RULES OF COURT

SOUTH AUSTRALIA

UNIFORM CIVIL (NO 2) AMENDING RULES 2020

By virtue and in pursuance of the Supreme Court Act 1935, the District Court Act 1991 and the Magistrates Court Act 1991, and all other enabling powers, we, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, the Chief Judge of the District Court and the Chief Magistrate of the Magistrates Court, make the following Uniform Civil (No 2) Amending Rules 2020.

1. These Rules may be cited as the Uniform Civil (No 2) Amending Rules 2020.
2. The Uniform Civil Rules 2020 are amended as set out below.
3. The amendments made by these rules come into effect on the later of—
 - (a) 12 October 2020; or
 - (b) the date of their publication in the Gazette.
4. Subrule 31.7(9)(e) and subrule 31.7(13) are amended by inserting the words “deponent and” before the words “attesting witness”.
5. The Note in subrule 213.1(2) is amended by inserting the following below the last note:

“Section 50(4)(a)(ii) of the Supreme Court Act 1935 provides that an appeal from a judgment given by a single Judge on appeal from a judgment of the Magistrates Court lies only with the permission of the Court.

Section 50(4)(a)(i) of the Supreme Court Act 1935 provides that an appeal from a judgment given by consent of the parties lies only with the permission of the Court.

Subsections 50(5) and (6) of the Supreme Court Act 1935 provide that the rules cannot require the Court’s permission for an appeal if the judgment under appeal—

 - (a) denies, or imposes conditions on, a right to defend an action; or
 - (b) deals with the liberty of the subject or the custody of an infant; or
 - (c) grants or refuses relief in the nature of an injunction or the appointment of a receiver; or
 - (d) is a declaration of liability or a final assessment of damages under section 30B of the Supreme Court Act 1935; or
 - (e) unless the judgment under appeal is given by a single Judge on appeal from some other court or tribunal—makes a final determination of a substantive right.”
6. In subrule 213.6(1), the word “considered” is substituted for the word “determined”, the words “in the first instance” are inserted before the words “by a single Judge”, and the Note is deleted.
7. Subrule 236.3(1) is amended by inserting the words “or multiple orders under a rule in this Part” after the words “more than one rule in this Part”.
8. Subrule 236.4(1) is amended by inserting the words “the same or” before the words “another rule in this Part”.
9. Subrule 236.10(3)(a) and subrule 236.14(3)(a) are amended by substituting the word “and” for the word “or”.
10. Chapter 20 Part 13—Legal Office: Senior Counsel is deleted and substituted as follows:

“Part 13—Legal Office: Senior and Queen’s Counsel

263.1—Introduction

- (1) This Part deals with persons appointed as Senior or Queen’s Counsel in South Australia.
- (2) In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears—

Queen’s Counsel means a person appointed by the Governor as Queen’s Counsel pursuant to the Prerogative or section 92 of the Legal Practitioners Act 1981.

Senior Counsel means a person appointed by the Court as Senior Counsel pursuant to the former rules of the Supreme Court or section 91 of the Legal Practitioners Act 1981.

263.2—Criteria for appointment

- (1) A person admitted by the Court to the office of Senior Counsel in accordance with this Part is a person whom the Court regards as having proven themselves to be an advocate of high skill, integrity, professional judgment, and independence justifying an expectation on the part of the public and the judiciary generally that, as Senior Counsel, they will provide outstanding service in the course of the administration of justice.
- (2) Senior Counsel should exhibit—
 - (a) eminence in the practice of the law, especially in advocacy, where eminence is to be understood as including—
 - (i) the possession of a high intellectual capacity, comprehensive and up to date knowledge of the law and procedures in his or her chosen field of practice, and of legal method, and a demonstrated commitment to the provision of the highest level of service and the pursuit of excellence;
 - (ii) the possession of proven skill and judgment in the presentation and testing of litigants’ cases in adversarial proceedings, so as to enhance the likelihood of just outcomes and serve the public interest;
 - (iii) a perspective and knowledge of legal practice usually acquired over a considerable period derived from a practice that evidences: experience in contested matters, especially trials; experience in arguing cases on appeal; experience in conducting major cases in which the other party is represented by Senior Counsel; considerable practice in giving advice in specialist fields of law and a position of leadership, either generally or in a specialist jurisdiction;

