 - vi. by sending it by document exchange to the Tribunal Registry; or
 - vii. by sending it via a form approved by a registrar.”
10. Rule 14 is amended by deleting sub-rule (c).
11. Rule 17 is deleted and in substitution the following is inserted:
“17. Permission required to rely on documents in certain circumstances
 - a. Subject to these Rules and any direction or order of the Tribunal, if a document is not given to the Tribunal at least 2 clear business days before a hearing in the matter, permission needs to be granted by the Tribunal before the person giving the document can rely on it at that hearing.
 - b. Permission may be given orally or in writing.
 - c. A reference in this Rule to a “hearing” includes a reference to a directions hearing or conference.”
12. Rule 18 is amended by deleting “party” and substituting “person” in sub-rule (b).
13. Rule 21 is deleted and in substitution the following is inserted:
“21. Responses to applications
 - a. A respondent must, as soon as practicable after being given a copy of the relevant application, advise the Tribunal of:
 - i. their full name and contact details, if different from the name and contact details given for the respondent on the application; and
 - ii. the full name and contact details of any person representing the respondent or the name of a recognised advocacy service from which representation will be sought by the lodging party; and
 - iii. details of any known needs for an interpreter or assistance with a disability or special cultural, security or other needs required by a party or witness or other person proposing to attend the hearing.
 - b. Subject to these Rules and any direction or order of the Tribunal, a response to an initiating application or an application for internal review must include the respondent’s answer to the application and must be given to the Tribunal as soon as practicable after being given a copy of the relevant application and, in any event, at least 2 clear business days before the next hearing in the matter.
 - c. A reference in this Rule to a “hearing” includes a reference to a directions hearing or conference.”
14. Rule 22 is deleted.
15. Rule 23 is amended by:
 - (a) deleting “A party whose contact details or representation arrangements change while the Tribunal is considering a matter must, within 7 business days of the change, give the Tribunal a written notice setting out the new details.”; and

- (b) substituting:
- a. A person whose contact details or representation arrangements change while the Tribunal is considering a matter must give the Tribunal a written notice setting out the new details as soon as practicable after the change and, in any event, at least 2 clear business days before the next hearing in the matter.
 - b. A reference in this Rule to a “hearing” includes a reference to a directions hearing or conference.”

16. The following is inserted after Rule 48:

“49. Initiating applications and responses - Disciplinary Matters

- a. This Rule applies to an initiating application made under:
- i. section 46 of the Conveyancers Act 1994;
 - ii. section 44 of the Land Agents Act 1994;
 - iii. section 8 of the Land Valuers Act 1994;
 - iv. section 264 of the Local Government Act 1999; or
 - v. sections 37 and 38 of the Survey Act 1992;
- for disciplinary complaint proceedings (“disciplinary complaint proceedings”).
- b. An initiating application, in addition to complying with Rules 19 and 20, must also include:
- i. the provision or provisions of the legislation on which the applicant relies for the disciplinary orders sought;
 - ii. the conduct said to justify the disciplinary findings identifying the relevant provision of the legislation, or subordinate legislation, relied on by the applicant;
 - iii. the facts, acts and omissions that are alleged to constitute the conduct that justifies the disciplinary finding.
- c. A respondent must, as soon as practicable after being given a copy of the relevant application, advise the Tribunal of:
- i. their full name and contact details, if different from the name and contact details given for the respondent on the application; and
 - ii. the full name and contact details of any person representing the respondent or the name of a recognised advocacy service from which representation will be sought by the lodging party; and
 - iii. details of any known needs for an interpreter or assistance with a disability or special cultural, security or other needs required by a party or witness or other person proposing to attend the hearing.
- d. Within 21 days of being notified of the application the respondent must give to the Tribunal and the applicant a response which must include:
- i. the details of any preliminary issues to be determined such as an objection to lodging the application out of time, or an objection to the jurisdiction of the Tribunal to hear and determine the application, and the basis for the objection;
 - ii. whether the respondent admits or denies the conduct said to justify the disciplinary finding;
 - iii. any facts on which the respondent relies in response.
- e. The respondent must provide a copy of the response to the applicant:
- i. at the same time it is given to the Tribunal if it can be given to the applicant electronically;
 - ii. as soon as practicable after it is given to the Tribunal if it cannot be given to the applicant electronically.
- f. If the respondent fails to give a response to the Tribunal within 21 days, or within such further time as the Tribunal may allow, the respondent may not, without permission of the Tribunal, rely on evidence of any matter of which notice should have been given in a response.
- g. Notwithstanding section 53(1) of the SACAT Act, the parties to an initiating application in respect of disciplinary complaint proceedings are:
- i. the applicant(s); and
 - ii. the person(s) concerning whom the complaint was made.
- h. A complaint under section 264 of the Local Government Act 1999 must be made within 12 months of the time when the complainant becomes aware of the disciplinary breach.”

