TRADE STANDARDS ACT 1979

Declaration of Dangerous Goods

TAKE note that I, Jennifer Rankine, Minister for Consumer Affairs, declare that the goods specified in the Schedule are dangerous goods pursuant to section 25 (1) (a) of the Trade Standards Act 1979. Further, pursuant to section 25 (2) (a) and (b) of the Trade Standards Act 1979, I am satisfied that this declaration is necessary in order to avert serious risk of injury or impairment to health, and that it is not appropriate in the circumstances to deal with the matter by the prescription of safety standards.

On publication of this notice, no person shall, in the course of trade or business, manufacture, supply or sell items referred to in the Schedule, forthwith:

SCHEDULE

Glazed ceramic ware of a kind normally used for or in connexion with the storage or consumption of food, when tested in accordance with the Customs (Prohibited Imports) Regulations 1956—Regulation 4e releases levels of lead or cadmium which exceeds the levels of lead and cadmium per volume specified for that item in the aforementioned regulation.

Dated 3 April 2008.

JENNIFER RANKINE, Minister for
Consumer Affairs
