COURTS ADMINISTRATION AUTHORITY

Commencement of Data Matching

THE Privacy Committee of South Australia has given approval for the Courts Administration Authority to commence data matching with the following government agencies to locate debtors for the purpose of debt recovery:

South Australian Police Department;
Tenancies Branch;
Births, Deaths and Marriages.

Data matching will be conducted according to the Information Privacy Principles and Guidelines applicable under the Privacy Act 1988 (Commonwealth).

The Fines Payment Unit will forward name, address and the date of birth of debtors that have not been able to be contacted through other means. Agencies will be asked to match data provided by the Fines Payment Unit and supply a list of matched debtors. Information received from agencies will include full name and address, date of birth and relevant contact details such as telephone number if recorded. The matched data will also include a date when the contact details were recorded.

Data that is provided will be assessed as to the quality of the data matched and will be accessed by a data matching officer. All information received will be stored on a restricted access drive and deleted within four weeks of receiving.

Dated 9 January 2003.

FRUIT AND PLANT PROTECTION ACT 1992

Control of Lupin Anthracnose

PURSUANT to section 14 of the Fruit and Plant Protection Act 1992, I, Paul Holloway, Minister for Agriculture, Food and Fisheries, hereby revoke the Ministerial Notice of 10 December 1998 that established the Lupin Anthracnose Quarantine Zone on the Lower Eyre Peninsula.

Declare the portion of the State of South Australia comprising the Eyre Peninsula region situated to the south of a direct line between the Port Augusta township and the Ceduna township to be a quarantine area with respect to the disease Lupin Anthracnose (Colletotrichum gloeosporioides).

Prohibit the removal of any lupin seed, lupin plants or other lupin material to other parts of South Australia unless the owners or occupiers of land or premises within the quarantine area comply with the following measures:

In the case of seed, such seed complies with one of the following:

- (a) the seed has been tested and found to be negative for the presence of lupin anthracnose by a testing regime that is accepted by the Chief Inspector, and the seed is accompanied by an application to transport lupin grain which has been authorised by the Chief Inspector or his delegate; or
- (b) the seed is moved under the provisions of a compliance agreement to an approved processor for devitalisation treatment; or
- (c) the seed is moved under the provisions of a compliance agreement for other treatment and/or disposal as approved by the Chief Inspector or his delegate.

In the case of lupin plants including hay/fodder containing lupin plants, the plants or hay/fodder are either derived from a crop that has been inspected and found free of lupin anthracnose and the consignment is accompanied by a Plant Health Certificate issued by an authorised Inspector, or, as approved by the Chief Inspector or his delegate, is subject to secure transport to an approved processor for treatment including controlled feeding.

In the case of other lupin material, as approved by the Chief Inspector or his delegate, the lupin material is subject to secure transport to an approved processor for treatment including controlled feeding.

Stipulate that:

'approved processor' means a business that is approved by an Inspector to undertake a specified treatment including controlled feeding;

'compliance agreement' means a written agreement between the proponent and the Minister under the Plant Quarantine Standard South Australia which specifies the conditions that must be met by the proponent or his/her agent in relation to movement of lupin material from within the quarantine area to other parts of South Australia.

Dated 17 December 2002.

PAUL HOLLOWAY, Minister for Agriculture, Food and Fisheries

GAMING MACHINES ACT 1992, SECTION 72A (3) and (3aa):
NOTICE OF CALCULATION AND PAYMENT OF
MONTHLY INSTALMENTS OF GAMING TAX

Notice by the Minister for Gambling

PURSUANT to section 72A of the Gaming Machines Act 1992 (the Act):

1. I revoke the notice relating to the calculation of monthly instalments of gaming tax made by the Treasurer on 13 June 1996 (see Gazette 13 June 1996 p. 2920).

2. I declare that the holder of a gaming machine licence must pay to the Treasurer the monthly instalment of the prescribed gaming tax, calculated in accordance with this notice, within 7 days of the end of the month.

