- A. The Australian Property Institute Valuers Limited (APIV) is an occupational association.
- B. The APIV has made an application to the Professional Standards Council (PSC), constituted under the Professional Standards Act 1994 (NSW) (the Act), for a scheme under the Act.

- F. The scheme is intended to remain in force for five (5) years from its commencement unless, prior to that time, it is revoked, its operation ceases, or it is extended pursuant to Section 32 of the Act.

THE AUSTRALIAN PROPERTY INSTITUTE VALUERS LIMITED SCHEME

1. Occupational association

- 1.1 The Australian Property Institute Valuers Limited Scheme (the scheme) is a scheme under the Act prepared by the APIV whose business address is:

6 Campion Street, DEAKIN
ACT 2600

- 1.2 The scheme is intended to operate in New South Wales, the Australian Capital Territory, the Northern Territory, Queensland, South Australia, Victoria, Western Australia and Tasmania.
- 1.3 The scheme is intended to limit occupational liability by insurance arrangements pursuant to s21 of the Act. The relevant insurance arrangements are the APIV Insurance Standards.¹

¹ These are published on the API website at <https://www.api.org.au/resources/apiv-limitation-of-liability-scheme-resources>.

2. Persons to Whom the Scheme Applies²

- 2.1 The scheme applies to all members of the APIV. All members of the APIV are required to hold or have the benefit of a Professional Indemnity Insurance Policy against occupational liability that complies with the insurance standards of the APIV and the insurance requirements set out in Clause 3.2, unless exempted by the APIV.
- 2.2 This scheme also applies to all persons to whom the scheme applied under Clause 2.1 at the time of any act or omission giving rise to occupational liability.³
- 2.3 The APIV may, on application by a member to whom this scheme applies under Clause 2.1, exempt the member from the scheme.

² Sections 18 and 19 of the Act provide that if the scheme applies to a body corporate, the scheme also applies to each officer of the body corporate and if the scheme applies to a person, the scheme also applies to each partner of the person, and if the scheme applies to a person the scheme also applies to each employee of the person, provided that if such officer of the corporation or partner of the person or employee of the person is entitled to be a member of the same occupational association, such officer, partner or employee is a member of the occupational association. Section 20 provides that the scheme may also apply to other persons as specified in that section. Section 20A extends the limitation of liability of persons to whom the scheme applies by virtue of sections 18 to 20.

³ For the purposes of the operation of the scheme in New South Wales, "occupational liability" has the same meaning as it has in the Act and excludes any liability which may not from time to time be limited pursuant to the Act. Similarly, for the purposes of the operation of the scheme in other jurisdictions in which it applies, "occupational liability" has the same meaning as it has in the corresponding legislation of those jurisdictions and excludes any liability which may not from time to time be limited pursuant to that legislation.

Occupational liability is defined in s4(1) of the Act to mean 'civil liability arising (in tort, contract or otherwise) directly or vicariously from anything done or omitted by a member of an occupational association acting in the performance of his or her occupation'. However, s5(1) of the Act provides that the Act does not apply to liability for damages arising from the death of or personal injury to a person, a breach of trust or fraud or dishonesty. [Note: All jurisdictions other than NSW and WA exclude a lawyer acting in a personal injury matter.] Section 5(2) of the Act also provides that the Act does not apply to liability which may be the subject of proceedings under Part 13 or 14 of the Real Property Act 1900 (NSW).

3. Limitation of Liability

- 3.1 This scheme only affects the liability for damages⁴ arising from a single cause of action to the extent to which the liability results in damages exceeding $1,000,000.
- 3.2 If a person or corporation, who or which was at the time of the act or omission giving rise to occupational liability, a person or corporation to whom this scheme applied and against whom a proceeding relating to occupational liability is brought, is able to satisfy the court that such person or corporation has the benefit of a Professional Indemnity Insurance Policy:
- (a) of a kind which complies with the APIV Insurance Standards,
 - (b) insuring such person or corporation against the occupational liability to which the cause of action relates, and
 - (c) under which the amount payable in respect of that occupational liability is not less than the monetary ceiling specified in the 4th column (entitled "Monetary Ceiling") of the table in Clause 3.3 of this scheme relating to the class of person and the kind of work to which the cause of action relates, that person or corporation is not liable in damages in relation to that cause of action above the monetary ceiling specified in this scheme.

