- B. The ACS has made an application to the Professional Standards Council, appointed under the Professional Standards Act 1994 (NSW) (the Act), for a scheme under the Act.
- C. The scheme is prepared by the ACS for the purposes of limiting occupational liability to the extent to which such liability may be limited under the Act.
- D. The scheme propounded by the ACS is to apply to ACS members who qualify as Certified Computer Professionals.
- E. The ACS has furnished the Council with a detailed list of the risk management strategies intended to be implemented in respect of its members and the means by which those strategies are intended to be implemented.
- F. The ACS has furnished the Council with insurance standards determined by ACS with which members must comply for purposes of this scheme.
- G. The scheme is intended to remain in force for five (5) years from its commencement unless, prior to that time, it is revoked, its operation ceases, or it is extended pursuant to Section 32 of the Act.
- H. The scheme is intended to operate as a scheme of New South Wales, the Australian Capital Territory, the Northern Territory, Queensland, Victoria, Western Australia and South Australia.

The Australian Computer Society Professional Standards Scheme1. Occupational Association

2. Persons to Whom the Scheme Applies¹

- 2.1 The scheme applies to all individual practitioner members of the ACS who qualify as Certified Computer Professionals, unless exempted by ACS.
- 2.2 This scheme also applies to all persons to whom the scheme applied under Clause 2.1 at the time of any act or omission giving rise to occupational liability.²
- 2.3 The ACS may, on written application by a member to whom this scheme applies, exempt the member from the scheme³, provided that the scheme does not apply to the person by virtue of that person being a partner or employee of a person to whom the scheme applies, or the person being prescribed by regulation as a person to whom the scheme applies.

3. Limitation of Liability

- 3.1 This scheme only affects the liability for damages⁴ arising from a single cause of action to the extent to which the liability results in damages exceeding $1.5 million.

However, Section 5 (1) of the Act provides that the Act does not apply to liability for damages arising from the death or personal injury to a person, a breach of trust or fraud or dishonesty. Section 5 (2) of the Act also provides that the Act does not apply to liability which may be the subject of proceedings under Part 13 or 14 of the Real Property Act 1900 (NSW). - (c) under which the amount payable in respect of that occupational liability is not less than the monetary ceiling specified in this scheme, that person is not liable in damages in relation to that cause of action above the monetary ceiling specified in this scheme.

3.3 The monetary ceiling is $1.5 million.

3.4 Clause 3.2 does not limit the amount of damages to which a person to whom the scheme applies is liable if the amount is less than the amount specified for the purpose in this scheme in relation to a person to whom the scheme applies.

3.5 This scheme limits the occupational liability in respect of a cause of action founded on an act or omission occurring during the period when the scheme was in force in respect of any person to whom the scheme applied at the time the act or omission occurred.

4. Conferral of Discretionary Amount

4.1 Pursuant to Section 24 of the Act this scheme confers on the ACS a discretionary authority to specify, on application by a person to whom the scheme applies, in relation to that person, a monetary ceiling (maximum amount of liability) not exceeding $10 million in relation to the person either in all cases or in any specified case or class of case.

5. Duration

5.1 The scheme shall be in force after its commencement in all applicable jurisdictions until 31 December 2014, unless otherwise extended, or it is revoked, or otherwise ceases operation or to have effect.

WORKERS REHABILITATION AND COMPENSATION ACT 1986

*Provisional Payment GuidelinesPreamble

Part 4 Division 7A of the Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1986 (the Act), contains 'Special provisions for commencement of weekly payments after initial notification of an injury'.

Section 50A of that Division provides the following definitions and reads:

'In this Division –

Initial notification means the notification of an injury that is given to an employer (if the worker is in employment) and the Corporation, in the manner and form required by Provisional Payment Guidelines, by the worker or by a person acting on behalf of the worker (for example, by an employer or a medical expert);

Provisional Payment Guidelines means guidelines published by the Minister from time to time in the Gazette for the purposes of this Division.'

NOTICE

For the purpose of Part 4 Division 7A of the Act I publish these Provisional Payment Guidelines.

The Provision Payment Guidelines will have effect from 1 August 2012 and supersede the Provision Payment Guidelines previously published in the Government Gazette on 25 June 2009.

