Advance Care Directive

Information Statement

Your witness will ask you to read this Information Statement, and will then ask you a number of questions to make sure that you understand what you are doing by making an Advance Care Directive, and it is your choice to write one.

What is an Advance Care Directive?

An Advance Care Directive is a legal form that allows people over the age of 18 years to:

- write down their wishes, preferences and instructions for future health care, end of life, living arrangements and personal matters and/or
- appoint one or more Substitute Decision-Makers to make these decisions on their behalf when they are unable to do so themselves.

It cannot be used to make financial decisions.

If you have written a refusal of health care, it must be followed if relevant to the circumstances at the time. All other information written in your Advance Care Directive is advisory and should be used as a guide to decision-making by your Substitute Decision-Maker(s), your health practitioners or anyone else making decisions on your behalf, e.g. persons responsible (close family/friends).

It is your choice whether or not to have an Advance Care Directive. No one can force you to have one or to write things you do not want. These are offences under the law.

You can change your Advance Care Directive at any time while you are still able by completing a new Advance Care Directive Form.

Your new Advance Care Directive Form will replace all other documents you may have completed previously, including an Enduring Power of Guardianship, Medical Power of Attorney or Anticipatory Direction.

When will it be used?

Your Advance Care Directive only takes effect (can only be used) if you are unable to make your own decisions, whether temporarily or permanently.

Your decision-making is impaired if you cannot:

- understand information about the decision
- understand and appreciate the risks and benefits of the choices
- remember the information for a short time and
- tell someone what the decision is and why you have made the decision.

This means you are unable to make the decision and someone else will need to make the decision for you.

Who will make decisions for you if you cannot?

It is your choice whether you appoint one or more Substitute Decision-Makers. If you have appointed one or more Substitute Decision-Makers, they will be legally able to make decisions for you about your health care, living arrangements and other personal matters when you are unable to. You can specify the types of decisions you want them to make in Part 2b: Conditions of Appointment of your Advance Care Directive.

Advance Care Directive Information Statement

If you do not appoint any Substitute Decision-Makers others close to you may be asked to make decisions for you if you are unable to (Person Responsible). They must follow any relevant wishes or instructions you have written in your Advance Care Directive.

Anyone making a decision for you will need to make a decision they think you would have made in the same circumstances. A Substitute Decision-Maker needs to “stand in your shoes”.

Refusals of health care

You may have written in your Advance Care Directive that you do not want certain types of health care, also known as a refusal of health care. It is important to make sure you have written down when or under what circumstances any refusals of health care apply.

If you have refused specific health care in your Advance Care Directive, your Substitute Decision-Maker(s), Person Responsible and your health practitioner must follow that refusal if it is relevant to the current circumstances.

This means that your health practitioner will not be able to give you the health care or treatment you have refused.

If you refuse health care but do not write down when the refusal applies, it will apply at all times when you cannot make the decision.

A health practitioner can only override a refusal of health care if there is evidence to suggest you have changed your mind but did not update your Advance Care Directive, or the health practitioner believes you didn't mean the refusal of health care to apply in the current circumstance.

If this happens they will need consent from your Substitute Decision-Makers, if you have any, or a Person Responsible, to provide any health care.

You cannot refuse compulsory mental health treatment as listed in a community or involuntary treatment order if you have one.

How will others know I have an Advance Care Directive?

It is recommended that you:

1. Complete the Wallet Card included in this Kit, or download it from www.advancecaredirectives.sa.gov.au
2. Give a certified copy to any appointed Substitute Decision-Makers, your doctor, your health service where you regularly attend, and others close to you.
3. Keep a certified copy with you and where you can easily find it.
4. Fill out the Emergency Medical Information Booklet (EMIB) and display it with your Form on your fridge (www.emib.org.au).
5. Add it to your Electronic Health Record if you have one (www.ehealth.gov.au).

