South Australia—Lake Alexandrina—Dredging and Disposal Site for Stockpiled Material in the Narrows

DREDGING operations will be carried out from approximately 29 January 2010 until 31 March 2010, for the removal of stockpiled material to complete the previous Lake Albert pumping project.

This current project involves a cutter suction dredge to remove and relocate the previously dredged material in the Narrows between Lakes Alexandrina and Albert to a site offshore in deeper waters of Lake Alexandrina to mitigate the Acid Sulfate Soils (ASS) environmental hazard and future navigation hazard. A total of 65 000 m³ of material will be dredged.

As a result of the dredging being undertaken to remove the stockpiled material, a channel will also be prepared that will have the capacity to deliver Lake Alexandrina water to the extraction point on the blocking bank, to Lake Albert to sustain water levels.

Dredging co-ordinates are as follows:

5. Rule 162 is amended by deleting subrules (3), (4), (7) and (8) and inserting in their place the following new subrules:

“(3) An affidavit must be made before an authorised person (the authorised person) to whom the maker of the affidavit (the witness) swears or affirms his or her honest belief in the truth of the contents of the affidavit.

(4) The contents of an affidavit cannot be altered after it has been sworn or affirmed (but this sub-rule does not prevent the making of a later affidavit drawing attention to the error in the earlier affidavit).

(7) If the witness is illiterate or blind the authorised person must state in the attestation clause that—

(a) he or she read the affidavit to the witness or that the affidavit was read in his or her presence to the witness; and

(b) the witness appeared to understand and approve the contents of the affidavit.

(8) Subject to the operation of s 14 (2) of the Evidence Act 1929 (SA), if the witness does not appear to understand English sufficiently, the authorised person must state in the attestation clause that an interpreter swore or affirmed before the authorised person that:

(a) the interpreter had, in the presence of the authorised person, interpreted the contents of the affidavit to the witness;

(b) the witness appeared to understand and approve the contents of the affidavit;

(c) the interpreter had interpreted the oath to the witness;

(d) the witness swore or affirmed that the contents of the affidavit were true; and must state in the attestation clause the name and address of the interpreter.”

6. Rule 187 is amended by deleting the present subrule (7) and inserting in its place a new subrule (7) as follows:
 - (7) “A formal offer of settlement may be withdrawn at any time before it has been accepted by the filing and service on each party to the proceeding of a notice of withdrawal and in such cases, subject to any Court order to the contrary, the offer will be treated as if it had never been made.”
7. The whole of Chapter 13 is deleted and a new Chapter 13 is inserted as follows:

“Chapter 13—Appellate proceedings

Part 1—General

Note—

There is no rule 280—see rule 3A

Part 2—Appeals

281—Time for appeal

Subject to any other relevant law, an appeal must be commenced within 21 days after the date of the judgment, order or decision subject to the appeal.

Note—

See rule 288 to the contrary.

282—How to commence appeal

- (1) An appeal is commenced by filing a notice of appeal.
- (2) A notice of appeal—
 - (a) must be in an approved form; and
 - (b) must identify the judgment, order or decision subject to the appeal; and
 - (c) must state in detail the grounds of the appeal; and
 - (d) must state the orders sought by the appellant on the appeal; and
 - (e) If the appeal is of a kind for which permission to appeal is necessary—
 - (i) must include a request for the necessary permission; or
 - (ii) if permission has been obtained already, must state when, and from whom permission to appeal was obtained; and
 - (f) if an extension of time for commencing the appeal is necessary—must include an application for the necessary extension of time.
- (3) Unless the Court otherwise directs, an appellant may not rely on grounds that are not stated in the notice of appeal.

283—Parties to appeal

- (1) A party to the proceedings in which the judgment under appeal was given is a party to the appeal unless the party has no interest in the subject matter of the appeal.
- (2) The Court may order the addition or removal of a person as a party to an appeal.
- (3) A person cannot be added as an appellant without the person's consent.

284—Notification to be given of appeal

- (1) The appellant must, within two days after filing a notice of appeal, serve a copy of the notice of appeal on—
 - (a) all other parties to the appeal; and
 - (b) if the appeal is from a tribunal – the proper officer of the tribunal; and
 - (c) if the appeal is from a decision of the Guardianship Board—the Public Advocate.
- (2) On receipt of a notice of appeal under this rule, the proper officer of the tribunal must, subject to any direction by the Court, transmit to the Registrar—
 - (a) all documents lodged with the tribunal in the relevant proceedings; and
 - (b) a copy of any transcript of evidence or proceedings; and
 - (c) any other evidentiary material relating to the proceedings in the custody of the tribunal; and
 - (d) a copy of the judgment, order or decision subject to the appeal and of any reasons given for it.
- (3) The proper officer of the tribunal should comply with any reasonable request from the Registrar for transmission of the materials referred to in sub-rule (2) in electronic form.
- (4) If the appeal is from a decision of the Guardianship Board, the Registrar will give notice of the filing of an appeal to those persons whom the Guardianship Board identifies as persons who were given notice of the hearing before the Board or who were given an opportunity to make submissions at the hearing before the Board.