- 3.3 The monetary ceiling (maximum amount of liability) required for the purposes of limitation of liability under this scheme at the time at which the act or omission giving rise to the cause of action occurred is to be determined according to the following table:

Class	Description	Upper End Value	Monetary Ceiling ⁵
1	Category A Member	$0.0 million to < $3.0 million	$1.0 million
2	Category B Member	$3.0 million to < $5.0 million	$2.0 million
3	Category C Member	$5.0 million to < $10.0 million	$3.0 million
4	Category D Member	$10.0 million to < $15.0 million	$4.0 million
5	Category E Member	$15.0 million to < $40.0 million	$5.0 million
6	Category F Member	$40.0 million >	$10.0 million

3.4 Clause 3.2 only affects liability for damages arising from a single cause of action to the extent to which the liability in damages exceeding such amount as is specified in Clause 3.1.

3.5 This scheme limits the occupational liability in respect of a cause of action founded on an act or omission occurring during the period when the scheme was in force of any person to whom the scheme applied at the time the act or omission occurred.

3.6 This scheme does not limit the occupational liability of a member in the event the member does not have the benefit of a Professional Indemnity Insurance Policy in accordance with Clause 3.2 at the time the act or omission occurred.

⁴ Damages as defined in section 4(1) of the Act means (a) damages awarded in respect of a claim or counter-claim or claim by way of set-off and (b) costs in or in relation to the proceedings ordered to be paid in connection with such an award (other than costs incurred in enforcing a judgment or incurred on an appeal made by a defendant), and (c) any interest payable on the amount of those damages or costs.

⁵ Pursuant to the APIV Insurance Standards, there must be at least one automatic reinstatement where the policy limits the aggregate of claims.

4. Conferral of discretionary authority

4.1 Pursuant to section 24 of the Act, this scheme confers on the APIV a discretionary authority to specify, on application by a member to whom the scheme applies, in relation to that person a higher monetary ceiling (maximum amount of liability) not exceeding $20 million, in relation to the person either in all cases or in any specified case or class or case.

- (2) If an employee of a council receives a gift or benefit of an amount greater than the amount determined by the Minister (from time to time), by notice published in the Gazette, the employee must provide details of the gift or benefit to the chief executive officer of the council in accordance with any requirements of the chief executive officer.

Form 4—Prescribed oral advice and written notice

(Section 47K(2a)(a) of Act)

Part A—Oral advice for the purposes of section 47K(2a)(a) of Road Traffic Act 1961

The breathalyser reading just taken shows that you had a prohibited level of alcohol in your blood.

Therefore, it appears that you have committed an offence against section 47B(1) or (1a) of the Road Traffic Act 1961.

In any court proceedings for an offence against section 47B(1) or (1a), or for an offence against section 47 of the Road Traffic Act (driving under the influence of liquor), it will be presumed that the breathalyser accurately indicated your blood alcohol level at the time of the reading and for the preceding two hours. However, the Road Traffic Act allows for contrary evidence based on the results of a blood test.

If you want to have such a blood test you will have to make your own arrangements and follow certain procedures, using a special blood test kit. This blood test kit will be supplied to you on your signing a written request.

If you obtain a blood test kit and want to have your blood tested, you should take the kit promptly to a hospital or medical practitioner in order to have a sample of your blood taken.

[*Alternatively, you may have the sample taken by a registered nurse.]

You must not consume any more alcohol before having a sample of your blood taken and must not open the blood test kit before delivering it to a medical practitioner [*or registered nurse].

Under the blood test procedure, the sample of blood is divided and sealed in two containers. You will have to sign a form that will be given to you by the medical practitioner [*or registered nurse].