Advance Care Directive

Substitute Decision-Maker Guidelines

Read these guidelines before you agree to be appointed as a Substitute Decision-Maker, and keep it for future reference

By signing the Advance Care Directive Form you are stating that you agree to be the person's Substitute Decision-Maker and that you understand your role and responsibilities.

Before you sign, make sure you understand what types of decisions you will be able to make, how the person wants you to make those decisions for them, and that you are able to be a Substitute Decision-Maker.

Persons who cannot be appointed as a Substitute Decision-Maker include the person's doctor, nurse, or paid professional carer.

Family members or friends who are paid Carers' Allowance by Centrelink can be appointed as Substitute Decision-Makers.

After you are appointed you should keep a certified copy of the completed, signed Advance Care Directive where you can easily find it.

You should try to have regular discussions with the person who appointed you in case circumstances change for them.

What is the role of a Substitute Decision-Maker?

As a Substitute Decision-Maker you must try to make a decision you believe the person would have made for themselves in the same situation.

As a Substitute Decision-Maker you can make all the decisions the person wanted you to make, but you cannot:

- Make a decision which would be illegal, such as requesting voluntary euthanasia.
- Refuse food and water to be given to them by mouth.
- Refuse medicine for pain or distress (for example palliative care).
- Make legal or financial decisions (unless you have also been appointed as an Enduring Power of Attorney for financial matters).

When contacted and asked to make a decision, you must:

- Only make a decision during periods when the person who appointed you cannot make their own decision. This may be temporary or permanent.
- Support that person to make their own decision if they are able to.
- Produce an original or certified copy of the person's Advance Care Directive Form or advise if it can be accessed in an electronic record.
- Only make decisions which you have been appointed to make under Part 2b Conditions of Appointment.

Advance Care Directive

Substitute Decision-Maker Guidelines

- Try to contact any other Substitute Decision-Maker who has been appointed to make the same types of decisions as you.
- Only make a decision on your own if no other Substitute Decision-Maker with the same decision-making responsibility as you cannot be contacted, or the decision is urgent.
- Inform any other Substitute Decision-Maker(s) of the decisions you make.
- Try to make a decision you believe the person would have made in the same circumstance. For guidance when making decisions, look at the Decision-Making Pathway over the page or for more detail visit www.advancecaredirectives.sa.gov.au.

3 things to remember as a Substitute Decision-Maker

1. You can only make decisions when the person who appointed you cannot make their own decision/s.
2. You must stand in the person's shoes and try to make decisions you believe the person would have made for themselves.
3. Keep a certified copy of the completed and signed Advance Care Directive where you can easily find it.

Advance Care Directive

A guide to decision-making for Substitute Decision-Makers: how to stand in the person's shoes

STEPS

- 1 The Substitute Decision-Maker may assess the person's capacity to make this decision (see How to assess decision making capacity fact sheet).

 - if substitute decision is required, then appointed substitute decision-maker proceeds to step 2.
- 2 Establish whether preferences relevant to the decision have been previously expressed in an Advance Care Directive or in previous discussions.
- 3 For health-related decisions, consider the advice of health professionals about treatment or health care options and likely outcomes in light of the person's wishes:

 - interventions considered overly burdensome or intrusive
 - outcomes of care to avoid. (Part 3 and 4 of Form)
- 4 Comply with specific refusals of medical treatments or health care and interventions if intended to apply to the current circumstances. (Part 4 of Form)
- 5 Consider other preferences and directions in the Advance Care Directive relevant to the current decision. (eg Part 3 of Form)
- 6 If no specific relevant preferences and directions, consult with others close to the person to determine any relevant previously expressed views and social or relationship factors he or she would consider in decision-making.
- 7 Consider the person's known values, life goals and cultural, linguistic and religious preferences and make the decision that the person would make if he or she had access to current information and advice.
- 8 Where several options meet these decision-making criteria, choose the least restrictive option that best ensures the person's overall care and well-being.
- 9 For residential decisions, consider the adequacy of existing informal arrangements for the person's care and the desirability of not disturbing those arrangements.
- 10 If there is no evidence of what the person would have decided, make the decision that best upholds the person's health, well-being and values.

