COMPULSORY THIRD PARTY INSURANCE PREMIUM SCHEDULE

COMPULSORY THIRD PARTY (CTP) INSURANCE – POLICY OF INSURANCE

- The insurer (the Motor Accident Commission) insures the owner of the motor vehicle and any other person who at any time drives or is a passenger in or on the vehicle, whether with or without the consent of the owner, in respect of all liability that may be incurred by the owner or other person in respect of the death of, or bodily injury to, any person caused by or arising out of the use of the vehicle in any part of the Commonwealth.
- A person so insured warrants that he or she will not-
 - drive the vehicle, or do or omit to do anything in relation to the vehicle, with the intention of causing the death of, or bodily injury to, a person or damage to another's property or with reckless indifference as to whether such death, bodily injury or damage results; or
 - drive the vehicle while so much under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a drug as to be incapable of exercising effective control of the vehicle; or
 - drive the vehicle while there is present in his or her blood a concentration of .1 grams or more of alcohol in 100 millilitres of blood; or
 - drive the vehicle while not duly licensed or otherwise permitted by law to drive the motor vehicle; or
 - drive the vehicle while the vehicle is overloaded, or in an unsafe, unroadworthy or damaged condition; or
 - use the vehicle otherwise than-
 - for the purposes stated in the application for registration, renewal of registration, exemption from registration or a permit, in respect of the vehicle; or
 - if trade plates are affixed to the vehicle - for purposes stated in the application for the issuing of those plates; or
 - for purposes agreed on between the insurer and the registered owner of the vehicle.
 - if the person is the driver of the vehicle when it is involved in an accident in which a person is killed or injured - commit an offence against section 43 of the Road Traffic Act 1961 (e.g. hit and run offence).
- The owner of the vehicle warrants that no person will, with his or her knowledge or consent (which will be presumed in any proceedings in the absence of proof to the contrary), drive or use the vehicle, or do or omit to do anything in relation to the vehicle, contrary to any paragraphs of clause 2.
- This policy of insurance does not extend to liability arising from death of, or bodily injury to, a participant in a road race caused by the act or omission of another participant in the road race.

RECOVERY OF EXCESS AND OTHER CLAIMS COSTS

An excess applies from an insured person who has incurred a liability under the policy and who is more than 25% at fault. The excess is a prescribed amount and is indexed every year on 1 January. The amount of the excess will depend on the year in which the accident occurred. For the relevant excess, please refer to www.mac.sa.gov.au/excess.

If an insured person has breached the Policy of Insurance (see above) the insurer may exercise its rights of recovery against that person. The insurer's right to recover an excess or claims costs against an insured person is in addition to any other penalties which may apply for driving offences or any liability that person may incur for damage to property.

It is an offence to drive an uninsured vehicle on a road. If you are driving an uninsured motor vehicle and you cause someone else injury, you may be liable to repay all compensation paid.

ASSISTANCE IN DETERMINING THE APPROPRIATE PREMIUM CLASS

The premium class has been determined based on information previously supplied. It is advisable to check the insurance class and insurance premium payable shown on the registration renewal notice against the CTP Insurance Schedule shown overleaf. In reviewing the premium class, attention should be given to:

- Type of vehicle
- The input tax credit (ITC) entitlement of the registered owner (see below)
- The postcode area in which it is usually garaged (see below)

If the information shown is incorrect, a Service SA customer service centre should be notified immediately. An 'Application to Change the Insurance Premium Class on a Registration' may be required due to:

- A change of residential and/or garaging address
- A change in concession status
- A change in the input tax credit (ITC) entitlement of the registered owner
- A change in the use of the vehicle
- An alteration to the vehicle

GST

The premiums shown overleaf include stamp duty payable by the insurer. In accordance with GST laws, no GST is charged on the stamp duty component of the premium.

DIRECT DEBIT

For Monthly Direct Debit options please refer to www.sa.gov.au/ezyreg. Loading applicable for monthly direct debit is that for quarterly payments outlined on page 2.