3. I declare that, for the 2002-2003 financial year, each monthly instalment of gaming tax is to be calculated on a cumulative year-to-date basis in accordance with (A), as adjusted, for the 6 months from 1 January 2003 until 30 June 2003 by subtracting or adding (as the case requires) an amount in accordance with (B):

- (A) (i) the instalment payable for July will be the prescribed gaming tax on the NGR derived by the licensee in July (but applying a tax threshold or thresholds of $\frac{1}{12}$ of the annual tax threshold or thresholds for the 2002-2003 financial year);
- (ii) the instalment payable for August will be the difference between the prescribed gaming tax on the total NGR derived by the licensee for July and

August (but applying a tax threshold or tax thresholds of $\frac{2}{12}$ of the annual tax threshold or thresholds for the 2002-2003 financial year) and the instalment that was payable for July;

- (iii) the instalment payable in respect of September will be the difference between the prescribed gaming tax on the total NGR derived by the licensee for July, August and September (but applying a tax threshold or tax thresholds of $\frac{3}{12}$ of the annual tax threshold or thresholds for the 2002-2003 financial year) and the total of the instalments that were payable for July and August;
- (iv) the instalment payable in respect of October will be the difference between the prescribed gaming tax on the total NGR derived by the licensee for July, August, September and October (but applying a tax threshold or tax thresholds of $\frac{4}{12}$ of the annual tax threshold or thresholds for the 2002-2003 financial year) and the total of the instalments that were payable for July, August and September;
- (v) and so on, for the rest of the financial year,

where:

prescribed gaming tax means the tax to be calculated in accordance with Part 1 of the table set out in paragraph (a) (i) or (ii) (as the case requires) of the definition of prescribed gaming tax in section 72 of the Act;

- (B) (i) the instalment payable for January will be the prescribed gaming tax on the NGR derived by the licensee in January (but applying an adjustment threshold or thresholds of $\frac{1}{6}$ of the adjustment threshold or thresholds for the second 6 months);
- (ii) the instalment payable for February will be the difference between the prescribed gaming tax on the NGR derived by the licensee in January and February (but applying an adjustment threshold or thresholds of $\frac{2}{6}$ of the adjustment threshold or thresholds for the second 6 months) and the tax instalment that was payable for January;
- (iii) the instalment payable for March will be the difference between the prescribed gaming tax on the NGR derived by the licensee in January, February and March (but applying an adjustment threshold or thresholds of $\frac{3}{6}$ of the adjustment threshold or thresholds applicable for the second 6 months) and the total of the tax instalments that were payable for January and February;
- (iv) and so on, for the rest of the second six months,

where:

prescribed gaming tax means the tax to be calculated in accordance with Part 2 of the table set out in paragraph (a) (i) or (ii) (as the case requires) of the definition of prescribed gaming tax in section 72 of the Act;

second 6 months means 1 January 2003 until 30 June 2003.

4. I declare that each monthly instalment of tax in respect of the 2003-2004 financial year and each successive year is to be calculated on a cumulative year-to-date basis as follows:

- (a) the instalment payable in respect of July will be the prescribed gaming tax on the NGR derived by the licensee in July (but applying a tax threshold or tax thresholds of $\frac{1}{12}$ of the annual tax threshold or thresholds applicable for the particular financial year);

- (b) the instalment payable in respect of August will be the difference between the prescribed gaming tax on the total NGR derived by the licensee in July and August (but applying a tax threshold or tax thresholds of $\frac{2}{12}$ of the annual tax threshold or thresholds applicable for the particular financial year) and the tax instalment that was payable in respect of July;

- (c) the instalment payable in respect of September will be the difference between the prescribed gaming tax on the total NGR derived by the licensee in July, August and September (but applying a tax threshold or tax thresholds of $\frac{3}{12}$ of the annual tax threshold or thresholds applicable for the particular financial year) and the total of the tax instalments that were payable in respect of July and August;

