The Magistrates Court of South Australia
Amendment No 20 to the Magistrates Court (Civil) Rules 1992

PURSUANT to section 49 of the Magistrates Court Act 1991 and all other enabling powers, we the undersigned do make the following amendments to the Magistrates Court (Civil) Rules 1992:

The definition of “authorised user” in rule 2 is deleted and replaced with the following:

“authorised user” means a person authorised by the Courts Administration Authority to file documents by electronic filing. An authorised user will be given a user identifier and must nominate a password. A corporate authorized user will be required to nominate a natural person(s) as its agent with the authority to act on behalf of the body corporate, and each of those natural persons will be given a user identifier. The Principal Registrar can withdraw an authorisation by notice to the authorised user and without giving any reason:

Rule 5(4) is deleted and replaced with the following:

(4) The provision of a user identifier and current password in relation to the electronic filing of a document is deemed to have the same effect as if the document was signed by the agent with authority on behalf of a corporate authorised user, or by an authorised user who is a natural person.

Rule 20A is deleted and replaced with the following:

- 20A. (1) Subject to this Rule and to any order of the Court the plaintiff is not entitled to the costs for filing of a claim other than a counterclaim, a third party claim, a claim for non compliance with an EPA, or a claim under the Workers Liens Act 1893, unless notice in writing of the intended claim was given to the intended defendant not less than 21 days before the filing of the claim, or where Sub-rule(2) applies in accordance with that Rule, by any means authorised in these Rules for service of a claim.
- (2) In an action for damages for personal injuries notice of the claim must be given at least 90 days before the filing of the claim and must be given to the defendant’s insurer if the identity of the insurer is known to the intended plaintiff. Such notice must include notice of any intended claim for past and future economic loss and be supported by documents including medical reports setting out the nature and extent of the plaintiff’s injuries and residual disabilities as known to the plaintiff at the time of the giving of the notice.
- (3) Notice of an intended claim may be given in accordance with Form 1A which must be filed with the Court and must bear the Court’s seal. A plaintiff who is successful in a claim is entitled to recover from the defendant any filing fee for this notice.
- (4) A debtor may give notice in accordance with Form 1C to a creditor of willingness to consent to judgment for a sum of money and the creditor may file a claim with the notice attached and sign judgment for that sum plus the filing fee, without service of the claim. Notwithstanding these rules but subject to any order of the Court the creditor will not be entitled to legal fees for filing a claim for that sum or less.

- (5) Notice of an intended claim or willingness to consent to judgment may be served on a current place of business of the corporation and notice of an intended claim by the Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner of Taxation may be served in accordance with any Act or Regulation which provides for service of notices by the Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner on the taxpayer.
- (6) The Registrar must give an action number to any action in which the Court arranges a mediation or expert opinion before a claim is filed by a party.

Rule 23(2)(a) is deleted and replaced with the following:

- (2)(a) Where 2 or more persons carry on business as partners in the State they may sue and be sued in the name of their firm in respect of any cause of action accruing at the time the persons were partners, but if the partners are named they are the parties to the action;

Rule 24 is deleted and replaced with the following:

PLEADINGS

24. (1) (a) Subject to any order of the Court a short form of pleading disclosing the date(s), place(s), circumstances and the cause of action upon which the action is based is sufficient.
 - (b) If the Court requires a more detailed pleading the pleading must comply with the Supreme Court Rules 1987.
- (2) (a) Where a natural person denies personal liability on the ground that the liability was incurred or assumed by, or on behalf of, another person or body corporate instead, the natural person must plead all material facts or circumstances –
 - (i) from which the liability of the other person or body corporate can be implied or inferred;
 - or
 - (ii) identifying when, where and how the other person or body corporate incurred or assumed the liability.
- (b) Where a party alleges that the parties are bound by a quotation, the party must plead all material facts or circumstances –
 - (i) from which the quotation can be implied or inferred;
 - and
 - (ii) identifying by whom, when, where and how the quotation was given or made.
- (3) A claim under the Workers Lien Act 1893 must include the particulars required to enforce a lien or charge under that Act.

