Part B. wild-caught unprocessed abalone entering by road or air from a jurisdiction not affected by AVG

The entry into, and subsequent movement within, South Australia of unprocessed abalone comprising wild-caught live abalone originating from a State or Territory of the Commonwealth other than a State or Territory referred to in Part C, or fresh abalone product derived from wild-caught abalone originating from such a State or Territory, is permitted if:

- e. all water, tanks, containers and other equipment that have come into contact with unprocessed abalone are decontaminated before disposal or removal from the fish processor's premises or the point of sale, as applicable; and
- f. the requirements set out in Part D are complied with.

Part C. wild-caught unprocessed abalone entering by road or air from an AVG-affected jurisdiction

The entry into, and subsequent movement within, South Australia of unprocessed abalone comprising wild-caught abalone originating from a State or Territory of the Commonwealth that has reported the occurrence of AVG, and which is not declared free of AVG in accordance with the standards set by the World Animal Health Organisation (OIE), or fresh abalone product derived from wild-caught abalone originating from such a State or Territory, is permitted if:

 - 6.2.2 it is extended in accordance with the Act.
- 6.3 For any other jurisdiction, the Scheme will be in force for:
 - 6.3.1 five (5) years from the date of commencement in that jurisdiction; or
 - 6.3.2 five (5) years from the date of commencement in Victoria; whichever period ends first
- 6.4 The Scheme will cease to operate in a jurisdiction referred to in clause 6.3 if it is revoked or ceases in accordance with the Professional Standards Legislation of that jurisdiction.

7. Other schemes

- 7.1 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Scheme, if in particular circumstances giving rise to Occupational Liability, the liability of any person who is subject to this Scheme should be capped by both this Scheme and also by any other scheme under Professional Standards Legislation (whether of this jurisdiction or under the law of any other Australian state or territory) and if the amount of such caps should differ, then the cap on the liability of such person arising from such circumstances which is higher shall be the applicable cap.

ⁱ Sections 20 and 21 of the Act provide that if the scheme applies to a body corporate, the scheme also applies to each officer of the body corporate and if the scheme applies to a person, the scheme also applies to each partner of the person, and if the scheme applies to a person the scheme also applies to each employee of the person, provided that if such officer of the corporation or partner of the person or employee of the person is entitled to be a member of the same occupational association, such officer, partner or employee is a member of the occupational association. Section 22 provides that the scheme may also apply to other persons as specified in that section.

ⁱⁱ For the purposes of the operation of the Scheme in Victoria, “Occupational Liability” has the same meaning as it has in the Act and excludes any liability which may not from time to time be limited pursuant to the Act. Similarly, for the purposes of the operation of the Scheme in other jurisdictions in which it applies, “Occupational Liability” has the same meaning as it has in the corresponding legislation of those jurisdictions and excludes any liability which may not from time to time be limited pursuant to that legislation.

Occupational liability is defined in s4(1) of the Act to mean ‘civil liability arising (in tort, contract or otherwise) directly or vicariously from anything done or omitted to be done by a member of an occupational association acting in the performance of his or her occupation’. However, s5(1) of the Act provides that the Act does not apply to liability for damages arising from the death of or personal injury to a person, a breach of trust or fraud or dishonesty. [Note: All jurisdictions other than NSW and WA exclude a lawyer acting in a personal injury matter.] Section 5(2) of the Act also provides that the Act does not apply to liability which may be the subject of proceedings under Section 110 of the Transfer of Land Act (Vic).