THE INPUT TAX CREDIT (ITC) ENTITLEMENT OF THE REGISTERED OWNER

You must select an 'ITC' Entitled premium class if the vehicle is used for any purpose that entitles you to claim back any part of the GST component of the CTP premium. Under the Commonwealth GST Law*, this is known as 'Input Tax Credit' (ITC).

*GST Law means the Commonwealth legislation: A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999.

A tax invoice will be provided with your registration certificate, detailing the amount of GST you can claim. If you are unsure whether you can claim the GST paid, then you should consult your accountant, financial advisor or the Australian Taxation Office.

Incorrect ITC classification: If the ITC classification details are incorrect, you will need to apply to change these details by completing the Application to Change the Insurance Premium Class on Registration Form (MR82) at your local Service SA customer service centre.

Failure to notify the insurer of the correct premium may incur a penalty up to $5,000. This penalty is in addition to any premium differential payable. It is an offence to provide false information or withhold any information which may be necessary to determine the appropriate insurance premium.

THE POSTCODE AREA IN WHICH THE VEHICLE IS GARAGED

"Insurance Rating District 1" - "District 1" consists of the following postcodes:

All postcodes between 5000 and 5201 inclusive (with the exception of 5001 and 5174) and postcodes, 5231, 5232, 5233, 5240, 5241, 5242, 5243, 5244, 5245, 5250, 5251, 5252, 5942, and 5950.

CTP INSURANCE PREMIUM SCHEDULE Effective 1 July 2014

Where a vehicle is within more than one category the premium shall be that fixed by the category deemed by the insurer to be the appropriate category for that vehicle. Where the Act provides for a vehicle to be registered and insured for a term beyond 12 months, a premium calculated in proportion to the 12 monthly premium applies. *All premiums are inclusive of GST. MOTOR VEHICLE ACCIDENTS (LIFETIME SUPPORT SCHEME) ACT 2013

Code of Conduct and Participant Service Charter 2014

IN accordance with Section 23 (4) of the Motor Vehicle Accidents (Lifetime Support Scheme) Act 2013, the Lifetime Support Authority Board is required to publish the following Code of Conduct and Participant Service Charter 2014.

Part 1 – Purpose and Scope of the Code

Policy Statement

The Lifetime Support Authority's (LSA) Code of Conduct outlines values and behaviours to help us provide the best outcome for our participants, maintain respectful relationships with our service partners and stakeholders, and take a flexible, positive approach to our service provision.

This Code of Conduct has been developed in accordance with the Motor Vehicle Accidents (Lifetime Support Scheme) Act 2013 which requires the LSA set out:

- a. the procedures that will be adopted by the Authority to assist people to assess whether they are eligible to be participants in the Scheme; and
- b. the procedures that will be adopted by the Authority to assess the needs of participants in the Scheme and to ensure that participants are appropriately assisted under the Scheme; and
- c. other steps that will be taken by the Authority to ensure that its staff interact with people in a constructive and supportive manner.¹

As LSA employees we are required to ensure that our conduct meets the highest ethical standards when we are fulfilling our responsibilities and to act in the public interest. We hold a position of trust in the community and make decisions that affect the lives of others.

We adhere to a standard of professional behaviour that promotes and maintains public confidence and trust in the work of the LSA. We are all responsible and accountable for; applying the appropriate standard of professional behaviour in the performance of our duties, responsibly implementing the Lifetime Support Scheme Rules, and adhering to the LSA's policies and procedures.

The Code also contains the Participant Service Charter. The Charter ensures we provide services to participants of the Lifetime Support Scheme (LSS) in accordance with specific standards and conveys what a participant can do to help us to provide them with the highest quality of service and support.

Scope of the Code

This Code is a guide and resource for participants, board members, employees, trainees and apprentices, temporary agency staff, consultants, volunteers, professional services contractors and sub-contractors and their employees and visitors to the workplace². It contains general values and statements of behaviour which may be expanded upon in other LSA policies and procedures.