1. Initial notification

Pursuant to Section 50A of the Act, the following manner and form will apply to the initial notification of a disability for the purposes of Division 7A:

- 1.1 An initial notification of injury means the first notification of an injury that is given to an employer (if the worker is in employment) and the Corporation or only the employer where that employer is self-insured. A worker, or their representative (for example, the employer, a member of the worker's family, a legal representative or a medical expert) can give the initial notification of an injury to the Corporation or self-insured employer.
- 1.2 Where the employer is not self-insured, initial notification must be given to the Corporation or the Corporation's appointed claims agent (currently Employers Mutual) in any one of the following manners:
 - In person at: WorkCoverSA, 400 King William Street, Adelaide, or to Employers Mutual, 15th floor, 26 Flinders Street, Adelaide SA 5000, or
 - Via post to: WorkCoverSA, 400 King William Street, Adelaide SA 5000 or GPO Box 2668, Adelaide SA 5001 or Employers Mutual, 26 Flinders Street, Adelaide SA 5000 or GPO Box 2575, Adelaide SA 5001 or DX 270 Adelaide, or

- Via facsimile to: WorkCoverSA (08) 8233 2466 or Employers Mutual (08) 8127 1200, or
- Via telephone to: WorkCoverSA 13 18 55 or Employers Mutual 1300 365 105, (but such a form of notification is subject to the operation of paragraph 3.1.1).

1.3 Initial notification by the worker or their representative must also be provided to their employer (as highlighted in Clause 1.1) and in accordance with one of the manners described in 1.2; or, if employed by a self-insured employer, to the self-insured employer. Initial notification to the employer (where the employer is not self-insured) is satisfied if the Corporation has received the initial notification by the worker or their representative, with all of the information required for an initial notification referred to in 1.4, and has provided this information to the employer.

1.4 The initial notification must be by the form approved by the Corporation for the purposes of Section 52 of the Act for a claim for compensation and must include the following information in order to satisfy the minimum requirements of initial notification, so as to constitute an 'initial notification of an injury for the purpose of Section 50B of the Act:

Worker's information:

- name;
- postal address and/or telephone number;
- date of birth;
- gender; and
- job role or occupation.

Employer's information:

- business name; and
- business address.

Treating doctor information:

- in the manner and form of a designated medical certificate (or, if not available, other credible evidence that the worker obtained medical treatment for the injury but such a form of notification is subject to the operation of paragraph 3.1.2); and
- if the worker is hospitalised, the name of the hospital.

Injury and accident details:

- description of injury/disease suffered and part of body affected;
- date and time of the workplace injury or the period of time over which the injury emerged from date of first symptoms;
- description of how the workplace injury happened;
- date the employer was notified of the injury and name of person notified; and
- whether the worker had any time lost as a result of the injury and is seeking weekly payments of compensation and/or medical and other expenses.

Notifier information:

name of person making the initial notification;
contact details, telephone number and/or address (if not the worker).

- 1.5 A decision to commence or not commence provisional weekly payments cannot be made until all of the minimum information that is required for an initial notification is provided to the employer and the Corporation, or the self-insured employer.

2. Commencement of weekly payments

Pursuant to Section 50B (1) of the Act, provisional weekly payments, by the employer, the Corporation or self-insured employer, are to commence within seven calendar days after initial notification of an injury by the worker, unless the Corporation or self-insured employer determines that there is a reasonable excuse for not commencing those weekly payments.

The Corporation or self-insured employer is deemed to have complied with the requirement to commence payments within seven calendar days if it has authorised the commencement of the weekly payments in writing to the worker and the actual payment of weekly compensation would then be made by the employer, Corporation or self-insured employer in accordance with the next scheduled pay period.

2.1 Reasonable excuse to not commence provisional weekly payments

A 'reasonable excuse' will occur in the following instances:

2.1.1 Claim for compensation already determined:

If a claim for compensation in respect of the same injury has been received by the Corporation or self-insured employer and has already been determined by the Corporation or self-insured employer.

2.1.2 The injured person is unlikely to be a worker under the Act:

The applicant has been unable to establish their status as a worker, and the Corporation or self-insured employer considers, on a reasonable basis (which must be evidence based), that the applicant is unlikely to be a 'worker' under the Act.

2.1.3 The injury is not work related:

The Corporation or self-insured employer has a reasonable excuse if it considers on a reasonable basis (which must be evidence based), that it is likely that the worker did not sustain an injury or that the injury did not arise from employment within the meaning of Section 30 (1) of the Act or that it does not meet the criteria of Section 30A of the Act.

2.1.4 The injury is notified after 13 weeks of incapacity:

The Corporation or self-insured employer has a reasonable excuse if the notice of injury is not given within 13 weeks after the date of the commencement of incapacity. However, the Corporation or self-insured employer may not rely upon this excuse if a liability is likely to exist and if it believes paying weekly compensation to the worker under provisional liability will be an effective injury management strategy for the worker to return to work.