One of the sealed containers will be given to you and you may make your own arrangements to have the blood in that container analysed.

In any event, the blood in the other container will be analysed by Forensic Science SA and you will be given written notice of the results of the analysis.

Further information as to these matters is contained in the written notice which will be delivered to you shortly.

* Advice as to the alternative of a registered nurse is to be given only if the breath analysis was conducted outside Metropolitan Adelaide.

Part B—Written notice for the purposes of section 47K(2a)(a) of Road Traffic Act 1961

Operation of Road Traffic Act in relation to results of breath analysis

1 Offence

Section 47B(1) of the Road Traffic Act 1961 provides that a person commits an offence if the person drives a motor vehicle, or attempts to put a motor vehicle in motion, while there is present in the person's blood the prescribed concentration of alcohol (as defined in section 47A of the Act). Section 47B(1a) provides that if a person engages in conduct involving a motor vehicle that constitutes an offence against section 47B(1) (other than a category 1 offence) while a child under the age of 16 years is present in or on that motor vehicle, the person commits an offence against section 47B(1a) and is liable to the same penalty as is prescribed for an offence against section 47B(1).

2 Breath analysis

Your breath has just been analysed by means of a breath analysing instrument which indicated that the prescribed concentration of alcohol was present in your blood. Accordingly, it appears that you have committed an offence described above.

3 Legal effect of breath analysis result

In proceedings for an offence described above or an offence against section 47(1) of the Road Traffic Act 1961 (driving under the influence of liquor), the result of the breath analysis will be presumed to accurately record the concentration of alcohol in your blood at the time of the analysis and throughout the preceding 2 hours (section 47K(1), (1ab)).

In any proceedings against you for such an offence, you will be able to challenge the accuracy of the breath analysis reading if—

- you have a sample of your blood taken and analysed as described below; AND
- the result of analysis of the blood sample shows that the breath analysing instrument gave an exaggerated reading of the concentration of alcohol present in your blood (section 47K(1a)).

Procedures for optional blood test

- 1 You may have a sample of your blood taken and analysed if you wish.
- 2 For that purpose, you must request the breath analysis operator to supply you with an approved blood test kit (you must sign a written request form for the kit and should retain a copy of the signed request form).
- 3 You should then proceed promptly to a hospital or a medical practitioner [*or registered nurse] of your choice and request that a sample of your blood be taken (using the blood test kit).
- 4 Do not consume any further alcohol before the sample is taken.
- 5 Do not open the blood test kit.
- 6 The medical practitioner [*or registered nurse] taking the sample of your blood will divide it and place it into two containers and seal the containers. One container will be delivered to you — do not break the seal on this container.
- 7 Sign the form presented to you by the medical practitioner [*or registered nurse] — the original of the form will be given to you which you should retain.
- 8 You may, if you wish, have the blood sample (in the container delivered to you) analysed at a laboratory to determine the concentration of alcohol present in the blood.
- 9 The other blood sample container will, in any event, be sent to Forensic Science SA where the blood will be analysed. The results of this analysis will be sent to you at your address (as indicated on the form presented to you by the medical practitioner [*or registered nurse] who took the blood sample).

- * The alternative of a registered nurse applies only if the breath analysis was conducted outside Metropolitan Adelaide.

Information about this summons

Unless the summons has the Seal of the Magistrates Court on it, it has not been properly issued and therefore doesn't need to be obeyed.

What is this document?

This is a summons, which requires you to either attend court to give evidence, to produce documents to the court or both. If you need to produce documents, the summons specifies the documents that you need to produce.

What do you have to do?

If the summons requires you to produce documents or things only, you may comply with it by delivering all of the documents or things to the Registrar of the Magistrates Court at the address given prior to the time and date on the summons. If you do that, you do not have to attend on the day and at the time shown on the summons.

You should only deliver documents or things to the Registrar if you have all of the documents or things requested and if you have no objection to producing them to the Court and to them being inspected by the parties to the case.