- (4) A Council constituted under the Local Government Act 1999 making a claim for an instalment of rates may plead the instalment owing and anticipate the other instalments and fines that may become owing in that financial year. The Council may obtain judgment and amend any judgment to reflect the amount owing from time to time for that financial year, up to the total anticipated, by filing a statement of the amount due at that time, which should be served.
- (5) No pleading, beyond a reply, is allowed except with leave of the Court.

Rule 45 is deleted.

Rule 49(1) is deleted and replaced with the following:

49.(1) Subject to any Act, a person will be taken to be served -

- (a) at the time he or she is personally served;
 - (b) where service is by fax during normal business hours on a business day, when the fax is transmitted;
 - (c) where service is by e-mail on the next business day after an acknowledgement of receipt of a transfer by e-mail is received from the computer to which it was addressed
- and
- (d) in any other case, 2 business days after the document is served in accordance with these Rules.

Rule 89(1)(e) is deleted and sub rule (f) is redesignated as (e).

Rule 106(10) is deleted and replaced with the following:

- (10) A magistrate may intimate her or his view of the likely result of a case at any time in pretrial processes and if s/he does so that intimation must not be available to the trial magistrate until after judgment when the trial magistrate may take it into account in relation to costs.

Rule 124 is deleted and replaced with the following:

- 124. (1) Subject to any order of the court to the contrary, interest for the purpose of section 35 must be calculated at the rate of 5% per annum on the judgment debt excluding any part of it that is interest.
- (2) A payment made by a judgment debtor will be credited first against the judgment debt excluding interest and, after that has been discharged, to any sum that has accrued on account of interest.

Rule 139 is deleted and replaced with the following:

- 139. (1) Where a person is arrested under a warrant for arrest, he or she must be brought before the Court as soon as reasonably possible.
- (2) Where a person is brought before the Court under a warrant, the Court may remand the person in custody, to be brought before the Court at any hearing at which the attendance of the person is required, but the hearing must be re-listed not more than 7 days after the date when the person was remanded in custody.
- (3) The Court may release an arrested person to appear at the date, time and place fixed for any hearing at which the person's attendance is required.
- (4) (a) Where the Court has reason to believe that the person brought before the Court on a warrant may leave the jurisdiction, the Court may require the person to surrender his or her passport to the Registrar as a condition of release.
- (b) The Court may impose other conditions of release.
- (5) Where a debtor fails to appear on a date fixed in the presence of the debtor the Court may issue a warrant of arrest of the debtor of its own motion and without fee.

Rules 140, 141 and 142 are deleted.

The Second Schedule is amended as follows:

A new Form 1C is added and forms 31, 32, 33 and 34 are deleted and replaced with the following:

WATER RESOURCES ACT 1997

Variation to the Notice of Restriction on the taking of Water from the River Murray Prescribed Watercourse

PURSUANT to section 16 (9) of the Water Resources Act 1997 ('the Act'), I, John David Hill, Minister for Environment and Conservation in the State of South Australia, and Minister to whom the administration of the Water Resources Act 1997 is committed, hereby vary the notice dated 13 June 2003 published pursuant to section 16 (1) of the Act in the Government Gazette on 24 June 2003 at pages 2627 and 2628 ('the Notice') in accordance with Schedule 1.

SCHEDULE 1

The notice is varied by amending clauses 3 (a), 3 (c) and 3 (d) and adding clause 3 (e) as follows:

3. An authorisation under this notice may be granted to:

- (a) A person who holds an authorisation issued under the notice to take water from the River Murray Prescribed Watercourse for the same purposes and subject to the same conditions as specified in that authorisation but at:
 - a quantity of water equivalent to 75% of the water (taking) allocation endorsed on the water licence, excluding water allocations for the purposes specified in clause 7 and subject to the provisions of clause 4 of the notice.
- (c) A person who holds an authorisation issued under the notice to take water from the River Murray Prescribed Watercourse for urban water supply through reticulated water supply infrastructure under the Waterworks Act 1932 (Country Towns) is now authorised to take:
 - 31.5 Gigalitres.
- (d) A person who during the period of this notice, receives approval to convert a water (holding) allocation to a water (taking) allocation under the Water Resources Act 1997 entitling that person to take:
 - a quantity of water equivalent to 75% of the water (taking) allocation endorsed on the water licence after conversion, excluding water allocations for purposes specified in clause 7 and subject to the provisions of clause 4 of the notice.
- (e) A person who was entitled to an authorisation under the notice, that is still to be issued, to take water from the River Murray Prescribed Watercourse at:
 - a quantity of water equivalent to 75% of the water (taking) allocation endorsed on the water licence, excluding water allocations for the purposes specified in clause 7 and subject to the provisions of clause 4 of the notice.