17. The following is inserted after Rule 51:

“51A. Who must give copies of documents to the Tribunal and other persons

- a. Subject to these Rules and any direction or order of the Tribunal, the following applies in relation to giving documents to the Tribunal and other persons:
- i. if the person giving the documents is not represented by a legal practitioner, that person must give the documents to the Tribunal and the Tribunal will give the documents to all other persons it considers appropriate;
 - ii. if the person giving the documents is represented by a legal practitioner, the legal practitioner must give the documents to the Tribunal and all other parties.
- b. For the purposes of sub-rule (a):
- i. if a document can be given to the other persons electronically, it must be given to the other persons at the same time it is given to the Tribunal;
 - ii. if a document cannot be given to, or received by, the other persons electronically, it must be given to the other persons as soon as practicable after it has been given to the Tribunal.”

18. Rule 52 is amended by:

- (a) deleting “Parties” and substituting “Persons involved in proceedings” in the heading;
- (b) deleting “A Member or registrar of the Tribunal, these Rules or the Practice Directions may require that a party give a copy of a particular document to another party, in which case the document must be given to the other party:” and substituting “A person may be required to give a copy of a particular document to another person, in which case the document must be given to the other person:”;

- (c) deleting:
i. on the same day (or where documents may be lodged by electronic means, at the same time) that it is given to the Tribunal; or
ii. as directed by a registrar of the Tribunal (which may include that the party give the Tribunal a sworn statement as to giving the document to the other party or person).”; and
- (d) substituting:
i. at the same time it is given to the Tribunal if the document can be given to other persons electronically; or
ii. as soon as practicable after it is given to the Tribunal if the document cannot be given to other persons electronically; or
iii. as directed by a registrar of the Tribunal (which may include that the party give the Tribunal a sworn statement as to giving the document to the other party or person).”
19. Rule 57A is amended by deleting “a person of body” and substituting “a person or body”.
20. Rule 62B is amended by:
(a) deleting “lodged” and substituting “commenced”; and
(b) deleting “the” before “section 70”.
21. Rule 62C is amended by deleting “members” and substituting “member(s)”.
22. Rule 73 is amended by:
(a) deleting “expert evidence or other evidentiary material of relevance” and substituting “evidentiary material” in the heading;
(b) deleting: “A party to proceedings before the Tribunal must, in accordance with these Rules, ensure that a copy of any expert report, and of any other evidentiary material of relevance to the proceedings that the party proposes to rely on during the hearing of the proceedings, is made available to any other party as soon as reasonably possible before the hearing of the proceedings.”; and
(c) substituting:
a. Subject to these Rules and any direction or order of the Tribunal, the following applies in relation to giving evidentiary material to the Tribunal and other persons:
i. if the person giving the evidentiary material is not represented by a legal practitioner, that person must give the evidentiary material to the Tribunal and the Tribunal will give it to all other persons it considers appropriate;
ii. if the person giving the evidentiary material is represented by a legal practitioner, the legal practitioner must give the evidentiary material to the Tribunal and all other parties.
b. For the purposes of sub-rule (a):
i. if the evidentiary material can be given electronically to the other persons, it must be given to the other persons at the same time it is given to the Tribunal;
ii. if the evidentiary material cannot be given electronically, it must be given to the other persons as soon as practicable after it is given to the Tribunal.
c. Subject to these Rules and any direction or order of the Tribunal, all evidentiary material must be given to the Tribunal as soon as practicable after it is obtained and, in any event, at least 2 clear business days before the next hearing.
d. A reference in this Rule to a “hearing” includes a reference to a directions hearing or conference.”
23. Rule 74 is amended by:
(a) deleting “expert reports or” from the heading;
(b) deleting “expert report or” before “evidentiary material”;
(c) deleting “report or” before “material”.
24. Rule 88 is amended by deleting “Each” and substituting “Unless dispensed with by the Tribunal, each” in sub-rule (a).

WATER INDUSTRY ACT 2012

Pricing Order for the Regulatory Period 1 July 2020 to 30 June 2024

Pursuant to section 35(4) of the Water Industry Act 2012, I have signed and issued a pricing order on 28 October 2018.

This pricing order has been prepared in order to provide information that would assist the Essential Services Commission of South Australia (ESCOSA) to prepare its Draft Determination for SA Water's drinking water and sewerage services for the regulatory period 1 July 2020 to 30 June 2024. This pricing order does not take into account matters being considered by the South Australian Government's Independent Inquiry into Water Pricing in South Australia.

A further pricing order may be issued to vary this pricing order prior to ESCOSA issuing its Final Determination. There variations may be required in response to the Independent Inquiry into Water Pricing in South Australia once the government has considered these matters and developed an appropriate response, together with any matters raised by ESCOSA in its Draft Determination.