285—Notices of cross-appeal and contention

- (1) If a respondent to an appeal also wants to appeal against the judgment subject to the appeal, the respondent may, within 14 days after service of the notice of appeal, lodge a notice of cross-appeal.
- (2) A notice of cross-appeal must conform with the requirements for a notice of appeal (so far as applicable).

- (3) If a respondent wants to contend that a decision subject to appeal should be upheld for reasons that differ from those given at first instance, the respondent must, within 14 days after service of the notice of appeal, file notice of the respondent's contention stating in detail the grounds on which the respondent asserts the decision should be upheld.

286—Hearing of appeal

- (1) An appeal is to be by way of rehearing (unless the law under which the appeal is brought provides to the contrary).
- (2) Subject to any limitation on its powers arising apart from these rules, the Court may determine an appeal as the justice of the case requires despite the failure of parties to the appeal to raise relevant grounds of appeal, or to state grounds of appeal appropriately, in the notice of appeal.
- (3) Subject to any limitation on its powers arising apart from these rules, the Court may—
 - (a) draw inferences of fact from evidence taken at the original hearing and, in its discretion, hear further evidence on a question of fact;
 - (b) amend or set aside the judgment subject to the appeal and give any judgment that the justice of the case requires;
 - (c) remit the case or part of the case for rehearing or reconsideration;
 - (d) make orders for the costs of the appeal.

287—Discontinuance of appeal

- (1) An appellant may discontinue an appeal by filing a notice of discontinuance in the Court.
- (2) If there are two or more appellants and not all discontinue the appeal, the discontinuance does not prevent the remaining appellant or appellants from continuing the appeal.
- (3) The appellant must, as soon as practicable after filing a notice of discontinuance, give a copy of the notice to—
 - (a) all other parties to the appeal; and
 - (b) if the appeal is from a tribunal—the proper officer of the tribunal.
- (4) An appellant discontinuing an appeal is liable to the other parties to the appeal for the costs arising from the appeal.
- (5) The discontinuance of an appeal does not affect a cross-appeal in the same proceedings.

Part 3—Applications for permission to appeal

Rule 288—Applications Requiring Permission

- (1) When an appeal requires the Court's permission the appellant may:
 - (a) commence the appeal in the ordinary way and include in the notice of appeal a request for the necessary permission; or
 - (b) within 14 days after the date of the judgment against which the appellant seeks to appeal, make a separate application to the Court for permission to appeal.
- (2) If the appellant commences the appeal before obtaining permission to appeal, the appeal is conditional on permission to appeal being granted, and, if permission is refused, the appeal lapses.
- (3) If the appellant makes a separate application for permission to appeal to the Court before filing a notice of appeal, the appellant must file with the application an affidavit setting out the grounds of the application.

Note—

There are no rules 289, 290, 291 and 29—see rule 3A.

Part 4—Reservation or reference of questions of law

293—Reservation or reference of questions of law

- (1) If the Court (constituted of a Master) reserves or refers a question of law for determination by the Court constituted of a Judge, the Court must, when reserving or referring the question, designate a party to the action to be the responsible party who is to have the carriage of the proceedings.
- (2) If some other court or a tribunal reserves or refers a question of law for determination by the Court under any other law, the court or tribunal must (subject to contrary direction by the Court) designate a party to the action to be the responsible party who is to have the carriage of the proceedings.
- (3) The responsible party must, as soon as practicable after a question of law is reserved or referred for determination, submit a concise statement stating the question for determination and the facts out of which it arises.
- (4) The statement must be approved by the judicial officer who made the decision to refer the question for determination by the Court.
- (5) Unless the Court otherwise directs, the proper officer of a court or tribunal by which a question of law is reserved or referred for determination by the Court must forward to the Registrar of the Court—
 - (a) those of the documents filed in the court or tribunal in relation to the case; and

- (b) that part of the transcript of any evidence taken in the court or tribunal; identified by the judicial officer approving the statement of the question to be referred as necessary to be considered by the Court in relation to the question referred or reserved.

- (6) The proper officer of the court or tribunal should comply with any reasonable request from the Registrar for transmission of the materials referred to in subrule (5) in electronic form.

Part 5—Miscellaneous

- (1) In this rule, an appeal notice means—
 - (a) an application for permission to appeal; or
 - (b) a notice of appeal; or
 - (c) a notice of cross-appeal; or

- (2) An appeal notice may be amended by filing an amended appeal notice.
- (3) After an appeal has been set down for hearing an appeal notice may be amended only by permission of the Court.
- (4) A party who amends an appeal notice must serve copies of the amended notice on all other parties.

- (f) the Court may, in special circumstances, order that security be given for the costs of an appeal;
 - (g) the Court may summarily dismiss the appeal if it is obvious that it cannot succeed.
- (2) The powers conferred by this rule may be exercised on the hearing of the appeal or application or in interlocutory proceedings before a single Judge or a Master.
 - (3) The Court may, in interlocutory proceedings for the exercise of a power conferred by this rule, reserve a question raised in the proceedings for determination at the hearing of the appeal.