This notice will remain in effect until 1 July 2004, unless earlier varied or revoked.

Dated 25 September 2003.

Schedule 1—Contributors

Part 1—Preliminary

1—Short title

These regulations may be cited as the Superannuation (Julia Farr Services Employees) Regulations 2003.

2—Commencement

These regulations will come into operation on 1 October 2003.

3—Interpretation

In these regulations, unless the contrary intention appears—

Act means the Superannuation Act 1988;

contributor means a person whose name appears in Schedule 1;

Plan means the Julia Farr Centre Staff Provident Plan.

Part 2—Miscellaneous

4—Transfer of assets

The assets of the Plan are transferred to the Fund.

5—Declaration of contributors

A contributor is declared to be a new scheme contributor for the purposes of the Act.

6—Payment of benefits

Despite section 20B of the Act, any benefit or other entitlement payable under the Act as modified by Part 3 of these regulations must be paid out of the Fund.

7—Contributor taken to remain in employment

- (1) Subject to subregulation (2), for the purposes of these regulations, a contributor who, within 1 month of ceasing employment with Julia Farr Services Incorporated, commences employment with a health sector agency will be taken, for the duration of the contributor's employment with a health sector agency, to have continued his or her employment with Julia Farr Services Incorporated.
- (2) A contributor's period of employment with Julia Farr Services incorporated is taken to have ceased if there is a break in the contributor's employment with a health sector agency (or a series of health sector agencies) of 1 month or more.
- (3) In addition, if a contributor transfers to employment within a public sector agency because the contributor's position with Julia Farr Services Incorporated has become redundant, the contributor will be taken, for the duration of his or her employment within the public sector, to have continued his or her employment with Julia Farr Services Incorporated.
- (4) In this regulation—

health sector agency means—

 - (a) an agency within the Department of Human Services; or
 - (b) a hospital or health centre incorporated under the South Australian Health Commission Act 1976.

Part 3—Modification of Superannuation Act 1988

8—Modification of Act

For the purposes of clause 1(1)(b) of Schedule 1A of the Act, the provisions of the Act are modified in their application to the employees declared to be new scheme contributors under regulation 5 in the manner described in the following provisions of this Part.

9—Amendment of section 4—Interpretation

- (1) Section 4(1), definition of age of retirement—delete the definition and substitute:

age of retirement means 65 years;

- (2) Section 4(1), definition of contributor—delete the definition and substitute:

contributor means a person whose name appears in Schedule 1 of the Superannuation (Julia Farr Services Employees) Regulations 2003;

- (3) Section 4(1)—after the definition of pension period insert:

Plan means the Julia Farr Centre Staff Provident Plan;

prescribed employment means employment, or notional employment, with Julia Farr Services Incorporated (see regulation 7 of the Superannuation (Julia Farr Services Employees) Regulations 2003);

- (4) Section 4(1)—after the definition of salary insert:

Schedule means Schedule 1 of the Superannuation (Julia Farr Services Employees) Regulations 2003;

10—Substitution of sections 23, 24 and 25

Sections 23, 24 and 25—delete the sections and substitute:

23—Contributors

A contributor is not required to make contributions to the Treasurer for the duration of his or her prescribed employment.

11—Substitution of sections 27, 28, 28A, 28B, 28C and 29

Sections 27, 28, 28A, 28B, 28C and 29—delete the sections and substitute:

27—Retirement

- (1) A contributor who retires from prescribed employment at or over the age of retirement is entitled to a superannuation payment determined as follows:

$$A = FS \times BM$$

Where—

A is the amount

FS is the contributor's actual or attributed salary immediately before retirement (expressed as an annual amount)

BM is the sum of the amount of the retirement benefit multiple (RBM) and the amount of the additional benefit multiple (ABM) (if any) appearing in the Schedule opposite the contributor's name.