Acknowledgement and compliance with the Code is a condition of employment, as is compliance with any applicable laws. Should there be a conflict between the Code and any of the policies, the Code prevails.

² Workplace may constitute the LSA office(s), health care settings, applicant/participant homes, community settings, etc.

Our Values

In performing our duties we value:

- Respect
We respect each other, our participants, their families and carers, our service partners and our community.
- Integrity
We are fair and transparent, do as we say and say what we do, and build trust and respect among our participants, their families and carers, employees, providers and the community.
- Professionalism
We display a high standard of professional behaviour that inspires public confidence and trust in our actions and decisions.
- Learning
We see every task and interaction as an opportunity to learn and continually improve performance. We are reflective, ask for and act on feedback, and constantly evaluate our performance.

In providing services we value:

- Participation
We work in partnership with participants, their families and carers to enable them and ensure they have a voice, choice, and control.
- Responsibility
We share a mutual responsibility with participants, the community and providers to make the most of the potential for independence, integration and inclusion in the community.
- Empathy
We seek to understand, acknowledge and assist with the needs and difficulties of our participants, their families and carers, and to find ways to help them overcome challenges.
- Assurance
We are committed to providing certainty of funding through responsible financial administration and ensuring that necessary and reasonable benefits are only accessed by those for whom the LSS is intended.

We also commit to the values that define ethical behaviour as outlined in the South Australian Public Sector Code of Ethics for the South Australian Public Sector.

This Code of Conduct provides a framework for decisions, actions and appropriate behaviour in a workplace context. It guides the decisions and actions to be undertaken in executing the functions of the LSA and articulates the particular behaviours expected when we are interacting with applicants or participants.

Part 2 – Our Code of Conduct

Members of the LSA Board will lead by example and set a tone reinforcing the importance of ethical behaviour. The Board will act as positive role models within and outside of the LSA, promote our cultural values and require compliance with this Code.

Everyone who works for or represents the LSA is required to comply with the following behaviours, standards and commitments.

Treat each other with respect

We work together as a team and treat each other with respect and dignity. We engage in constructive debate and listen to the views of others respectfully.

Deal with any matters consistently, fairly and promptly

We deal with all matters consistently, fairly and promptly and in a manner that conforms to the principles of natural justice and in accordance with approved LSA processes. Any discretionary powers are exercised based on relevant facts and the individual merits of a matter.

Not tolerate discrimination or harassment

We demonstrate equal opportunity and seek to recruit, hire, develop and retain the most qualified people from a diverse pool. We do not discriminate based on race, colour, religion, gender, ethnicity, pregnancy, age, disability, sexual orientation, marital status or any other status protected by law.

We do not bully, discriminate, harass, intimidate or vilify any fellow employees or persons we encounter during the course of business.

Not accept bribes, gifts and/or benefits

We do not directly or indirectly accept anything which is intended to, or could be seen to, change the way we perform our duties, create an obligation or create an expectation that something will be given in return.

We will comply with policies and processes in relation to accepting, declaring and/or recording the receipt of gifts or benefits.

Safeguard confidential information

We recognise that unauthorised disclosures may cause harm to individuals, give an individual an improper advantage or cause damage to the credibility of the LSA.

We protect the confidentiality of personal information collected and used by the LSA. Unless permitted by legislation, we will not disclose any confidential information and will ensure it is stored in a form that cannot be accessed by unauthorised persons.

We protect all LSA records and information in accordance with our policies and processes and ensure that we comply with the Information Privacy Principles Instruction and our obligations under the State Records Act 1997. Access to information will occur in compliance with the Freedom of Information Act 1991 (SA).

Exercise responsibility when making public comments

We do not make any public comments on behalf of the LSA without appropriate approval. This includes public speaking engagements or comments on radio, television or in letters to newspapers and on any social media site.

When approval is sought and given, we can accept engagements with professional, education and community groups relating to the LSA's activities.

Where comments are of a personal nature, they should be clearly identified as such.