- (b) standing and leadership, evidenced by—
 - (i) contribution to the legal profession, its organisations and institutions and the administration of justice more generally;
 - (ii) the making of a significant contribution to legal education;
 - (iii) a practice of mentoring junior members of the profession;
 - (iv) the making of a significant contribution to the community as a legal practitioner;
- (c) integrity evidenced by—
 - (i) a history of honesty, candour, discretion and plain dealing with the courts, professional colleagues and clients;
 - (ii) independence of mind and moral courage;
 - (iii) professional standing, namely having the respect of the judiciary and the profession with respect to observing duties to the courts and to the administration of justice, while preparing and presenting a client's case with dedication and skill, and having the trust and confidence of professional colleagues;
 - (iv) maturity of judgment and balance based on many years practice of the law;
- (d) independence including objectivity and detachment and the ability and courage to give advice and to make decisions that serve the best interests of the client and the administration of justice;
- (e) availability in that they have adopted a mode of practice that ensures that their services are available generally to prospective clients and are not unduly restricted by client or business relationships; where—
 - (i) this does not preclude the acceptance of a general or special retainer on behalf of a client.
 - (ii) Senior Counsel must honour the duty to accept briefs to appear within their area of practice and for which they are available, regardless of personal opinions about the parties or about the causes, and subject only to exceptions relating to appropriate fees and conflicting obligations.
 - (iii) the criterion of availability does not apply to counsel holding a statutory office or in the employment of the Crown or the Legal Services Commission;
- (f) a commitment to fairness and equity in the affairs of the legal profession evidenced by—
 - (i) a practice of advancing the provision of equal opportunities to all members of the legal profession;
 - (ii) a practice of providing legal assistance on a pro bono or similar basis or other legal related community service.

263.3—Timing of application

- (1) An application for appointment to the office of Senior Counsel must, unless the Chief Justice otherwise determines, be filed by 30 June of the year in which the application is to be considered.
- (2) An applicant who is unsuccessful in the year of application will be reconsidered in the following year, but not in subsequent years without further application being made.
- (3) An applicant may submit a revised application for consideration before 30 June of the following year. An applicant who is unsuccessful in two consecutive years may submit a fresh application in a subsequent year.

263.4—Form and content of application

- (1) An application for appointment as Senior Counsel must be in the prescribed form.

Prescribed form—

Form 7C Originating Application Ex Parte—Appointment as Senior Counsel

- (2) The application must provide the following information—

Part A: Formal Particulars

- (i) title, given name, middle name or names and surname;
- (ii) date of birth;
- (iii) address (including postcode) and email address;
- (iv) academic qualifications;
- (v) date, month and year of admission in the first jurisdiction in which the applicant was admitted to practise and in South Australia;
- (vi) date of joining the independent bar (if applicable);
- (vii) year of first application for Senior Counsel and year(s) of previous applications

Part B: Areas of Practice

A narrative description of the applicant's practice including main areas of practice and the courts or tribunals in which she or he predominantly practices.

Part C: Details of Recent Cases

- (1) Details of the cases involving substantial disputes of fact or law in which the applicant was involved in the 18 month period immediately preceding the due date for the application and in relation to each case:
 - (a) the name of the parties and, if available, its citation;
 - (b) the name of the judicial officer, tribunal or arbitrator (or if applicable mediator) before whom the matter was conducted;
 - (c) the name of any counsel who led the applicant or whom the applicant led;
 - (d) the name of opposing counsel;
 - (e) the name of the applicant's instructing solicitor.
- (2) A brief precis of five cases (or if the applicant so chooses not more than 10 cases) in which the applicant was engaged in the last two years that the applicant considers evidence her or his attainment of the standard of Senior Counsel.

Part D: Supporting Submission

A statement of the reasons why the applicant considers that she or he is suitable for appointment to the office of Senior Counsel. Here the applicant should address all the criteria set out in rule 332(2).

In support of the application an applicant may refer to cases falling outside the 18 month period referred to in Part C (1) and should state why the cases referred to in Part C (2) evidence attainment of the standard of Senior Counsel.

Part E: Complaint History

Details of any disciplinary complaints made and upheld, unresolved complaints, convictions for serious offences and any finding of professional negligence against the applicant, any notification to the applicant's professional indemnity insurer, any costs order made against the applicant personally occasioned by the applicant's conduct and any bankruptcy (providing details).