If you do deliver the documents or things to the Registrar, they should be securely packaged and have a copy of this summons attached.

If you object to the parties seeing the documents or things, you must come to court on the day and at the time listed and tell the Magistrate why you object to producing them.

If the summons requires you to give evidence (whether or not it also requires you to bring documents or things), you must attend at the Registry on the day shown in sufficient time to be in the correct courtroom by the time listed unless you contact the person who had this summons issued and have arranged to come to court at some other time.

What about the cost of attending court?

In addition to your reasonable expenses of attending at Court, you are also entitled to be paid by the party who had this summons issued, your reasonable expenses incurred in complying with the summons, including an appropriate witness fee.

If you need all or some of these expenses paid before you come to court, you should contact the party who had the summons issued.

If you do not understand what you must do, or if you cannot comply with it, you should contact

The Registrar of the court that issued the summons;

The person that applied to issue the summons; or

A solicitor to obtain your own legal advice.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR DEFENDANTS

(State Prosecutions)
Magistrates Court of South Australia
www.courts.sa.gov.au
Criminal Procedure Act 1921
 Section 115(4)

Notice to Defendant

- If you are on bail, you will be required to appear before a Judge of the Court to which you have been committed on at a.m.
- If you are in custody, arrangements will be made for you to appear before the Court on the day on which you are required.
- If you plead not guilty before the Judge, you will be remanded for trial and the Judge will adjourn your case to a particular date and time for a directions hearing.
- Directions hearings are held so that arrangements can be made for the trial, including the fixing of the date for the trial.
- There may be more than one directions hearing and you will be required to attend on each occasion, unless excused by the Judge.

Reduction for a Plea of Guilty

When a person is sentenced to imprisonment, the Court may reduce the length of the sentence if the person pleads guilty to the offence. The amount of discount will depend on how early the plea of guilty takes place and the circumstances of the case.

Defence Case Statement

General

The prosecution is required to give you (or your lawyer) a prosecution case statement setting out a summary of the facts alleged against you and other information relating to your trial. This must be provided to you 6 weeks before your arraignment in the Supreme or District Court.

You are required to file in Court and give to the prosecution a defence case statement not more than 4 weeks after being given the prosecution case statement.

A defence case statement must include:

- (1) any facts and any elements of the offence set out in the prosecution case statement that you admit; and
- (2) any witnesses that you want the prosecution to call (if the witnesses have provided a statement but are not amongst the list of witnesses the prosecution intends to call at trial); and
- (3) an indication of whether you –
 - consent to any of the prosecution applications included in the prosecution case statement;
 - intend to introduce expert evidence or evidence of alibi (in which case you will also be required to comply with the requirement to give notice of your intention to introduce expert or alibi evidence – see section 124 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1921);
 - agree with the prosecution estimate of the length of the prosecution case;
 - will apply for trial by judge alone;
 - require an interpreter (and if so, the language that the interpreter will be required to interpret);
 - intend to raise any of the following prior to trial
 - issues relating to joinder or severance;
 - issues relating to cross-admissibility of evidence;
 - challenges to the legality of any searches;
 - applications for stay of proceedings;
 - issues relating to chain of evidence or continuity of custody of exhibits;
 - points of law.

Changes to Defence Case Statement

If any information or material included in your case statement subsequently changes or information or material is obtained or occurs after your case statement has been filed, you must disclose the information, material or occurrence to the prosecution as soon as possible. You may do this in the form of an updated defence case statement.

Alibi Evidence

If you fail to give the prosecution notice of any of these matters, you may call evidence about them but the prosecutor or the Court or both may comment to the jury on your failure to give notice.

Expert Evidence

If expert evidence is to be called for the defence at the trial, written notice of your intention to call the evidence must be given to the prosecution at the same time that the defence case statement is filed in Court and given to the prosecution, or if the evidence does not become available to the defence until later, or if any expert information already provided to the prosecution in a written notice changes, as soon as practicable after such evidence becomes available or the defence becomes aware of such changes.

