub-paragraph (i) does not apply—any time between the commencement of the event in a particular period of 24 hours and the end of the event in that period; and

Example: This relates to the “derivative” forms of betting—the identity of the first scorer in an event, the number of possessions, kicks, catches, wickets achieved by a player, etc—and also to contingencies such as that the event will conclude early, or on the day of the bet.

(c) in respect of a tournament—the commencement of the related event or round of events (as the case requires) by or in which the relevant contingency will be determined.

Example: Live odds on a tennis player reaching the semi-finals of a tournament could not be advertised after the start of the player’s quarter-final round match.

4. Regulation of live odds advertising

Gambling advertising to which this Schedule applies may only be undertaken—

- (a) in print media;
- (b) on a dedicated sports channel;
- (c) on a public webpage;
- (d) by telephone voice call; or
- (e) in a gambling area or a virtual gambling area.

5. Definitions

(1) In this Schedule—

“Broadcasting Services Act” means the Broadcasting Services Act 1992 (Commonwealth) as in force from time to time;

“celebrity commentary” means any commentary on radio or television about the performance or prospects of an entrant in an event on which betting takes place made directly or indirectly by a person expressly or impliedly representing a gambling provider;

“dedicated sports channel” means a radio broadcasting service or a television broadcasting service principally operated for the purpose of promoting gambling products of the nature of a gambling provider’s products, or events related to those gambling products;

“direct customer communication” means a message (including an email message) sent to an account holder or a person enrolled in a loyalty program at an address provided for that purpose;

“gambling advertising”—see sub-clause (2);

“gambling area” means the immediate environs of—

- (a) the point of sale for a totalisator product;
- (b) the point of sale for a fixed odds betting product; or
- (c) a betting ring;

“plug” means—

- (a) any mention on radio or television which—
 - (i) includes information about a gambling provider’s gambling products; or
 - (ii) associates a gambling provider or one or more of the gambling provider’s gambling products with a particular program or period of programming; or
- (b) celebrity commentary;

“radio or television” means any kind of radio or television broadcasting service within the meaning given by the Broadcasting Services Act 1992 (Commonwealth) and “radio” and “television” have corresponding meanings;

“recognised broadcasting code” means a code, or specified provisions of a code—

- (a) which is a registered code of practice within the meaning given by the Broadcasting Services Act;
- (b) with which a licensee under the Broadcasting Services Act is required to comply (whether by licence condition or otherwise); and

- (c) which has been recognised by the Authority by instrument in writing;

“virtual gambling area” means a webpage or a display on an internet-enabled device which provides for a person to gamble with a gambling provider.

- (2) For the purposes of this Schedule, gambling advertising includes—
- (a) advertising by a gambling provider of a particular gambling product or particular gambling products;
 - (b) advertising by a gambling provider which draws attention to the gambling provider without referring to particular gambling or products or products which are not gambling; and
 - (c) advertising by a gambling provider of the opportunity to open a gambling account with the gambling provider—
- and a provision of this Schedule which requires that gambling advertising have (or not have) a particular quality or attribute must be read as imposing a corresponding obligation on a gambling provider to ensure that its gambling advertising has (or does not have) that quality or attribute.
- (3) For the purposes of this Schedule, a gambling provider will be regarded as advertising—
- (a) if a provider of radio or television runs—
 - (i) a plug (other than celebrity commentary) in exchange for a payment or for some other form of valuable consideration (including an agreement to purchase advertising); or
 - (ii) a plug in the nature of celebrity commentary; or
 - (b) if a provider of radio or television, or a publisher, includes content in exchange for a payment or for some other form of valuable consideration (including an agreement to purchase advertising).
- (4) For the purposes of this Schedule, a gambling provider will not be regarded as advertising when the gambling provider sends a direct customer communication.
- (5) For avoidance of doubt—
- (a) to the extent of any inconsistency between expressions defined by this clause and their definitions in this code or the Act, the expression given by this clause will prevail;
 - (b) the operation of this Schedule is not intended to limit the operation of the rest of the code.”.

ALEXANDRINA COUNCIL

DEVELOPMENT ACT 1993

Rural Areas Development Plan Amendment

NOTICE is hereby given that the Alexandrina Council, pursuant to Sections 24 and 25 of the Development Act 1993, has prepared a Development Plan Amendment Report (DPA) to amend its Development Plan.

Council's Rural Areas Strategy and Action Plan, prepared in July 2008, identified a number of actions to be undertaken to assist in providing strong protection for viable primary production in the Council area. Action 3 of the Strategy recommended that Council undertake a 'Rural Areas Development Plan Amendment' to address a number of issues. This DPA is proposing to amend various policies in Council's Development Plan to assist in realising the vision Council has for its rural areas. Key policy improvements include:

- Boundary Realignments—improved guidance for re-alignment of allotment boundaries including minimum and maximum allotment sizes and the location/size of productive rural land.
- Langhorne Creek Region—introduction and acknowledgement of this region based on the Langhorne Creek Wine Region. Improved policy will provide for the creation of new allotments to facilitate horticulture and viticulture activities.
- On-farm rural produce sales—similar to promoting cellar doors in association with wineries, introduction of policy to 'value add' in permitting the sale of on-farm rural produce through 'farm gate sales'.
- Second dwelling—improved policy to assist operative farms in providing a second dwelling for family and workers.

The DPA is available on the Alexandrina Council Website at www.alexandrina.sa.gov.au. Hard copies are available for inspection at the Alexandrina Council offices, or for borrowing from the Alexandrina Libraries located at 11 Cadell Street, Goolwa and Colman Terrace, Strathalbyn.

Written submissions regarding the proposed amendments will be accepted by the Alexandrina Council until 5 p.m. on Friday, 6 September 2013. The submission should also state whether you wish to be heard at a public hearing. All submissions should be addressed to the Chief Executive, Alexandrina Council, P.O. Box 21, Goolwa, S.A. 5214 or emailed to alex@alexandrina.sa.gov.au.

At the conclusion of the public consultation period, all submissions will be made available to the public on the Alexandrina Council website and at Council offices.

A public hearing will be held in order to hear submissions from individuals who request to speak in relation to the DPA. If there is no request to speak at the hearing, it will not be held. If needed, a public hearing will be held at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, 17 September 2013 at the Alexandrina Council, Library and Community Centre, 1 Colman Terrace, Strathalbyn.

Should you require any clarification or further information please contact Tom Gregory—Policy Planner on 8555 7000.

Dated 11 July 2013.