If there is any other matter that may disqualify an applicant from appointment to the office of Senior Counsel, even if the applicant contends that it does not, it should be disclosed out of an abundance of caution.

Part F: Referees

- (1) The names of three judicial officers before whom the applicant has appeared in any of the matters subject of the cases set out in Part C above whom the advisory committee may consult.

Applicants should not approach the judges whom they propose to name before doing so.

The judges so named may be approached by the advisory committee and asked to give their opinion upon the question whether the applicant has displayed the qualities of Senior Counsel as set out in rule 263.2 and is worthy of consideration for appointment as Senior Counsel.

The advisory committee will explain to judges approached the circumstances and the purpose of the nomination.

Applicants are required to list the cases (with dates and citations) in which they appeared before their nominated judicial referees.

- (2) The names of two non-judicial referees, who may be a barrister, solicitor, corporate counsel, arbitrator or mediator, who has direct, recent professional experience of the applicant's work.

This referee may be approached by the advisory committee and asked to comment on whether the applicant displayed the qualities of Senior Counsel as set out in rule 263.2 and is worthy of consideration for appointment as Senior Counsel.

- (3) Applicants should not submit the names of any additional referees or any written references with the application form.
- (4) The advisory committee may consult any of the referees identified in Part F or any of the judicial officers involved in the matters to which the applicant refers in the course of complying with Part C.

Part G: Certifications and acknowledgements

The following certifications and acknowledgements:

I certify that the information provided in this application is correct to the best of my knowledge and belief and that there are no other matters of which I am aware that may provide a reason why I should not be appointed Senior Counsel.

I acknowledge that the Chief Justice, the Court, the advisory committee and persons the advisory committee may consult may make enquiries of the persons referred to in the application and such other persons as it or they think fit in relation to my application. I authorise such enquiries to be made and acknowledge that it will be done on a confidential basis and that the information received from such enquiries and provided by such third parties is confidential as against me and I cannot require disclosure of it.

I agree to confidential enquiries being made of the Legal Profession Conduct Commissioner or any other regulatory body about any matter or circumstances, either past or anticipated that may adversely affect my fitness or propriety to hold an appointment as Senior Counsel. I agree that the Legal Profession Conduct Commissioner and any such other regulatory body as may be consulted may provide to the advisory committee and the Chief Justice, on a confidential basis, all information necessary to answer such enquiries.

I undertake to notify the Chief Justice in the event that any new matter arises that would be required to be disclosed in this application.

- (3) No other documents may be included, and the application must not exceed 15 pages in length.
- (4) The content of an application, the information received during consultation and any report thereon will be treated as confidential by the Court and will only be disclosed to the extent necessary to enable the processes of consultation referred to in this Division to occur. The fact of making the application and the name of the applicant are not confidential.

263.5—Fee

- (1) If an application fee is prescribed by regulation or fee notice, the applicant must pay the fee at the same time as filing the application. Failure to pay the fee will result in the applicant's application being rejected.
- (2) The fee is not refundable.