- (d) the instalment payable in respect of October will be the difference between the prescribed gaming tax on the total NGR derived by the licensee in July, August, September and October (but applying a tax threshold or tax thresholds of $\frac{4}{12}$ of the annual tax threshold or thresholds applicable for the particular financial year) and the total of the tax instalments that were payable in respect of July, August and September;

- (e) and so on, for the rest of the financial year,

where:

prescribed gaming tax, in relation to the 2003-2004 financial year and each successive year means the tax to be calculated in accordance with paragraph (b) (i) or (ii) (as the case requires) of the definition of prescribed gaming tax in section 72 of the Act.

Dated 7 January 2003.

1. Portion of the public road (Traeger Lane) south-east of Stephenson Street between allotments 19 and 26 in the Town of Freeling more particularly lettered 'A' in Preliminary Plan No. 02/0049 be closed.

2. The whole of the land subject to closure be transferred to the Freeling and District Senior Citizens Homes Inc. in accordance with agreement for transfer dated 14 October 2002, entered into between the Light Regional Council and Freeling and District Senior Citizens Homes Inc.

3. The following easement is granted over the whole of the land subject to that closure:

Grant to the Distribution Lessor Corporation an easement for overhead and underground electricity supply purposes.

On 2 December 2002 that order was confirmed by the Minister for Administrative Services conditionally on approval and deposit of the survey plan by the Registrar-General. The condition has now been fulfilled.

Pursuant to section 24 (5) of the Roads (Opening and Closing) Act 1991, NOTICE of the order referred to above and its confirmation is hereby given.

Dated 9 January 2003.

SOUTH AUSTRALIAN MOTOR SPORT REGULATIONS 1999: REGULATION 12—CONDITIONS IMPOSED ON TICKETS

Notice by the South Australian Motor Sport Board

PURSUANT to Regulation 12 of the South Australian Motor Sport Regulations 1999, the Minister, to whom the administration of that Act has been committed, hereby impose the following conditions in respect of each of the permits, authorisations and tickets to the event known as the 'Clipsal 500 Adelaide' in addition to the terms and conditions contained on the back of each ticket:

CONDITIONS OF SALE

In addition to the terms and conditions contained on the back of each ticket, the following conditions and rules shall apply:

1. Except to the extent permitted by the Trade Practices Act 1974, tickets cannot be exchanged or refunded after purchase.
2. Tickets are non-transferable on the day or during the day of presentation. Upon exit, the ticket holder's hand must be stamped to regain entry on the same day. The stamp must be shown along with the valid ticket clipped for that day to regain entry.
3. The South Australian Motor Sport Board (the Board) reserves the right to refuse admittance to or evict from the event any person with reasonable cause.
4. The Board reserves the right to add, withdraw or substitute any drivers, performers or activities associated with the event, vary programs, seating arrangements and audience capacity and determine and publish additional conditions from time to time.
5. A person cannot make, reproduce or use any form of still or moving picture or any sound recording (footage) of the motor sport event as defined in the South Australian Motor Sport Act 1984, or any part of it for profit, gain, public advertisement, display or for any other purpose except for the private enjoyment of the person making the footage, without the consent of the Board; and will on demand assign all rights thereto to the Board or its nominees.
6. Any ticket purchased and the ticket holder's entry to and presence at the event is subject to these conditions of sale, conditions of entry displayed at the event entrances and the South Australian Motor Sport Act 1984, as amended, and its Regulations. Details are freely available from Clipsal 500 Adelaide, P.O. Box V8, Kent Town, S.A. 5071.
7. Patrons may not, without prior written consent of the Board bring any of the following items into the Event: any alcoholic beverages; any glass bottles or containers or glass objects (excluding sunglasses, binoculars and prescription glasses); any beverage container with the manufacturer's seal broken; any drinks coolers or ice boxes (other than one predominantly constructed of polystyrene); any structure or item that may be used to erect a structure, or which is capable of supporting the weight of a person including, without limitation, any chairs, lounges, benches or stools (other than a folding chair or stool); no animals; no weapons of any kind; no fireworks.

