WATER RESOURCES ACT 1997

Notice of Proposed Recommendation of prescription of Wells in the Tintinara Coonalpyn Area, Pursuant to Subsection 8 (4) of the Water Resources Act 1997

I, MARK BRINDAL, Minister for Water Resources in the State of South Australia, hereby give notice that I propose to recommend that all wells in both the unconfined Murray Group Limestone Aquifer and underlying confined Renmark Group Aquifer within the Hundreds of McCallum, Makin, Archibald, Coombe, Richards, Lewis, Coneybeer, Carcuma and Livingston are prescribed by the Governor, pursuant to section 8 (1) of the Act.

The reasons for the recommendation are that it is necessary and desirable for the proper management of the water resource, and in particular:

1. large quantities of water are currently being taken from the Murray Group Limestone and Renmark Group Aquifers and those quantities are likely to increase;
2. controls over the manner and extent of the taking of water are necessary to ensure that such taking is sustainable;
3. salinity will be a major threat to the quality of the Murray Group Limestone aquifer due to the quantities of water to be taken.

I invite all interested persons to make written submissions to me in relation to this proposal. The closing date for submissions will be Friday, 25 August 2000.

Dated 9 May 2000.

MARK BRINDAL, Minister for Water Resources

SCHEDULE 2

Section 13 Statement

BAIL ACT 1985

HOW TO APPLY FOR RELEASE ON BAIL

1. GENERAL

The law of bail in South Australia is contained in the Bail Act 1985.

This pamphlet is designed to help you decide whether you are eligible to apply for bail, and to assist you in making such an application.

It will also assist people who want to "stand bail" (that is, be a guarantor) for you.

If there are things you do not understand, ask the police, telephone your lawyer, or ask the magistrate or the person who witnesses your bail documents for advice.

If you do not have a lawyer and you want help, you can ask to see the duty solicitor from the Legal Services Commission or telephone the Legal Services Commission during office hours on (08) 8463 3555. (Duty solicitors visit the larger courthouses during office hours—ask the police to contact the duty solicitor for you.)

2. WHAT IS A BAIL AGREEMENT?

A bail agreement is an agreement between the Crown and a person requiring the person to be at his or her court hearings and to obey any special conditions set by the court during the period of the operation of the bail agreement in return for the person's release from custody on bail.

3. CAN I APPLY FOR BAIL?

Adults

If you are aged 18 years or more, you can apply for bail in any of the following circumstances:

- ✕ you are appearing before a court in answer to a summons and you might be remanded in custody; or
- ✕ you are in custody on a charge of an offence after being arrested by the police; or
- ✕ you have been convicted of an offence but have not yet been sentenced; or
- ✕ you have been convicted of an offence and sentenced, but you intend to appeal; or
- ✕ you are appearing in court for allegedly failing to observe a condition of a bond; or
- ✕ you have been arrested on a warrant and you are appearing, or are to appear, before a court as a witness; or
- ✕ you have been arrested on a warrant issued by a court—
 - for failing to appear before that court on charges, or
 - for breach of a bond,and the court has authorised the police officer in charge of the police station, or a person specified on the warrant, to grant bail on your arrest.

However, you cannot apply for bail after having been arrested if you are being detained under the Summary Offences Act 1953 for a purpose related to the investigation of an offence until the end of that detention.

People under the age of 18 years

If you are under the age of 18 years, you can apply for bail if you have been arrested on suspicion of having committed an offence and you have been taken into police custody.

4. I THINK I QUALIFY FOR BAIL

To whom do I apply for bail?

There are various bail authorities under the Bail Act 1985 that can hear and decide bail applications.

The following is a list of bail authorities for the purposes of the Act:

the Supreme Court, the court before which you were charged, any court before which you must appear in relation to the matter, a justice, a sergeant of police, a police officer of a rank higher than sergeant, a police officer in charge of a police station, the person specified on the warrant for your arrest.

Depending on your circumstances, you can apply to one of these bail authorities. You should check with a police officer, your lawyer or a court officer as to whom you must apply for bail.

How do I apply for bail?

Your application for bail must be in writing.

Application forms are available from police stations, gaols and courts. You must answer all questions.

If you were under the age of 18 years at the time you allegedly committed the offence for which you are arrested, your parent, guardian or custodian may assist you to make your application.

If there is something you do not understand, ask a police officer, your lawyer or a court officer to explain.

5. ON WHAT GROUNDS WILL BAIL BE GRANTED?

Whether or not you are granted bail will depend on many factors, including—

- ✗ the seriousness of the alleged offence;
- ✗ the likelihood that you—
 - may not attend court when required; or
 - may offend again; or
 - may interfere with evidence or a witness;
- ✗ any need you, or an alleged victim, may have for physical protection;
- ✗ medical matters;
- ✗ whether you have previously breached bail conditions;
- ✗ any other relevant matter.

6. WHAT CAN I DO IF I AM REFUSED BAIL?

If your application for bail is unsuccessful, you can ask for that decision to be reviewed. (A review is a type of appeal.)

If the bail authority is a police officer or a justice, the review will be carried out by a magistrate, who can be contacted (by telephone if necessary) by the person who made the original decision.

Once the magistrate has been told the facts of the case and the reason why your application was refused, you have the right to put your case. The magistrate must reach a decision straight away.

If the bail authority is a magistrate, the review must be carried out by a Supreme Court judge.

If you are refused bail, you will be given a copy of the written reasons for that refusal.

7. WHAT IS MEANT BY A BAIL AGREEMENT?

When you enter into a bail agreement, you are agreeing to attend a particular court on the next date and at the time fixed for your case as well as on every other occasion when your matter is listed and, unless directed otherwise in the agreement, to be present in court each time your matter is listed until it is finished.

You are also agreeing to comply with all of the conditions set out in your bail agreement. Failure to obey any condition of a bail agreement is a criminal offence and can, in some cases, be punished by up to 2 years jail or a fine of up to $10 000.

In addition, any money promised to the Crown as part of your bail agreement may have to be paid and, if necessary, collected in the same way as a fine.

8. WHAT ARE CONDITIONS OF BAIL?

Conditions of bail are the rules that you must obey in return for your freedom.

In all cases, except where a bail authority allows you to live interstate or gives you permission to travel interstate for a specific reason, you cannot leave South Australia while on bail. Other restrictions can be imposed on you, including, for example, not seeing or contacting certain people, staying away from certain places, agreeing to live at a certain address, being under the supervision of a community corrections officer, reporting to the police on a regular basis or giving up your passport. Conditions are set by the court to suit individual cases.

You can ask a bail authority to vary the conditions imposed on you under the bail agreement.

9. WHAT IS A GUARANTOR AND WHAT DOES A GUARANTOR HAVE TO DO?

Your guarantor is a person who enters into a guarantee that you will, if freed on bail, obey all the conditions of bail set by the bail authority (see clause 8).

If you do not comply with a condition of your bail agreement and you breach a condition, or if the guarantor knows that you have breached a condition or that you are likely to breach a condition, the guarantor must tell the police what you have done or are likely to do. If the guarantor does not do so, the guarantor can be liable to a fine of up to $1 250.

In addition to the possibility of having to pay a fine, if you breach a condition of your bail agreement, your guarantor may have to pay to the Crown the sum of money that the guarantor has undertaken to pay in the guarantee.

10. GUARANTOR MAY APPLY TO HAVE GUARANTEE VARIED OR REVOKED

Your guarantor may, at any time, apply to a bail authority to have the terms of the guarantee varied or the guarantee revoked. This could happen if your guarantor is afraid you may abscond or otherwise not comply with the conditions of your bail agreement.