- (2) A contributor who retires from prescribed employment before attaining the age of retirement is entitled to a superannuation payment determined as follows:

Where—

A is the amount

FS is the contributor's actual or attributed salary immediately before retirement (expressed as an annual amount)

M is the actual period of membership (being membership of the Plan or as a contributor in prescribed employment) to the date of ceasing service (in completed months)

PM is the period of membership (as described in item M) that the contributor would have completed at the age of retirement (in completed months)

RBM is the retirement benefit multiple (RBM) appearing in the Schedule opposite the contributor's name

ABM is the additional benefit multiple (ABM) (if any) appearing in the Schedule opposite the contributor's name.

28—Resignation and preservation of benefits

- (1) If a contributor resigns from prescribed employment before reaching the age of 55 years, the contributor—
 - (a) is entitled to superannuation benefits determined in accordance with the formula described in section 27(2) (as if he or she had retired); and
 - (b) is taken to have elected to preserve his or her superannuation benefits.
- (2) The contributor may at any time after reaching the age of 55 years require the Board to pay the superannuation benefits preserved under this section to the contributor and, if no such requirement has been made on or before the date on which the contributor reaches the age of retirement, the Board will make the payment.
- (3) If the contributor has become incapacitated and satisfies the Board that his or her incapacity for all kinds of work is 60 per cent or more of total incapacity and is likely to be permanent, the Board will pay the preserved superannuation benefits to the contributor.
- (4) If the contributor dies, the preserved superannuation benefits will be paid to the spouse of the deceased contributor or, if he or she left no surviving spouse, to the contributor's estate.
- (5) A payment made under any of the above subsections excludes further rights so that a claim cannot be subsequently made under some other subsection.

12—Substitution of section 30

Section 30—delete the section and substitute:

30—Disability pension

- (1) Subject to this section, a contributor who is temporarily or permanently incapacitated for work in prescribed employment, and has not reached the age of retirement, is entitled to a disability pension.

- (2) A disability pension is not payable in respect of—
 - (a) a period in respect of which the contributor is entitled to sick leave; or
 - (b) a period in respect of which the contributor is entitled to weekly payments of workers compensation; or
 - (c) a period for which the contributor is on recreation leave or long service leave.
- (3) The Board will not pay a disability pension in respect of a period of incapacity unless and until the contributor has been absent from work as a result of the incapacity for a period of 3 months.
- (4) The amount of a disability pension will be 75 per cent of the contributor's notional salary.
- (5) A disability pension cannot be paid, in respect of the same incapacity, for an aggregate period of more than 2 years.

13—Substitution of sections 31 and 32

Sections 31 and 32—delete the sections and substitute:

31—Termination of employment on invalidity

If—

- (a) a contributor's prescribed employment terminates on account of invalidity before the contributor reaches the age of retirement; and
- (b) the Board is satisfied that the contributor's incapacity for all kinds of work is 60 per cent or more of total incapacity and is likely to be permanent,

the contributor is entitled to a superannuation payment determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$A = FS \times BM$$

Where—

A is the amount

FS is the contributor's actual or attributed salary immediately before termination (expressed as an annual amount)

BM is the sum of the amount of the retirement benefit multiple (RBM) and the amount of the additional benefit multiple (ABM) (if any) appearing in the Schedule opposite the contributor's name.

32—Death of contributor

- (1) If a contributor's prescribed employment is terminated by the contributor's death—
 - (a) if the contributor is survived by a spouse—a lump sum payment will be made to the spouse;

- (b) if the contributor is not survived by a spouse—a lump sum payment will be made to the contributor's estate.
- (2) The lump sum to be paid to a surviving spouse or to the contributor's estate is to be determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$A = FS \times BM$$

Where—

A is the amount

FS is the contributor's actual or attributed salary immediately before the contributor's death (expressed as an annual amount)

BM is the sum of the amount of the retirement benefit multiple (RBM) and the amount of the additional benefit multiple (ABM) (if any) appearing in the Schedule opposite the contributor's name.

14—Repeal of section 32A

Section 32A—delete the section