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

The SA Motor Sport Board (Board) will not be liable for personal injury or property damage. The Ticket holder attending the motor race and other associated events (Events) hereby acknowledges and agrees as follows:

The Ticket holder has read and understood the Conditions of Sale and Conditions of Entry (Conditions) and agrees to be bound by the Conditions; and intends the Conditions to have full contractual effect. Where relevant, the Ticket holder and any third party who purchases a ticket on behalf of the Ticket holder ('the third party') each warrant that the third party had the Ticket holder's full authority to act as the Ticket holder's agent for the purposes of buying the ticket and accepting the Conditions.

Motor Racing is Dangerous

The Ticket holder is fully aware and recognises that motor sport is inherently dangerous. Entry into and remaining at the race grounds controlled by the Board and other premises not under the control of the Board has a degree of danger and there is a possibility of an accident causing injury, death, property damage or other losses; and it is a condition of entry that the Ticket holder attending the Events enter the race grounds, and use the services and facilities on the race grounds entirely at their own risk.

Board not Liable for Injury

To the extent permitted by law, the Ticket holder attending the Events hereby exclude the Board, the Crown in right of the State of South Australia, Confederation of Australian Motorsport Limited (ABN 55 069 045 665) and all other persons including corporations involved in the organisation, conduct, sponsorship and promotion of the Events and including the employees, officers and agents of all the aforementioned from being liable for any loss, damage or injury to person or property incurred directly or indirectly as a result of any motor accidents or any other events whatsoever including but not limited to loss, damage or injury to person or property occurring in the race grounds from the use of the services and facilities on the race grounds whether or not the same may be due or alleged to be due to negligence or misconduct on the part of the Ticket holder, a third party, or the Board; and in an area not under the control of the Board whether or not the same may be due or alleged to be due to negligence or misconduct on the part of the Ticket holder, a third party, or the Board.

High Danger Areas

The Ticket holder on entering into pit lane and/or pit paddock is fully aware and recognises that pit lane and pit paddock are extremely dangerous and there is a real possibility of an accident causing injury, death, property damage or other losses in those areas; is fully aware that it is a condition of entry that they enter the pit lane and pit paddock and other high danger areas of the events ground at their own risk.

Children are to be Supervised by Adults

The Ticket holder acknowledges that all children attending the Events must be under the supervision of an adult guardian at all times.

Severance

If anything in these Conditions of Entry is unenforceable, illegal or void then it is severed and the rest of the Conditions of Entry remain in force.