2.2 Incidence of liability

- 2.2.1 Subject to this clause, the Corporation is liable for the payment of provisional weekly payments.
- 2.2.2 Where liability for the payment of provisional weekly payments arises from employment by a self-insured employer, the self-insured employer is liable to make such payments.
- 2.2.3 Subject to this clause, where a worker is, as a result of an injury, wholly or partially incapacitated for work and is in employment when the incapacity arises, the worker's employer is liable to pay provisional weekly payments—
- 2.2.3.1 if the period is two weeks or less—for the whole period; or
- 2.2.3.2 if the period is more than two weeks—for the first two weeks of the period.
- 2.2.4 Where a worker is, at the commencement of a period, in the employment of two or more employers, they are liable to pay the compensation referred to in clause 2.2.3 in proportions determined by agreement between them or, in default of agreement, by the Corporation.
- 2.2.5 Where an employer pays provisional weekly payments under clause 2.2.3 in respect of an injury that did not arise from employment by that employer, that employer may recover the amount of the payment from the Corporation, and the Corporation may, in turn, recover that amount from the employer from whose employment the injury arose.
- 2.2.6 The Corporation shall also undertake any liability of an employer under clause 2.2.3 in respect of a particular injury if the Corporation is satisfied that the employer has given notice to the Corporation of receipt of an initial notification, from or on behalf of a worker, within five calendar days after receipt of the relevant initial notification (and if an employer pays compensation despite the operation of this clause, the employer may recover the amount of the payment from the Corporation up to the amount of the provisional weekly payments payable to the worker under Division 7A of the Act in respect of the relevant period).
- 2.2.7 However, the waiver contained in paragraph 2.2.6 will not apply if the employer has unreasonably failed to provide the necessary information requested by the Corporation's claims agent, within five calendar days of such request, to determine a worker's Average Weekly Earnings.

2.3 Notice to the worker of commencement of weekly payments

Notice in accordance with Section 50E of the Act that weekly payments have commenced or are authorised to commence must be given in writing to the worker by the Corporation or self-insured employer.

3. Discontinuing provisional weekly payments

- 3.1 Pursuant to Section 50C (4) of the Act, provisional weekly payments may be discontinued by the Corporation or self-insured employer in the following circumstances:
- 3.1.1 If the initial notification was given by telephone, the worker has not provided the form referred to in paragraph 1.4 within 10 calendar days of the initial notification; or
 - 3.1.2 if the initial notification did not include a designated medical certificate, such certificate is not provided by the worker within 10 calendar days of the initial notification; or
 - 3.1.3 if the Corporation or self-insured employer receives new credible and substantiated evidence that leads to the conclusion that the injury is not compensable, that was not obtained by, or provided to, the Corporation or self-insured employer at the time it decided to commence provisional weekly payments; or
 - 3.1.4 if contact with the worker cannot be made despite reasonable attempts being made over seven calendar days; or
 - 3.1.5 if the worker consents to the discontinuance of weekly payments; or
 - 3.1.6 the Corporation or self-insured employer is satisfied, on the basis of a certificate of a recognised medical expert, that the worker has ceased to be incapacitated for work by the notified injury; or
 - 3.1.7 the worker has obtained work as an employee, or is self-employed and is earning remuneration equal to or above the rate of the provisional weekly payments; or
 - 3.1.8 the worker is dismissed from employment for serious and wilful misconduct; or
 - 3.1.9 the worker breaches the obligation of mutuality; or
 - 3.1.10 the worker fails to provide a WorkCover Medical Certificate identifying an incapacity for work for a period in respect of which provisional liability payments would otherwise have been payable; or
 - 3.1.11 once a worker's claim for weekly payments is determined, then provisional weekly payments will cease.

For the purpose of clause 3.1.9 a worker breaches the obligation of mutuality in the same circumstances as are described in sub-Sections 36 (1a) (a), 36 (1a) (d), 36 (1a) (e), 36 (1a) (f), 36 (1a) (fa) and 36 (1a) (g) of the Act.

Once a worker's claim for weekly payments is determined, provisional weekly payments will cease, if the claim is rejected. If the claim is accepted, weekly payments will continue but will no longer be on a provisional basis.

- 3.2 If the Corporation or self-insured employer determines to discontinue provisional weekly payments pursuant to Section 50C (4) of the Act, it shall provide notice in writing to the worker, and in the case of the Corporation, to the employer. The worker shall be provided with seven calendar days notice before the decision to cease provisional weekly payments of compensation takes effect, unless:
- 3.2.1 that would result in payments exceeding 13 weeks; or
 - 3.2.2 payments are discontinued as the worker has obtained work as an employee or is self-employed and is earning remuneration equal to or above the rate of the provisional weekly payments of compensation; or
 - 3.2.3 a worker's claim for weekly payments is determined; or
 - 3.2.4 the worker consents to the decision to discontinue provisional weekly payments.

Dated 24 July 2012.
