*South Australian—River Murray—Riverine Recovery Project—
Water Levels in The River Murray Lock 2 and 5 Weir Pools*

AS part of the DEWNR Riverine Recovery Project, the water levels in the River Murray Lock 2 and 5 weir pools have started to be raised above the normal operating range. The rate of rise will be approximately 2 cm/day, up to 75 cm at Weir 2 and 50 cm at Weir 5 above normal pool level. The purpose of raising the water levels in this way is to mimic historic natural water level variability, which will promote a range of benefits, specifically restoration of ecological function.

Boat operators should always use caution when navigating near bridges and power lines due to the elevated water level, and near the river banks which may increase the width of shallows and submerged hazards near the banks in some places.

If you would like to be kept informed on how the project is tracking please visit the website:

Example—

The manager of a training centre may direct that a visit by a particular person to a particular resident of the centre is to be a contact or non-contact visit in a separate or private, or in a public, meeting room.

- (3) The manager of a training centre may authorise a visit or visits to a resident of the centre in circumstances that don't fall within the centre's usual visiting arrangements if the manager is satisfied that—
 - (a) the resident has a family emergency, such as illness in the family or a bereavement; or
 - (b) the visitor has travelled a long distance to visit and is unable to visit during scheduled visiting sessions due to financial, work or other difficulties; or
 - (c) the circumstances are otherwise such as to warrant the visit or visits.
- (4) A person may not visit a resident unless the person provides such evidence as the manager of the training centre thinks appropriate as to the person's identity.
- (5) The manager of a training centre may—
 - (a) cause a person to be screened and approved for a visit prior to allowing a visit with a resident of the centre; and
 - (b) if of the opinion that special reasons exist for doing so, order that a particular person is barred from visiting a resident of the centre for any period the manager thinks fit, or until further order of the manager.

13—Visits by professional visitors

- (1) The following provisions apply to a visit to a training centre by a person who visits a resident of the centre for the purpose of rendering professional services to the resident:

 - (c) the visit must, if practicable, be conducted in private.
- (2) A visit by a person for the purpose of rendering professional services to a resident of a training centre will not be held to be a visit for the purposes of regulation 12(1).

14—Power to search visitors

- (1) This regulation does not apply to a person who is a resident of a training centre.
- (2) The manager of a training centre may—
 - (a) cause any person who enters the centre to submit, subject to the person's consent, to 1 or more of the following for the purpose of detecting the presence of prohibited items:
 - (i) screening by means of an electronic device;
 - (ii) a limited contact search;
 - (iii) having the person's belongings searched; or
 - (b) if there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that a person entering or in the centre is in possession of a prohibited item—cause the person and the person's possessions to be detained and searched; or
 - (c) if there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that a vehicle entering or in the centre is carrying a prohibited item—cause the vehicle to be detained and searched.
- (3) If a person does not consent to screening or a search, the manager of the training centre may cause the person to be refused entry to or removed from the centre, using only such force as is reasonably necessary for the purpose.
- (4) Failure of a person to consent to screening or a search does not of itself constitute grounds for suspecting that the person is in possession of a prohibited item.
- (5) A limited contact search is a search of a person to which the following provisions apply:
 - (a) the person may be required to remove any jacket that the person is wearing;
 - (b) the person cannot be required to remove any other clothing or to open the person's mouth, and nothing may be introduced into an orifice of the person's body;
 - (c) any direct contact with the person's flesh that is necessary for the purpose of the search must be minimal and within the bounds of propriety;

- (d) the person may be required to adopt certain postures or to do anything else reasonably necessary for the purposes of the search and, if the person does not comply with such a requirement, the manager may cause the person to be removed from the centre, using only such force as is reasonably necessary for the purpose;
 - (e) the search must be carried out expeditiously and undue humiliation of the person must be avoided;
 - (f) the manager of the centre must ensure that the gender of the person conducting the search is appropriate in the circumstances.
- (6) The following provisions apply to a search under subregulation (2)(b):
- (a) the person may be required—
 - (i) to remove the person's outer clothing (including footwear, headwear and jackets) but no other clothing; and
 - (ii) to open the person's mouth (but force cannot be applied to open the person's mouth); and
 - (iii) to adopt certain postures; and
 - (iv) to submit to a pat down search; and
 - (v) to do anything else reasonably necessary for the purposes of the search, and, if the person does not comply with such a requirement, the manager may cause the person to be removed from the training centre, using only such force as is reasonably necessary for the purpose;
 - (b) nothing may be introduced into an orifice (including the mouth) of the person's body;
 - (c) at least 2 persons (apart from the person being searched) must be present at all times during the search;
 - (d) the search must be carried out expeditiously and undue humiliation of the person must be avoided;
 - (e) the manager of the centre must ensure that the gender of the person conducting the search is appropriate in the circumstances.
- (7) The following provisions apply to a search under subregulation (2)(c):
- (a) the driver of the vehicle may be required to do anything reasonably necessary for the purposes of the search;
 - (b) if the driver does not comply with a requirement made under paragraph (a)—the manager may cause the driver and the vehicle to be refused entry to or removed from the training centre, using only such force as is reasonably necessary for the purpose.

- (8) If a prohibited item is found as a result of screening or a search under this regulation, or a person fails to comply with a requirement lawfully made for the purposes of screening or a search under this regulation, the manager may cause the person or the driver of the vehicle (as the case may be) to be handed over into the custody of a police officer as soon as reasonably practicable and to be kept in detention until that happens.
- (9) If the employee who carries out screening or a search of a person under this regulation suspects on reasonable grounds that a prohibited item may be concealed on or in the person's body, the manager may cause the person to be handed over into the custody of a police officer as soon as reasonably practicable and to be kept in detention until that happens.
- (10) On a person being detained under subregulation (8) or (9), the manager must immediately cause a police officer to be notified.
- (11) Despite the preceding provisions of this regulation, if a person or vehicle may be detained under this regulation for the purposes of being searched, the manager may, instead, cause the person or vehicle to be refused entry to or removed from the training centre, using only such force as is reasonably necessary for the purpose.