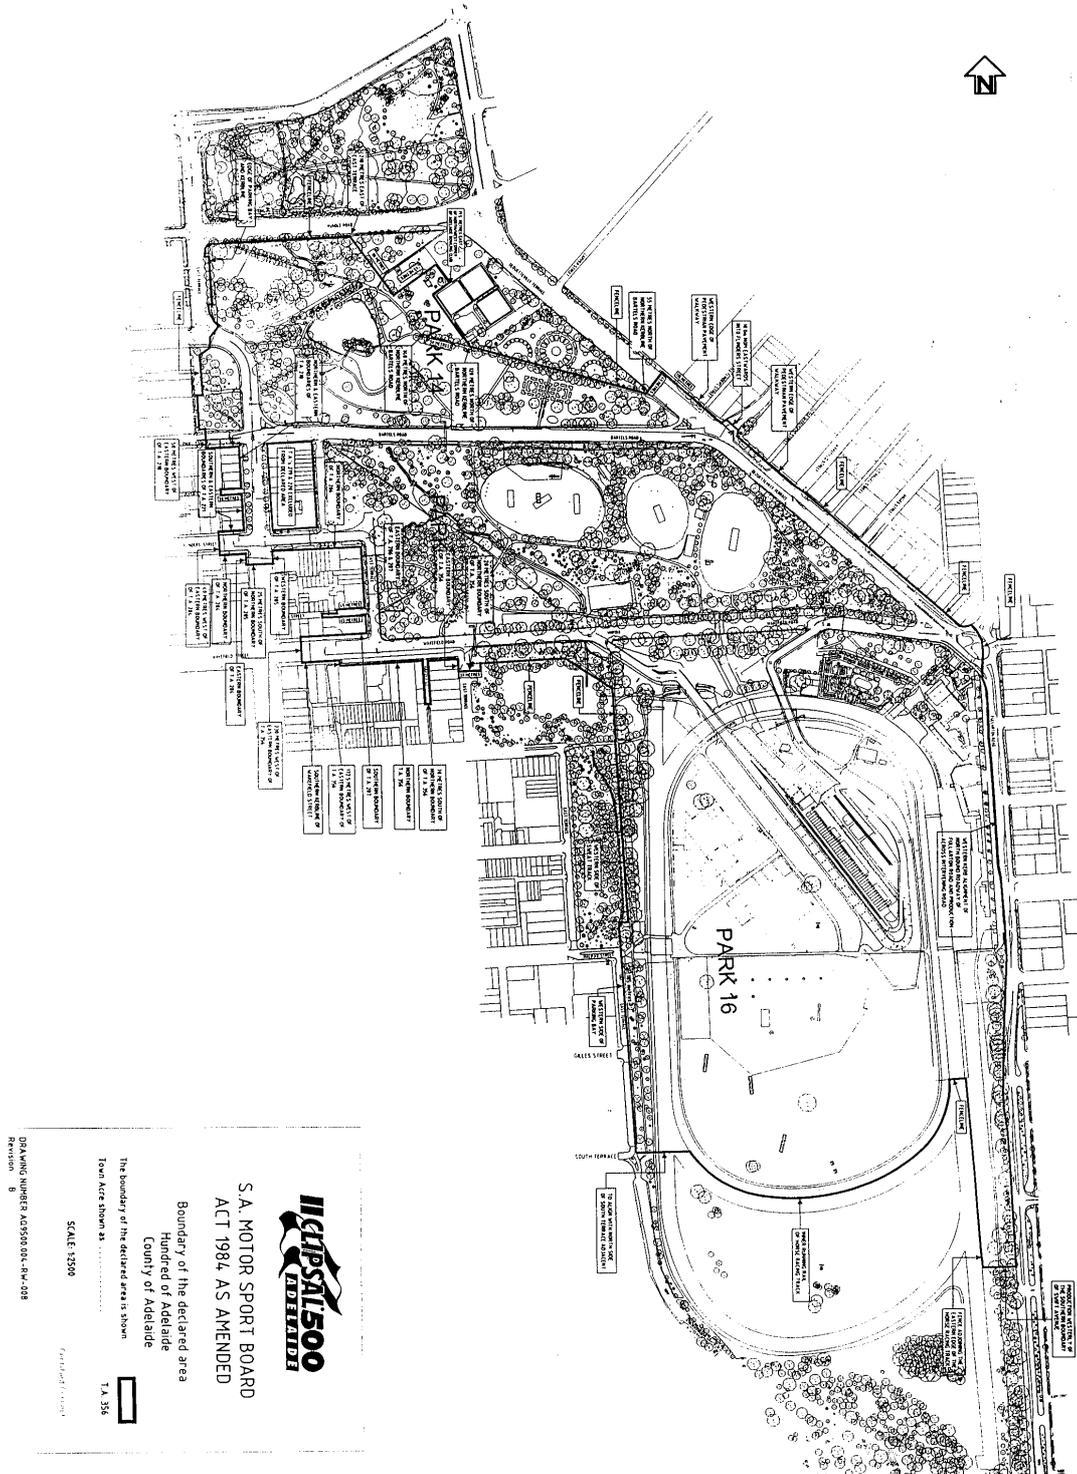

KEVIN FOLEY, Minister for Industry and Investment

SOUTH AUSTRALIAN MOTOR SPORT ACT 1984: SECTION 20 (1)—DECLARATION OF AREA AND PERIOD

Notice by the Minister for Industry and Investment

PURSUANT to section 20 (1) of the South Australian Motor Sport Act 1984, I, the Minister to whom the administration of that Act has been committed, in respect of the motor sport event promoted by the South Australian Motor Sport Board under the name '2003 Clipsal 500 Adelaide', acting on the recommendation of the Board, declare:

