DEVELOPMENT ACT 1993

Brighton and Hove District Centre Development Plan Amendment—Public Consultation

THE CITY OF HOLDFAST BAY has prepared a Brighton and Hove District Centre Development Plan Amendment (DPA) to amend the Holdfast Bay (City) Development Plan.

The DPA seeks to provide a clear vision for the Brighton Shopping Centre Precinct, to encourage economic activity, high quality building design, high quality public realm and an appropriate mix of land uses. The amendments will also facilitate improvements to traffic movement, including pedestrian and cycling access. Notable changes include:

- Amalgamation of the District Centre A and District Centre B Zones into a new District Centre (Brighton and Hove) Zone.
- Amending the boundaries of the zone to include a number of additional properties that are currently located in the Residential Zone.
- Introducing a Desired Character Statement to articulate a clear vision for the new zone.
- Introducing new policies to guide future development in the zone.
- Introducing a concept plan to provide spatial direction for future development within the zone, and to assist Council in developing future infrastructure upgrades within the local area.

Please note that this DPA does not incorporate amendments proposed in the Heritage and Character DPA, which is currently on public consultation and on interim operation.