263.6—Procedure

- (1) As soon as practicable after 30 June in each year or such other date as the Chief Justice determines, the Chief Justice will—
 - (a) provide a list of the current year's applicants and copies of the relevant applications, including revised applications, to—
 - (i) the Attorney-General;
 - (ii) Judges and Masters of the Supreme Court;
 - (iii) the senior resident Judge of the Federal Court of Australia;
 - (iv) the senior resident Judge of the Family Court of Australia;
 - (v) the senior resident Judge of the Federal Circuit Court;
 - (vi) the Chief Judge of the District Court;
 - (vii) the President of the South Australian Employment Tribunal;
 - (viii) the Chief Magistrate of the Magistrates Court;
 - (ix) the Deputy President of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal;
 - (x) the National President, Australian Association of Women Judges;
 - (xi) the Solicitor-General;
 - (xii) the Director of Public Prosecutions;
 - (xiii) the Chief Counsel of the Legal Services Commission;
 - (xiv) the President of the South Australian Bar Association;
 - (xv) the President of the Law Society of South Australia;
 - (xvi) the President of the Women Lawyers' Association of SA Inc;
 - (xvii) the Chair of the Women at the Bar Committee of the South Australian Bar Association;
 - (b) assemble an advisory committee (the advisory committee) constituted of three justices of the Supreme Court appointed by the Chief Justice at least one of whom must be female;
 - (c) upon receiving the report referred to in rule 336(2)(iii) from the advisory committee convene a meeting of the Judges and Masters of the Court to consider the report and determine which applicants shall be appointed to the office of Senior Counsel.
- (2) The advisory committee—
 - (a) may reject any applications not received by 5.00pm on 30 June, or such other date as the Chief Justice determines, in the year in which the application is to be considered;
 - (b) may reject any applications in respect of which any fee payable as referred to in rule 335 has not been paid by 5.00pm on 30 June, or such other date as the Chief Justice determines, in the year in which the application is to be considered;
 - (c) will consult with:
 - (i) the Attorney-General, the Solicitor-General, the Director of Public Prosecutions, the Chief Counsel of the Legal Services Commission, the South Australian nominee of the National President, Australian Association of Women Judges, the President of the Women Lawyers' Association of SA Inc, the Chair of the Women at the Bar Committee of the South Australian Bar Association;
 - (ii) the Chief Magistrate, the senior resident Judge of the Federal Circuit Court, the senior resident Judge of the Family Court of Australia, the President of the South Australian Employment Tribunal, the Deputy President of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal;
 - (iii) the Judges and Masters of the District Court;
 - (iv) the resident Judges of the Federal Court of Australia;
 - (v) any other judicial officer referred to by an applicant not included above or with whom, having regard to an applicant's application, the advisory committee considers it appropriate to consult;
 - (vi) the President of the South Australian Bar Association and the President of the Law Society of South Australia;together or separately as the advisory committee sees fit.
 - (d) must report in writing to the Chief Justice by 30 September, or such other date as the Chief Justice determines, on the outcome of the consultation process and the suitability of all applicants for appointment to office of Senior Counsel;
 - (e) may seek further information from an applicant but only if it is necessary to an understanding of any part or parts of an application or it is considered necessary to provide the applicant with procedural fairness;
 - (f) may consult further with any of those referred to in (c) above if the advisory committee thinks it appropriate.

- (3) It is expected that the following persons will consult as specified in the following sub-paragraphs:
 - (a) in the case of each of the Presidents of the South Australian Bar Association, the Law Society of South Australia and the Women Lawyers' Association of SA Inc, and the Chair of the Women at the Bar Committee of the South Australian Bar Association—his or her council or executive and such other members as he or she considers appropriate;
 - (b) in the case of each head of another jurisdiction with the exception of the Federal Court of Australia and the District Court—judicial officers of that jurisdiction before whom the applicant has appeared.
- (4) All consultations will be undertaken with discretion, respecting as far as possible the privacy of applicants, and will be made for the purpose of answering the question whether, having regard to the criteria set out in rule 263.2, the applicant is a suitable person for appointment to the office of Senior Counsel.

263.7—Appointment

- (1) The Chief Justice will inform each applicant in writing of the outcome of her or his application.
- (2) Appointments will be made by Chief Justice on behalf of the Supreme Court under the hand of the Chief Justice by an instrument in writing bearing the seal of the Supreme Court and will, if practicable, be announced no later than 31 October, or such other date as the Chief Justice determines, of each year.
- (3) The appointment of Senior Counsel will be announced publicly, and will be published in the South Australian Government Gazette.

263.8—Applicants aggrieved

- (1) An unsuccessful applicant will not be provided with reasons.
- (2) A member of the advisory committee may, upon the request of an unsuccessful applicant, meet with the applicant to discuss the application and the reason for its refusal.

263.9—Seniority

- (1) Senior Counsel and Queen's Counsel rank in seniority according to the date of their first appointment, and in the case of persons appointed on the same date, by the date of their admission and in the case of persons admitted on the same date, by alphabetical order of their surnames.
- (2) The reference in subrule (1) to date of appointment is a reference to the earlier of date of appointment as Senior Counsel or Queen's Counsel.