Communicate with integrity and respect

We communicate with colleagues and other people we encounter in the course of the LSA's work responsibly and respectfully. We utilise the internet responsibly and do not participate, access or disseminate inappropriate material, such as sexually explicit, pornographic, or otherwise offensive, demeaning or unlawful material.

Use office resources efficiently

We are efficient and economical in the use and management of workplace resources and do not misuse them. We commit to ethical, lawful and appropriate use of workplace resources in accordance with LSA policies and processes.

Comply with LSA policies

We comply with all LSA policies as well as terms and conditions of our employment.

Deal with complaints appropriately

We take grievances or complaints that we receive seriously.

Concerns or complaints in relation to this Code, LSA conduct or policy are addressed in Part 4 of this Code.

Consider our duties as employees when undertaking secondary employment

We seek any necessary approvals prior to engaging in any form of secondary employment. If we are engaging in any secondary employment, we discuss this with the Chief Executive to assess any actual or perceived conflicts which may exist between this and our work as LSA employees. Secondary employment will not interfere with the performance of our duties as LSA employees.

Ensure we meet our work health and safety obligations and are fit for work

We take reasonable care for our health and safety and ensure that our actions or inactions do not adversely affect the health and safety of others. We follow all policies and processes which are applicable for the safety and security of LSA employees, participants, visitors, premises and equipment and participate in any relevant work health and safety training.

We present ourselves to work in a manner which ensures we are capable of safely carrying out our duties and responsibilities and not in a condition which may adversely affect the way we do our job, or compromises the safety of others.

Ensure we meet our duty of care and mandatory reporting obligations

We will ensure the safety and welfare of participants by:

- submitting to appropriate criminal history checks as required by law or recommended as appropriate;
- monitoring participant safety and welfare in the course of our duties;
- implementing child protection mandatory reporting processes;
- having prescribed emergency response procedures in place;
- requiring service providers to identify their emergency response plan for each participant;
- taking immediate action should the law or LSA policies be contravened;
- reporting incidents immediately to the relevant authorities and LSA management; and
- proactively responding to incidents.

Part 3 – Our Interactions In All Processes

Early Engagement

We are proactive in ensuring the people who are eligible for the LSS are engaged as early as possible. We maintain positive and ongoing relationships with the Motor Accident Commission, South Australia Police and Ambulance Service, SA Health, the private health system and other key stakeholders to ensure early notification and dissemination of information to people who may be eligible to participate in the LSS.

We promote the LSS and information regarding eligibility to the public without bias, and in relevant settings such as hospitals, rehabilitation units, health and legal professional associations. Information for potential applicants will be provided in plain English and offered in other community languages.

Eligibility Assessments

We assist people in assessing whether they are eligible to be participants in the LSS at the appropriate time and in collaboration with treating professionals.

We arrange for a representative to visit and meet with potential participants and/or family members to discuss the LSS and assist in completing and lodging an application.

We take all reasonable steps to help potential participants complete and lodge applications, particularly where they may be from a disadvantaged or minority group. This may include Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders, people with severe or chronic mental illness, those who are homeless, the elderly, those who do not speak English or speak it only as a second language.

We will collect the relevant eligibility assessments from treating professionals and/ or the insurer to simplify the process for applicants.

Applicants will be advised of the LSA's determination or, if appropriate, advice concerning deferral or review, in writing, as soon as practicable.

In the case of people deemed ineligible for the LSS we will arrange to meet with the individual to work through the reasons for the determination and to provide information about our processes for resolving disputes about eligibility. We will also instigate working arrangements with other relevant agencies to ensure they receive adequate advice and to access other services the individual may be eligible for.

Once accepted into the LSS we will ensure participants are engaged in processes to confirm their needs and for determinations of necessary and reasonable treatment, care and support to be made.

Providing Treatment, Care and Support

We will ensure participants are engaged in needs assessments in consultation with medical and rehabilitative specialists and we will utilise relevant medical tools to ascertain a participant's specific needs.

Our communication with participants and other relevant parties will be conducted as effectively and efficiently as possible. This includes providing information, making decisions and answering queries as quickly and constructively as possible.

