DEVELOPMENT ACT 1993: SECTION 46 (1) (a)

Notice

PURSUANT to subsection (1)(a) of section 46 of the Development Act 1993 ('the Act'), I, Minister for Urban Development and Planning being of the opinion that a declaration under section 46 of the Act is appropriate for the proper assessment of development of major social importance declare that section 46 of the Act applies to development of the kind specified in Schedule 1.

Dated 14 May 2004.

TRISH WHITE, Minister for Urban Development and Planning

SCHEDULE 1

Development on the land comprised and contained in Certificate of Title Register Book Volume 5890, Folio 792, of the kind described in Development Application No. 252/2364/03, lodged with the City of Charles Sturt and any other development that involves the creation of fortifications as defined in Schedule 2, but not including any development to which section 37A of the Act applies.

SCHEDULE 2

For the purposes of Schedule 1 the term 'fortifications' means any security measure that involves a structure or device forming part of, or attached to, premises that:

- (a) is intended or designed to prevent or impede police access to the premises; or
 - (b) has, or could have, the effect of preventing or impeding police access to the premises and is excessive for the particular type of premises.