The notice must set out the name and qualifications of the expert and describe the general nature of the evidence and what it tends to establish.

The notice must be given in the form required by the Supreme/District Court Criminal Rules.

If you wish to introduce expert psychiatric evidence or other expert medical evidence relevant to your mental state or medical condition at the time of the alleged offence(s), the Court may require you to submit to an examination by an independent expert approved by the Court.

If you fail to submit to a psychiatric or other medical examination as required by the Court, the Court may not allow you to call expert psychiatric or medical evidence which you wish to tender to the Court.

If you fail to comply with any other requirement in relation to expert evidence, you may not be allowed to call the evidence without the Court's permission and the prosecutor or the Court may comment on your non-compliance to the jury.

Changes to Defence Case Statement

If any information or material included in your case statement subsequently changes or information or material is obtained or occurs after your case statement has been filed, you must disclose the information, material or occurrence to the prosecution as soon as possible. You may do this in the form of an updated defence case statement.

Notice of Defence Case Statement to other Defendant where jointly charged

If you are jointly charged with 1 or more defendants, your case statement must be given to each other defendant in accordance with any orders made by the Court.

Alibi Evidence

Alibi evidence is evidence that you were at some place other than the scene of the alleged offence(s) at the relevant time.

If you wish to call alibi evidence at your trial and the evidence was not given at your committal hearing, written notice of your intention to call the evidence must be given to the prosecution at the same time that the defence case statement is filed in Court and given to the prosecution.

The notice MUST:

- (a) contain a summary of the facts that you wish to establish by calling the alibi evidence; and
- (b) include the name and address of the witness you intend to call to give the alibi evidence; and
- (c) contain any other particulars and be in the form required by the Supreme/District Court Criminal Rules.

And must be delivered or posted to The Director of Public Prosecutions at

11th Floor
45 Grenfell Street or GPO Box 2562 or DX 455
ADELAIDE SA 5000 ADELAIDE SA 5001

If you do not give notice you may not be able to call alibi evidence, and the Prosecutor and the Court may be able to comment to the jury on your failure to give notice of that evidence before the trial.

If you do give notice the Prosecutor may not, after the close of the Prosecution case, give evidence in rebuttal of your alibi evidence unless given leave by the Court.

Information which you may be required to give to the Prosecution

The Court may authorise the prosecution to serve you with a notice or notices requiring you to provide information in relation to the following matters.

NOTIFICATION OF PROSECUTION WITNESSES WHO ARE NOT REQUIRED

This is another way in which the trial might be shortened where some of the evidence is not in dispute.

The Court may require you to notify the prosecution in writing whether you consent to the prosecution not calling witnesses to prove the admissibility of the following kinds of evidence:

- (a) documentary, audio, visual, or audiovisual evidence of surveillance or interview;
- (b) other documentary, audio, visual or audiovisual evidence;
- (c) exhibits.

If you fail to comply with such a notice, the Court will assume you have no objection.

NOTICE OF DEFENCES

The Court may require you to give written notice to the prosecution if you intend to call evidence at the trial which tends to establish that –

- you are mentally unfit to stand trial; or
- you were mentally incompetent to commit the alleged offences; or
- the circumstances of the alleged offence(s) occurred by accident; or
- you were entitled to any property which is the subject of the offence(s); or
- you were acting for a defensive purpose.

The Court may also require you to give written notice to the prosecution if you intend to call evidence at the trial:

- relating to the defences of provocation, automatism, necessity or duress; or
- that you were intoxicated at the time of the alleged offence(s).

If you fail to give the prosecution notice of any of these matters, you may call evidence about them but the prosecutor or the Court or both may comment to the jury on your failure to give notice.

Expert Evidence

If expert evidence is to be called for the defence at the trial, written notice of your intention to call the evidence must be given to the prosecution at the same time that the defence case statement is filed in Court and given to the prosecution, or if the evidence does not become available to the defence until later, or if any expert information already provided to the prosecution in a written notice changes, as soon as practicable after such evidence becomes available or the defence becomes aware of such changes.