The process of assessing a participant's needs is interactive and ongoing, from confirmation of eligibility to the identification of changes in a participant's treatment, care and support needs.

Once a participant is accepted into the LSS, the determination of necessary and reasonable treatment, care and support leads to the certification of individualised treatment, care and support needs.

Whilst the LSA determines the quantum of necessary and reasonable treatment, care and support that each participant is eligible for, participants have the final say about the events and activities of their daily life in relation to the services received within the bounds of the prescribed LSA package of support.

We will maintain a register of approved service providers who meet the relevant standards. We will make this information available to participants to enable them to decide on the best provider for themselves.

We will utilise a person-centred approach, enabling participants, their families and friends to play an active role in planning service delivery, including the choice of service provider and monitoring progress towards personal goals and outcomes to enhance quality of life and provide opportunities to participate and contribute to social and economic life

Wherever possible and desired, lifetime participants, their family members and friends will play an active role in planning supports, services and achieving outcomes.

Part 4 – Participant Service Charter

Our Participants' Rights and Responsibilities

Participants of the LSS have a right to:

- be treated with dignity in a professional and courteous manner which respects and appreciates differences related to race, ethnicity, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, religion, personal values, age, disability and economic status;
- receive dependable and reliable support that will meet individual needs;
- give consent prior to any information about them being collected, used or disclosed to others;
- be consulted and make informed decisions concerning the type of assistance they receive, the manner in which it is provided, by whom and when;
- make a complaint about the service received from the LSA or a contracted service provider and expect that this complaint will be investigated appropriately and in confidence;
- view information about themselves held by the LSA or a contracted service provider with reasonable notice;
- protection from harm or undue influence from others when accessing our services.

Participants can expect us to provide:

- identification to confirm we represent the LSA when dealing with them;
- an interpreter or other language services, if needed;
- open, flexible communication options to suit their needs;
- timely advice on their eligibility for the Scheme;
- advice on other support which may be available if they are not eligible for a service;
- advice about how they can ask for our decision to be reviewed or how they can make a complaint.

Participants can be assured that:

- we will focus on their strengths and capabilities and help maximise their participation in the community;
- we will listen to them and be responsive;
- their services are a priority for us;
- we will do the things we say we will do, like getting back to them when we say we will;
- their personal privacy will be respected and confidentiality protected to the greatest extent permitted by law;
- we will only collect personal information if it is for a lawful purpose and it is reasonable and necessary for us to have; and
- we will make it easy for them to contact us.

How participants can help us provide high quality service

Participants of the LSS are asked to:

- provide accurate and up-to-date information about themselves, or give consent for us to access the necessary information from others in order to deliver the best service;
- nominate a support person to assist them in dealing with us, if they desire;
- be courteous and respectful of others, including our staff, contracted service providers and other participants.

It is each participant's responsibility to:

- ensure funding provided by us is only spent on the treatment, care and support we have agreed to;
- tell us if their situation changes or might be about to change;
- do the things they have agreed to do like keeping appointments with us, or letting us know if they cannot keep appointments;
- treat staff in a way that is not threatening, abusive or intimidating; and
- give us honest feedback about our services.

The LSA maintains a suite of Client Policies which express the LSA philosophies in supporting participants of the LSS. The policies are reviewed on a regular basis in collaboration with LSA participants and are available on the LSA website. The policies can be provided in other accessible formats on request.

Supported Decision Making and advocacy

LSS participants are entitled to access supported decision making. We will provide our participants with the appropriate framework to allow them to utilise supported decision making where appropriate and desired.

Supported decision making refers to the process where a person with a disability, notably those with complex needs, cognitive and/or communication requirements, is assisted to understand, consider and communicate their choices. With supported decision making, the choice ultimately remains the decision of the person with a disability.

Supporters are expected to help the person with the disability, understand the choices open to them, the consequences of each option, and allow the person to make his or her own decision. Supporters will remain objective and not unduly influence the person in the decision making process.