Advance Care Directive

Information for Witnesses

Key points to know before you witness an Advance Care Directive.

Check that you fit one of the authorised witness categories. The full list is available on page 3 of 3.

- You must be independent of the person you are witnessing for, and cannot be:
 - a beneficiary in their Will – for example a family member
 - appointed as their Substitute Decision-Maker or
 - their health practitioner or paid professional carer.

If there is a chance you will be the person's health practitioner in the future you should not witness their Advance Care Directive.

It is your choice whether or not you witness a person's Advance Care Directive.

- To be valid, an Advance Care Directive must be completed on the official Advance Care Directive Form. It may be completed in handwriting or electronic text.
- Do not witness the Advance Care Directive until it has been finalised, including signed by any Substitute Decision-Makers (you do not need to witness the acceptance).
- It is not your role to check the content of the person's Advance Care Directive.

- If you think the person is not competent to complete an Advance Care Directive, you can request they provide medical documentation which states that they are.

To fulfil your witness obligations you must:

1. Follow the correct witnessing process (see next page).
2. Make sure the person has a copy and has read the Advance Care Directive Information Statement. You may need to read it to the person if they are visually impaired. Translated versions in 15 languages are also available on the website.
3. Verify that the person appeared to understand the Advance Care Directive Information Statement and that they did not appear to be acting under any form of duress or coercion.
4. If you also have to interpret the document, please read the Information for Interpreters document.

Penalties

The Advance Care Directives Act 2013 (SA) contains penalties for making false or misleading statements, as well as penalties for dishonesty, undue influence, or inducing another to give an Advance Care Directive. Maximum penalties are $20 000 or imprisonment for two years.

Advance Care Directive Information for Witnesses

Process for correct witnessing

1. Confirm that the identity of the person matches the details on the Form.
2. Give the person the Advance Care Directive Information Statement.
3. Speak with the person alone so you can assess if they are voluntarily giving the Advance Care Directive and to limit the possibility of coercion by others.
4. Once the person has read the Advance Care Directive Information Statement ask the questions below to make sure you are satisfied the person appears to understand the Information Statement and that they do not appear to be acting under duress or coercion.
 - What is an Advance Care Directive?
 - When will your Advance Care Directive be used?
 - What types of decisions will it cover?
 - Who will have to follow your Advance Care Directive?
 - Why have you decided to complete an Advance Care Directive?
 - Have you appointed any Substitute Decision-Makers? Why did you choose them? What decisions will they be able to make? When will they be able to make decisions for you?
5. If the person has appointed any Substitute Decision-Makers, make sure they have signed the Form and accepted their appointment. This must be done before you witness the document. You do not need to witness the acceptance.
6. Check whether there are any alterations to the Form (including white-out). You and the person completing the Form should initial and date any alterations. Make sure any blank sections have a large "Z" drawn across them.
7. If you are satisfied that the person appears to understand the Advance Care Directive Information Statement and that they do not appear to be acting under duress or coercion, ask the person to sign the Form in front of you.

If they are physically unable to sign due to an injury, illness or disability, another person can sign this on their behalf. This person should not be the appointed Substitute Decision-Maker. You must make a note of this in the signing section by adding "He/She, due to an illness, injury or disability was unable to personally sign this Form, but instructed (name of person) to sign on their behalf in my presence."
8. Fill in the Witness Statement in Part 6 of the Advance Care Directive Form. Record your name, occupation and contact details and then sign the Form. Both you and the person must initial and date each page of the Advance Care Directive in the boxes provided.
9. Make multiple certified copies of the document after it has been signed by all parties, and witnessed. Please see page 15 of the Guide or visit the website for information about certifying copies of the original Advance Care Directive Form.