The notice must set out the name and qualifications of the expert and describe the general nature of the evidence and what it tends to establish.

The notice must be given in the form required by the Supreme/District Court Criminal Rules.

If you wish to introduce expert psychiatric evidence or other expert medical evidence relevant to your mental state or medical condition at the time of the alleged offence(s), the Court may require you to submit to an examination by an independent expert approved by the Court.

If you fail to submit to a psychiatric or other medical examination as required by the Court, the Court may not allow you to call expert psychiatric or medical evidence which you wish to tender to the Court.

If you fail to comply with any other requirement in relation to expert evidence, you may not be allowed to call the evidence without the Court's permission and the prosecutor or the Court may comment on your non-compliance to the jury.

Notice to Defendant

Section 69(3) of the Judiciary Act 1903 (Cth) provides:

"Any person committed for trial for an offence against the laws of the Commonwealth may at any time within fourteen days after committal and before the jury is sworn apply to a Justice in Chambers or to a Judge of the Supreme Court of a State for the appointment of counsel for his or her defence. If it be found to the satisfaction of the Justice or Judge that such person is without adequate means to provide defence for himself or herself, and that it is desirable in the interests of justice that such an appointment should be made, the Justice or Judge shall certify this to the Attorney-General, who may if he or she thinks fit thereupon cause arrangements to be made for the defence of the accused person or refer the matter to such legal aid authorities as the Attorney-General considers appropriate. Upon committal the person committed shall be supplied with a copy of this subsection."

*INTERVENTION ORDERS (PREVENTION OF ABUSE) ACT 200925—Tenancy order

- (1) If—
 - (a) the Court confirms an interim intervention order as a final intervention order against a defendant or issues a final intervention order against a defendant in substitution for an interim intervention order; and
 - (b) the final intervention order prohibits the defendant from being on premises at which a protected person resides; and
 - (c) the defendant and protected person previously resided together on the premises; and
 - (d) the premises are subject to a tenancy agreement to which the defendant is a party,the Court may make an order (a tenancy order) that the defendant will be taken to have assigned the defendant's interest in the tenancy agreement to a specified person or persons with the landlord's consent.
- (2) However, a tenancy order may only be made if the Court is satisfied that the assignee consents to the assignment and—
 - (a) in a case where—
 - (i) the landlord is a community housing provider registered under the Community Housing Providers National Law; and
 - (ii) the premises constitute community housing within the meaning of that Law, the assignee meets the eligibility requirements for such community housing and any membership or other requirements of the landlord associated with occupation of those premises; and
 - (b) in a case where the landlord is the South Australian Housing Trust or a subsidiary of the South Australian Housing Trust—the assignee meets the eligibility requirements of the Trust; and
 - (c) in any case—the assignee could reasonably be expected to comply with the obligations under the tenancy agreement,
(so that it would be unreasonable for the landlord to withhold consent to the assignment).
- (3) A tenancy order takes effect on the day on which it is made or on such later day as is specified in the order.
- (4) If a tenancy order is made—
 - (a) the effect of the assignment is that the assignee is substituted for the assignor as tenant under the tenancy agreement (but the assignor remains responsible for liabilities that accrued before the date of the assignment); and
 - (b) the assignee is liable to indemnify the assignor for liabilities incurred by the assignor to the landlord because of a breach of the tenancy agreement by the assignee; and
 - (c) an amount paid by the assignor and held by way of security for the performance of obligations under the tenancy agreement will (unless the parties agree to the contrary) continue to be held as security for the proper performance by the assignee of obligations under the tenancy agreement.
- (5) The Registrar must give a copy of a tenancy order to—
 - (a) the protected person; and
 - (b) the defendant; and
 - (c) the landlord; and
 - (d) if the assignee is not the protected person—the assignee; and
 - (e) the Registrar of the South Australian Civil and Administrative Tribunal.