Note—

There is no rule 296—see rule 3A.

297—Summary of argument for hearing of the appeal

- (1) Subject to any direction given by a Judge or Master, each party must deliver to the Court a summary of the party's argument in the Court.
- (2) The summary of argument must be delivered to the Court within the relevant time limit prescribed by practice direction.
- (3) Subject to any direction given by a Judge or Master, a summary of argument must conform with the following requirements—
 - (a) it must contain a concise statement of any facts on which the party relies;

- (4) The Court or the Registrar may give directions about the contents of the case book.
- (5) The party who prepared the case book must, on receiving the appropriate fee for a copy of the case book, provide another party to the proceedings with a copy of the case book.

Note—

There is no rule 299—see rule 3A.

300—Stay of execution

- (1) An appeal does not operate to stay execution of, or proceedings on, the judgment subject to the appeal nor does it invalidate proceedings that have already been taken on the judgment.
- (2) The Court may, however, order a stay of execution of, or proceedings on, a judgment because it is subject to appeal or for any other proper reason.

Government

TREASURER'S QUARTERLY STATEMENT

for the

THREE MONTHS and TWELVE MONTHS ended on 30 JUNE 2009 and 30 JUNE 2008

*Presented by the Honourable Kevin Foley MP
Treasurer of South Australia*

GOVERNMENT OF SOUTH AUSTRALIACOMMENTARY TO THE STATEMENT OF THE AMOUNTS CREDITED TO
AND ISSUED FROM THE CONSOLIDATED ACCOUNT FOR THE COMPLETED 2008-09
YEAR AND THE QUARTER ENDED 30 JUNE 2009Receipts

Taxation receipts are $159 million lower than the original 2008-2009 Budget estimate. This was mainly due to:

- Lower stamp duties ($180 million).
- Lower land tax ($10 million).
- Higher payroll tax ($28 million).
- Higher gambling taxes ($2 million).

Contributions from State Undertakings are $80 million lower than the original 2008-2009 Budget estimate. This was mainly due to:

- Lower SA Water dividend ($24 million) and income tax equivalent ($12 million).
- Lower Land Management Corporation dividend ($22 million) and income tax equivalent ($6 million).
- Lower Forestry SA dividend ($8 million) and income tax equivalent ($3 million).

Recoveries are $128 million higher than the original 2008-2009 Budget estimate. This was mainly due to:

- Return of cash to consolidated account of $70 million under the cash alignment policy.
- Return of deposit account balance of $61 million from Superannuation.

Fees and charges are $18 million lower than the original 2008-2009 Budget estimate primarily due to lower receipts from land services fees.

Royalties are $11 million lower than the original 2008-2009 Budget estimate.

Commonwealth general purpose revenue grants are $320 million lower than the original 2008-2009 Budget estimate. This was mainly due to:

- Lower GST Revenue Grants ($357 million).
- Higher Transitional Grants ($36 million).

Commonwealth Specific Purpose revenue grants are $37 million higher than the original 2008-2009 Budget estimate. This was mainly due to higher Council of Australian Governments funding arrangements.

Commonwealth National Partnership Payment revenue is $55 million higher than the original 2008-2009 Budget estimate reflecting. This was mainly due to:

- Higher First Home Owners Boost payments ($65 million).
- Lower Concessions to Pensioners and others ($10 million).

Other receipts are $70 million lower than the original 2008-2009 Budget estimate. This was mainly due to lower return of interest on investments.

Payments

Payments pursuant to the Appropriation Act (i.e. to agencies) are $109 million higher than forecast in the original 2008-2009 Budget. The major areas contributing to this outcome are as follows:

- Department of the Premier and Cabinet—$31 million higher.
- Administered Items for the Department of Treasury and Finance—$128 million higher.
- Attorney-Generals Department—$20 million higher.
- Department of Water, Land and Biodiversity Conservation—$13 million higher.
- Department of Treasury & Finance—$16 million lower.
- Department for Transport, Energy and Infrastructure—$55 million lower.
- Department of Education and Children's Services—$9 million lower.
- Department of Further Education, Employment, Science and Technology—$9 million lower.

All appropriations were paid within approved limits.

Payments pursuant to Specific Appropriation Authorised in Various Acts were in line with the original 2008-2009 Budget.

Note

Considerable caution should be exercised in interpreting the quarterly statement of Consolidated Account transactions. Unlike the State budget, the information is purely limited to cash transactions. In addition, the Consolidated Account does not capture all the transactions undertaken by the general government sector (in particular, it does not record receipts and payments from special deposit accounts). Finally, it should be noted that the timing of receipts and payments could be volatile within a particular year. As a result, apparently significant movements between years may only be due to changes in the timing of receipts and payments, and therefore may not have implications for the underlying budget position.

(a) At it's November 2008 meeting, the Council of Australian Governments agreed on new Commonwealth-State funding arrangements that were introduced on 1 January 2009. These arrangements provide for the payment of specific purpose payments to the treasuries of each state and territory rather than to the relevant line agencies as was the case under the previous arrangements.