- (a) that the area delineated on the plan in the Schedule will be a declared area under the Act for the purposes of the event; and
- (b) that the period commencing on 19 March 2003 and ending on 23 March 2003 (both days inclusive) will be a declared period under the Act for the purposes of the event.

DISTRICT COUNCIL OF THE COPPER COAST

Erratum

THE following By-law No. 3—Local Government Land is republished, correcting an error in the by-law published in the South Australian Government Gazette of 12 December 2002, pp. 4621-4623 (excluding all reference to a 30 km/h speed limit on the foreshore at North Beach, Wallaroo).

DISTRICT COUNCIL OF THE COPPER COAST

BY-LAW MADE UNDER THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT 1999

By-law No. 3—Local Government Land

FOR the management and regulation of the use of and access to local government land (other than roads under the Local Government Act 1999 and adjacent land under the Harbors and Navigation Act 1993) vested in or under the control of the council, including the prohibition and regulation of particular activities on local government land.

Definitions

1. In this by-law:

- (1) "authorised person" means a person appointed an authorised person pursuant to Section 260 of the Local Government Act 1999;
- (2) "council" means the District Council of the Copper Coast;

Interference with Land

- (9) interfere with the land or otherwise use the land in a manner contrary to the purpose for which the land was designed to be used.

Removal of Encroachment or Interference

5. Any person who encroaches onto or interferes with local government land contrary to this by-law must at the request of an authorised person, cease the encroachment or interference and remove the source of the encroachment or interference, and reinstate the land to the same standard as the state of the land prior to the encroachment or interference.

Council may do work

6. If a person fails to remove an encroachment or interference on local government land in accordance with a request of an authorised person pursuant to paragraph 5 of this by-law, then the council may:

- (a) undertake the work itself; and
- (b) recover the cost of doing so from that person.

Directions

7. Any person on local government land must comply with any reasonable direction or request from an authorised person relating to:

- (a) that person's use of the land;
- (b) that person's conduct and behaviour on the land;
- (c) that person's safety on the land;
- (d) the safety and enjoyment of the land by other persons.

Removal of Animals and Persons

8. (1) If any animal is found on local government land in breach of a by-law:

- (a) any person in charge of the animal shall remove it on the request of an authorised person; and
- (b) an authorised person may remove the animal if a person fails to comply with the request, or if no person is in charge of the animal.

(2) An authorised person may direct any person who is considered to be committing or has committed a breach of this by-law to leave that part of the local government land. Failure to comply with that direction forthwith is a breach of this by-law.

Application

9. The restrictions in this by-law do not apply to any police officer, council employee acting in the course and within the scope of that person's normal duties, or to a contractor while performing work for the council or to the driver of an emergency vehicle (within the meaning of the Road Traffic Act 1961 or the Australian Road Rules) while driving that vehicle in relation to an emergency.

Application of Paragraphs

10. Any of paragraphs 2 (15), 2 (19), 2 (22) (a), 2 (23), 2 (24), 2 (25) (a) and (b) and 4 (1) of this by-law shall apply only in such part or parts of the area of the council as the council may by resolution direct (in accordance with Section 246 (3) (e) of the Local Government Act 1999).

The foregoing by-law was duly made and passed at a meeting of the council of the District Council of the Copper Coast held on 4 December 2002, by an absolute majority of the members for the time being constituting the council, there being at least two-thirds of the members present.