Advance Care Directive

Information for Interpreters

You are reading this because you have been asked to help someone complete an Advance Care Directive and they require assistance with the English language.

The person may have already completed an Advance Care Directive in their own language. If they have, you will need another blank Advance Care Directive Form (available on the website) to translate their words into English on the blank Form.

The official copy of the person's Advance Care Directive must be in English so others, especially those providing health care, can read it.

As the interpreter, you must fill in Part 5 of the Advance Care Directive Form.

Important

By signing your name you are certifying that:

1. You gave the person the Advance Care Directive Information Statement (you may have to read it to them) and in your opinion, they appeared to understand the information given.

The Information Statement is available in 15 different languages on the Advance Care Directive website.

2. Your translation, what you have written on the Advance Care Directive Form, accurately reproduces in English the information and instructions of the person.

There are penalties for writing false or misleading statements on an Advance Care Directive or forcing someone to write information in an Advance Care Directive that they do not want to write.

You must explain to the person that they need to sign their Advance Care Directive in front of an authorised independent witness.

An independent witness means the person is not:

- a beneficiary in their Will
- appointed as their Substitute Decision-Maker or

You may also be able to witness their Advance Care Directive, provided that you are also an authorised witness as specified in this Guide (or on Advance Care Directive website www.advancecaredirectives.sa.gov.au) and are independent of the person. See Information for Witnesses.

Part 3—Liability to pay premiums

3. For the purposes of Section 139 (1) of the Act, the employer will be liable to pay a premium for each premium period.

Part—Calculation of Base PremiumExplanatory Note

For the purposes of Section 142 (4) of the Act, the intent of the formula set out below is to calculate an employer's base premium by multiplying an employer's remuneration by their relevant industry premium rate. Given that an employer could have more than one location, each with its own industry premium rate, the formula is written to show that an employer's base premium could be the aggregate of many calculations.

4. The base premium (BP) is to be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$BP = (Ra \times Ia) + (Rb \times Ib) + \dots (Rn \times In)$$

Where:

Ra, Rb, ...Rn are each a part of the total remuneration in respect of the period for which the premium is to be calculated, being a part of the total remuneration attributable to each relevant SAIC applicable to the employer.

Ia, Ib, ...In are each an industry premium rate expressed as a percentage that corresponds to each relevant SAIC applicable to the employer.

Non-payment or underpayment of remuneration lawfully payable will not reduce the remuneration used as a basis for calculation of an employer's base premium.

Part 5—Apprentice and Trainee Incentive Amount

5. The Apprentice and Trainee incentive amount (A) for an employer is to be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$A = (Aa \times Ia) + (Ab \times Ib) + \dots (An \times In)$$

Where:

Aa, Ab, ...An are each a part of the total remuneration payable by the employer to:

- 5.1 apprentices (as defined in Part 2) in respect of the period for which the premium is to be calculated, being a part of the total remuneration attributable to a SAIC applicable to the employer.
- 5.2 trainees (as defined in Part 2) but only for the term or the balance of the term of an approved training contract (as defined in Part 2) entered into prior to 23 May 2013 and in respect of the period for which the premium is to be calculated, being a part of the total remuneration attributable to a SAIC applicable to the employer.
- 5.3 in the case of an employer who is a GTO, GTO trainees (both as defined in Part 2) employed by that GTO in respect of the period for which the premium is to be calculated, being a part of the total remuneration applicable to a SAIC applicable to the employer.

Ia, Ib, ...In are each an industry premium rate being a percentage rate that corresponds to each relevant SAIC applicable to the employer.

6. If the employer has not supplied a return with respect to remuneration (as required under the Act) in respect of any relevant period, the apprentice and trainee incentive amount (A) is taken to be zero for the purposes of the calculation of the employer's premium but the premium may be recalculated when the required return as to remuneration has been supplied.