LSS participants are entitled to be in control of their own lives, but sometimes may find themselves in a position where their ability to represent their own interests is limited. In these circumstances, an independent advocate can help ensure that a participant's views are heard, respected and acted upon. An advocate is someone who is free to support the person, provided they have no conflicts of interest.

We acknowledge the role of advocacy and respect that it can support people to promote pursuit of their goals and the planning and delivery of their supports.

Advocates and supporters must be guided by this Code, the LSS Rules and recognised codes of practice for advocates.

The LSA will work with appropriate advocates and supporters in the spirit of this Code but will not condone these parties as substitute decision makers for the adult person with a disability.

The LSA respects the role of parents in the decision making involving child participants.

Where a Guardian has been appointed to support a child or adult with a disability, the LSA will engage Guardians to the extent of their legal responsibility, however the LSA expects that the Guardian will endeavour to involve the person with a disability in the decision making process, as far as is reasonable given their capacity..

Where a person with a disability cannot realistically engage in decision making, the Guardian should endeavour to identify previous information about the person that will inform the likely decision he or she might have made if able.

Complaints and Dispute Resolution

Delivering a high quality service is paramount to the LSA. If anyone has a complaint about the LSA or how the LSA has exercised a function or power under the Act, we encourage them to follow this process so that the complaint can be addressed and resolved.

For disputes about eligibility for participation in the LSS, please see Part 3 of the LSS Rules. For disputes about participant treatment, care and support needs, please see Part 16 of the LSS Rules.

If a participant in the LSS has a complaint or dispute, they should first raise their issue with their initial worker. If they are not satisfied with the outcome, they can make a complaint to us by telephone, email or through the post.

Participants are asked to provide the LSA with as much detail as possible about their complaint, including the outcome they would like.

If the person lodging the complaint or dispute needs help to describe or send their complaint, or if they would like to discuss their concerns informally first, they should contact the LSA.

Complaints Process

The review officer will oversee the complaints process and is responsible for working with the person lodging the complaint or dispute and relevant LSA staff, to ensure that the issues raised are fully examined and that the complaint is handled in accordance with this process. The review officer will:

- ensure the LSA and its representatives manage complaints effectively;
- independently review all formal complaints; and
- record and use complaints information to deliver service improvement.

The LSA will treat the process and all the details of the complaint in strict confidence. If the LSA needs to discuss any issues arising from the complaint with someone outside of the LSA, consent will be obtained first.

The LSA will always give fair opportunity to explain the issues and case for complaint. Participants are asked to make the initial complaint as clear as possible. In some instances, the LSA may want to meet personally to discuss concerns to try to find a satisfactory solution.

A complaint made to the LSA follows the following process:

- discussion with the initial worker; and if not resolved
- discussion with the relevant Manager; and if not resolved
- discussion with the LSA's Chief Executive.

Timeframes

The LSA will try to resolve all complaints as soon as possible. However, the length of time taken will depend on the nature and complexity of the issues being raised.

The LSA will send acknowledgment of receipt of the complaint and provide an estimate of how long it may take to deal with the matter.

Actions in Response to a Complaint

If the LSA decides that the complaint is justified, a decision will be made as to what action should be taken in response. The LSA will always attempt to match the response to the nature of the complaint and the complainant's desired outcome, but this may not always be possible.

Some of the things we might do include:

- take steps to rectify the problem or issue raised;
- give additional information or advice so the complainant can understand what happened or how the LSA have dealt with it;
- take steps to change LSA policies or procedures if the complaint identifies a problem with LSA processes; or
- apologise for the actions which have given rise to the complaint.

Feedback

We manage our services and that of contracted providers through our quality assurance frameworks.

As part of our approach we welcome feedback on our services or the services of others delivering them on our behalf. It helps us to understand participants' experiences and gives us the opportunity to hear about positive or negative experiences they have had. We invite comments or suggestions on how we can improve our services from participants. We use feedback to continuously review and improve our services.

We also seek feedback in other ways, via forms, surveys and research, by speaking with individuals, community organisations, industry and peak stakeholder groups, and other government agencies, to monitor how well we are doing.