263.10—Undertaking

A Senior Counsel and Queen's Counsel is taken to undertake—

- (a) to confine the nature of their practice to the type of work usually performed by Senior Counsel and Queen's Counsel and to do so to the standard expected of Senior Counsel and Queen's Counsel;
- (b) to use the designation only while remaining a practising barrister in sole practice or retained under statute by the Crown, or during temporary appointments in a legal capacity to a court, tribunal or statutory body, or in retirement from legal practice;
- (c) that, if they practise in future as a solicitor or in partnership or association with a solicitor, they will not permit partners or associates to attribute to them, in connection with such legal practice, the title SC, Senior Counsel, QC or Queen's Counsel or any other indicia of the office of Senior Counsel and Queen's Counsel; and
- (d) to disclose in writing to the Chief Justice as soon as practicable—
 - (i) the bringing and result of any disciplinary proceeding or charge of a serious offence against them; or
 - (ii) any bankruptcy or entry into a debt agreement or personal insolvency agreement under or governed by the Bankruptcy Act 1966 (Cth).

263.11—Attire

Subject to the requirements of particular courts or tribunals, Senior Counsel and Queen's Counsel are to wear the court dress generally worn by Senior Counsel and Queen's Counsel.

Note—

Refer to the Registrar and Principal Registrar information under the Uniform Civil Rules 2020 for further guidance as to attire.

263.12—Title and use of post nominals

- (1) A person appointed as Senior Counsel is entitled to the designation of Senior Counsel and to the use of the abbreviation "SC" after their name.
- (2) A person holding the office of Queen's Counsel is entitled to the designation of Queen's Counsel and to the use of the abbreviation "QC" after their name.
- (3) A person holding the office of Queen's Counsel is entitled to adopt the designation of Senior Counsel and to be recognised as such upon giving notice of such adoption and resignation from the office of Queen's Counsel to the Chief Justice for transmission to His Excellency the Governor.

263.13—Interstate Senior Counsel

- (1) Senior Counsel and Queen's Counsel appointed elsewhere in Australia are to be accorded in the courts of this State the title under which they practise in the jurisdiction in which they were appointed and the status and privileges of Senior Counsel and Queen's Counsel in this State.
- (2) Such persons rank in seniority according to their date of appointment as Senior Counsel or Queen's Counsel in the first jurisdiction in which they were so appointed.

263.14—Resignation

A Senior Counsel or Queen's Counsel may resign from their appointment by writing, signed by counsel and delivered to the Chief Justice.

263.15—Revocation

- (1) The Chief Justice may revoke an appointment as Senior Counsel or Queen’s Counsel if—
 - (a) in a disciplinary proceeding, the Supreme Court, the Legal Practitioners Disciplinary Tribunal or the Legal Profession Conduct Commissioner finds the person guilty of conduct that in the opinion of the Chief Justice is incompatible with the office of Senior Counsel or Queen’s Counsel;
 - (b) in the opinion of the Chief Justice the person has acted or practised in a manner incompatible with the office of Senior Counsel or Queen’s Counsel; or
 - (c) in the opinion of the Chief Justice the person is otherwise unfit to hold the office of Senior Counsel or Queen’s Counsel.
- (2) Before exercising the power conferred by this rule, the Chief Justice will give the person concerned an opportunity to show cause why their appointment or recognition should not be revoked.
- (3) A revocation or resignation of an appointment will be published in the South Australian Government Gazette.”

In accordance with the Supreme Court Act 1935, the District Court Act 1991 and the Magistrates Court Act 1991, and all other enabling powers, the Uniform Civil (No 2) Amending Rules 2020 have been made—

- as rules of the Supreme Court by 3 or more Judges of the Supreme Court; and
- as rules of the District Court by the Chief Judge and 2 or more other Judges of that Court; and
- as rules of the Magistrates Court by the Chief Magistrate and 2 or more other Magistrates, and such rules will apply to and in relation to the Court in accordance with their terms.

ENVIRONMENT PROTECTION ACT 1993

SECTION 68

Approval of Category B Containers

I, ANDREA KAYE WOODS, Team Leader, Container Deposit Legislation and Delegate of the Environment Protection Authority ('the Authority'), pursuant to Section 68 of the Environment Protection Act 1993 (SA) ('the Act') hereby:

Approve as Category B Containers, subject to the conditions in sub-clauses 1, 2, 3 and 4 below, each of the classes of containers identified by reference to the following matters described in the first 4 Columns of Schedule 1 of this Notice which are sold in South Australia:

- (a) the product which each class of containers shall contain;
 - (b) the size of the containers;
 - (c) the type of containers;
 - (d) the name of the holders of these approvals.
1. That containers of the class to which the approval relates must bear the refund marking specified by the Authority for containers of that class.
 2. The holder of the approval must have in place an effective and appropriate waste management arrangement in relation to containers of that class. For the purpose of this approval notice the company named in Column 5 of Schedule 1 of this Notice is the nominated super collector.
 3. In the case of an approval in relation to Category B containers that the waste management arrangement must require the holder of the approval to provide specified super collectors with a declaration in the form determined by the Authority in relation to each sale of such containers by the holder of the approval as soon as practicable after the sale";
 4. The holder of these approvals must ensure that if a sticker bearing the refund marking has been approved, and is applied to the container, then the sticker must not be placed on any portion of the opening mechanism or in any other place that would require complete or partial removal of the sticker before the contents may be consumed.

SECTION 69

Variation to Existing Approval of Collection Depot

I, ANDREA KAYE WOODS, Delegate of the Environment Protection Authority ('the Authority'), pursuant to Section 69 of the Environment Protection Act, 1993 (SA) ('the Act') hereby:

1. Variation to Existing Approval of Collection Depot:

Vary the approval of the collection depot listed at Schedule 1 of this notice, that was granted under the Act prior to the date of this Notice and impose the conditions of this approval to be as follows:

1.1 Approval of Collection Depot:

The collection depot identified by reference to the following matters is approved:

- the name of the collection depot described in Column 1 of Schedule 1 of this Notice;
- the name of the proprietor of the depot identified in Column 3 of Schedule 1 of this Notice;
- the location of the depot described in Columns 4-6 of Schedule 1 of this Notice; and

The collection depot listed at Schedule 1 of this Notice is approved in relation to all classes of containers, which were approved under the Act, at or subsequent to the date of this Notice, as Category B Containers.

1.2 Conditions of approval:

Impose the following conditions on the approval:

- If the Approval Holder's name or postal address (or both) changes, then the Approval Holder must inform the Authority in writing, within 28 days of the change occurring.
- If the collection depot is sold to another party, the Approval Holder must inform the Authority in writing, within 28 days of settlement.
- The Approval Holder who wishes to cease operation of the depot shall notify the Authority in writing, no less than 14 days from date of closing.

4. The Approval Holder, or a person acting on his or her behalf, must not pay a refund on, or seek reimbursement for, containers that the Approval Holder, or the person acting on his or her behalf, knows were not purchased in South Australia.
5. The Approval Holder must ensure that prominent signage is displayed, detailing the offence and the penalties under Section 69 the Act, for presenting interstate containers for refund.

NATIONAL ELECTRICITY LAW

Initiation of Rule Change Requests

The Australian Energy Market Commission (AEMC) gives notice under the National Electricity Law as follows:

Under s 95, the Honourable Lily D'Ambrosio MP, Minister for Energy, Environment and Climate Change, Minister for Solar Homes has requested the Prudent discounts in an adoptive jurisdiction (Ref. ERC0317) proposal. The proposal seeks to make amendments to the operation of the prudent discount regime in an adoptive jurisdiction. The AEMC intends to expedite the proposal under s 96 as it considers the proposed Rule is non-controversial, subject to requests not to do so. Written requests not to expedite the proposal must be received by 22 October 2020. Submissions must be received by 5 November 2020.

Under s 95, the Australian Energy Council has requested the Generator registration thresholds (Ref. ERC0256) proposal. The proposal seeks to increase the participation of smaller generators in central dispatch and also proposes changes to the Australian Energy Market Operator's process for granting exemptions from being registered as a scheduled or semi-scheduled generator. Submissions must be received by 17 December 2020.

Under s 95, Mr Damien Vermeer has requested the Improving connection process for embedded generators (Ref. ERC0318) proposal. The proposal seeks to minimise uncertainty in the registration and connection process for embedded generators which are intending to be exempt from registration. Submissions must be received by 17 December 2020.

Submissions can be made via the AEMC's website. Before making a submission, please review the AEMC's privacy statement on its website. Submissions should be made in accordance with the AEMC's Guidelines for making written submissions on Rule change proposals. The AEMC publishes all submissions on its website, subject to confidentiality.

Written requests should be sent to submissions@aemc.gov.au and cite the reference in the title. Before sending a request, please review the AEMC's privacy statement on its website.

Documents referred to above are available on the AEMC's website and are available for inspection at the AEMC's office.