Part 6—Premium payable by a newly registered employer

7. Where an employer is a newly registered employer, the premium payable ("P") is calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$P = (BP - A) + SUR + GST + WHS$$

Where:

P is the premium payable for a premium period or part thereof

SUR is the Supplementary Underwriting Rate being a premium adjustment (either a decrease or an increase) to allow the premium of an employer, within a particular category or class, to be adjusted. Any adjustment is at the discretion of the Corporation and subject to the claims experience and a specific risk assessment of the employer by the Corporation.

Part 7—Transfer of Business

8. For the purposes of Section 160 of the Act it is determined that the claims history of the old employer will be applied to the calculation of the premium payable by the new employer in the following circumstances:

- 8.1 Where the new employer has employed workers who constituted all or a majority of the workers employed by the old employer at any time at the business location or locations transferred to the new employer, and
- 8.2 The workers at any time carried out activities/services for the new employer that are the same or similar to activities/services carried out by those workers for the old employer, and these provisions apply whether or not the business of the new employer or the activities and/or services performed are at the same business location.

Part 8—Designated period and designated minimum premium

9. For the purposes of Section 143 (9) (a) of the Act, the designated period is a financial year.
10. For the purposes of Section 143 (9) (b) of the Act, the designated minimum premium is $200.

I confirm that this is a true and correct record of the decision of the Board of the Corporation made on the 4th day of April 2016.

Dated 4 April 2016.

RETURN TO WORK ACT 2014*RTWSA Premium Order (Return to Work Premium System) 2016-2017*

THE Board of the Return to Work Corporation of South Australia ('the Corporation') after consultation with the Minister publishes the principles fixing the manner in which a premium payable by an employer (or person who proposes to become an employer) will be calculated for the purposes of Section 143 of the Return to Work Act 2014 ('the Act'), referred to as the 'RTWSA Premium Order (Return to Work Premium System) 2016-2017' ('the Order'). This Order fixes the manner in which such a premium is to be calculated so as to take effect on 1 July 2016 and up to and including 30 June 2017.

Part 1—Preliminary Matters

1. This Order is the RTWSA Premium Order (Return to Work Premium System) 2016-2017 published pursuant to subsection 143(3) of the Act.
2. This Order takes effect on 1 July 2016.

Part 2—Application

3. This Order applies to all employers (as defined in the RTWSA Premium Provisions 2016-2017) other than a newly registered employer in the circumstance described in clause 4 or unless another Order applies.
4. A newly registered employer, who commenced to be an employer after 1 July 2015 and who employed workers after 1 July 2015, who is not subject to the transfer of business provisions in Section 160 of the Act, will have their premium calculated in accordance with Part 6 of the RTWSA Premium Provisions 2016-2017 until that employer has experienced a full premium period.
5. If before 1 July 2017, a RTWSA Premium Order (Return to Work Premium System) has not been made for the 2017-2018 period, this Order continues to apply pending the making of such an Order.
6. The terms and conditions in the RTWSA Premium Provisions 2016-2017 apply unless this Order provides otherwise.
7. In this Order, words and expressions have the same meaning as they have in the RTWSA Premium Provisions 2016-2017, unless this Order provides otherwise.

Part 3—Calculation of premium payable by an employer

8. The Corporation must ensure that this Order operates on the basis that the costs of all claims made by an employer's workers are taken into account. Accordingly, in setting the formula for calculating the premium payable by an employer, the foundation or basic consideration is the base premium (BP). The BP calculation for an employer is equal to the remuneration payable to their workers multiplied by the relevant industry premium rate/s. The industry premium rate is set for each industry having particular regard to the average premium rate which includes the operating costs of the RTWSA scheme and the costs of all claims made by all employers' workers. The formula for calculating the premium payable by an employer enables adjustments to the BP by applying a number of different factors of a specified kind. The formula with such factors is designed to enable an employer to achieve a discount on their premium for preventing workplace injuries that would otherwise result in income support payments, and conversely, for an employer to pay an additional premium when injuries in their workplace result in substantial income support payments being made to their workers.
9. The premium payable by an employer for a premium period, or part thereof, is to be calculated by the following formula:

$$P = BP \times (1 - D) + C^* - A + SUR + GST + WHS$$

* C is subject to a maximum of $3 \times D \times BP$

Where:

P is the total premium

D is the base premium discount factor calculated in accordance with Part 4 of this Order

BP is the base premium calculated in accordance with Part 4 of the RTWSA Premium Provisions 2016-2017

C is the cost of claims calculated in accordance with Part 5 of this Order

A is the Apprentice and Trainee incentive amount, if any, for an employer determined with respect to the premium period or part thereof in accordance with Part 5 of the RTWSA Premium Provisions

SUR is the Supplementary Underwriting Rate being a premium adjustment (either a decrease or an increase) to allow the premium of an employer, within a particular category or class, to be adjusted. Any adjustment is at the discretion of the Corporation and subject to the claims experience and a specific risk assessment of the employer by the Corporation.

GST is the Goods and Services Tax as defined in Part 2 of the RTWSA Premium Provisions 2016-2017

WHS is the work health and safety registration fee as defined in Part 2 of the RTWSA Premium Provisions 2016-2017

Part 4—Base premium discount factor

10. The base premium discount factor (D) for an employer is as follows:
 - 10.1 Where the employer's annualised Base Premium is less than $10,000, the premium discount factor is 0.05.
 - 10.2 Where the employer's annualised Base Premium is or exceeds $10,000 and is less than $50,000, the premium discount factor is 0.1.
 - 10.3 Where the employer's annualised Base Premium is or exceeds $50,000 and is less than $100,000, the premium discount factor is 0.15.
 - 10.4 Where the employer's annualised Base Premium is or exceeds $100,000 and is less than $500,000, the premium discount factor is 0.2.
 - 10.5 Where the employer's annualised Base Premium is or exceeds $500,000 and is less than $1,000,000, the premium discount factor is 0.25.
 - 10.6 Where the employer's annualised Base Premium is or exceeds $1,000,000 the premium discount factor is 0.30.

Part 5—Cost of claims

11. Cost of claims means income maintenance or income support payments, where:
 - 11.1 payments were made in the financial year preceding the premium period to which the premium applies, and
 - 11.2 the payments were paid with respect to claims with a date of injury in the three financial years preceding the commencement of the premium period to which the premium applies, but excluding:

- 11.2.1 the amount of income maintenance or income support paid in the first two weeks of a worker's incapacity where the Corporation has undertaken the liability of the employer in accordance with subsection 46(8b) of the Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1986 (the 1986 Act) or subsection 64(14) of the Act, and
- 11.2.2 the income maintenance or income support payments paid in respect of claims arising from an unrepresentative injury as defined by Section 3 of the 1986 Act or section 4 of the Act, and
- 11.2.3 the income maintenance or income support payments paid in respect of claims arising from a secondary injury as defined by Section 3 of the 1986 Act, and
- 11.2.4 the income maintenance or income support payments associated with successfully prosecuted fraudulent claims.

Part 6—Group Training Organisation arrangement

12. Where an employer is registered with the South Australian Government as meeting the National Standards for Group Training Organisations in the relevant premium period, the premium (P) will be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$P = BP - A + SUR + GST + WHS$$

13. This arrangement shall only apply if the employer has registered and obtained a separate employer number with ReturnToWorkSA for the purpose of reporting apprentice and trainee remuneration.

Part 7—Alternative set of Principles (Retro Paid Loss Arrangement)

14. For the purposes of Section 143 (7) (e) of the Act, the RTWSA Premium Order (Retro-Paid Loss Arrangement) 2016-2017 is an alternative set of principles for the payment of premium for an employer or employers.

I confirm that this is a true and correct record of the decision of the Board of the Corporation made on the 4th day of April 2016.

Dated 4 April 2016.
