RULES OF COURT

Amending the Supreme Court Criminal Rules 1987 Amendment No. 72 to the Supreme Court Rules

BY virtue and in pursuance of Section 72 of the Supreme Court Act 1935, and all other enabling powers, We, the Judges of the Supreme Court of South Australia, make the following Rules to take effect as amendments to the Supreme Court Rules 1987, as amended:

1. These Rules may be cited as the “Supreme Court Rules 1987 Amendment No. 72”.
2. The Supreme Court Rules 1987 as amended by these Rules may be cited as the “Supreme Court Rules 1987.”
3. That Rule 2.04 (a) be amended by deleting the words “the pre-trial conference referred to in Rule 56.01” and inserting in lieu “reference for trial under Rule 74A.02”.
4. That Rule 2.05 be deleted and that the following be inserted in lieu.

“2.05 Each party is required positively to review the pleadings filed in the proceedings prior to the first hearing of any application to refer the action for trial so as to ensure their adequacy. Such steps as may be necessary to effect any amendments are to be taken prior to this application to refer the action for trial. In the event that any application is made thereafter for leave to amend a pleading, the Court may, and particularly if the amendment would cause the postponement or adjournment of the trial, if it sees fit, refuse such application, in order to protect the integrity of the caseflow management system and to implement the Court’s requirements that trials proceed at the time appointed for the trial, notwithstanding that any injustice to any other party may have been avoided by an order for costs or some other order.”
5. That a new Rule 2A be inserted after Rule 2:

“Rule 2A Allocation of Complex and Ordinary Actions

2A.01 Rule 2A applies to all inter-partes actions commenced on and after 3 June 2000 and to such actions commenced earlier as the Court directs.

2A.02 (1) A complex action is one which is administratively designated as such at any time by the Chief Justice or his or her delegate by reason of its apparent complexity, importance or length or for other good reason.

(2) An ordinary action is an action which does not have a current designation as a complex action.

2A.03 The Chief Justice or a Judge designated by him or her may for any good reason administratively cancel the designation of an action as a complex action and it then becomes an ordinary action.

2A.04 Parties may by a letter lodged with their first pleading request that the action be designated as a complex action or may by later correspondence to the Chief Justice request that the action, if it is not already a complex action, be so designated or that such designation be cancelled.

2A.05 The Chief Justice or a Judge designated by him or her may administratively assign a particular Judge to supervise the interlocutory steps, and the same or a different Judge to conduct the trial, in a complex action.

2A.06 Judges to whom the supervision of complex actions are assigned may administratively determine whether they or a Master will deal with all or any of the interlocutory matters in the action.

2A.07 In a complex action the timetable and time limits imposed by Rule 2 apply insofar as a Judge or Master so directs.

2A.08 In a complex action the Judge or Master may exercise all or any of the powers in Rule 50.03.”
6. That Rule 2.06 be deleted.
7. That Rule 5 be amended by deleting the definition of “person under disability” and inserting in lieu:

“Person under a disability’ means an infant, and any person, who by reason of physical weakness or intellectual or mental impairment or other condition whether temporary or permanent, is unable to give sufficient instructions to take, defend or compromise proceedings.”

8. That a new Rule 6A be inserted after Rule 6:

“6A Notice Before Action.

6A.01 (1) Rule 6A applies to inter parties actions commenced on and after 3 September 2000 and to the exclusion of Rule 101.01 (1)(b) in relation to those actions.

(2) Rule 6A does not apply to actions:

- (a) if the claims made do not include any liquidated or unliquidated monetary sum other than costs;
- (b) if urgent relief is sought;
- (c) if the Court so directs; or
- (d) in the Land and Valuation Division.

6A.02 (1) At least 90 days before commencing an action the plaintiff is to post or send to the defendants at their last known address a notice of the proposed claim with sufficient detail so that the defendants have a reasonable opportunity to make an offer to settle the claim before it is commenced.

(2) Where the claim is for any unliquidated amount the notice is to state the sum which the plaintiff will accept in satisfaction of such unliquidated claim or why, with brief reasons, such sum cannot be stated.

6A.03 Where the plaintiff believes that an insurer is likely to indemnify any proposed defendant against the claim the notice under Rule 6A.02 is also to be sent to that insurer.

6A.04 Where the claim is supported by expert evidence the plaintiff is also to send to the defendants and the insurers copies of any relevant reports from any expert which are relied upon with the notice under Rule 6A.02 unless such reports have already been supplied.

6A.05 The Court may deprive a plaintiff who does not comply with Rule 6A of the whole or part of the costs of the action.

6A.06 (1) Within 60 days of receipt of any notice under Rule 6A.02 the defendants or their insurers are to post or send to its sender a response to it and copies of any relevant reports from any expert on which they intend to rely unless such reports have already been supplied.

(2) The response under (1) is to include whether liability for the claim is denied, and, if so, briefly state the grounds of such denial.

6A.07 In any order for the costs of the action the Court is to have regard to any failure of a defendant or insurer to make any, or a reasonable, response under Rule 6A.06 and it may as a result of it order costs as between solicitor and client to the plaintiff for the whole or part of the action.

6A.08 Where a proposed party to an action or an insurer has any relevant report of an expert which has not been supplied under Rules 6A.04 or 6A.06 such reports must be sent to the other parties by plaintiffs on the commencement of the action and by defendants on the filing of their appearances.

6A.09 The summons or other originating process is to include an endorsement stating that a claim has been notified in accordance with Rule 6A, or that no such claim has been notified as the plaintiff believes that there are good grounds to relieve the plaintiff of the consequences of failing to make such a notification, or for such other reason as may be briefly stated in the endorsement.”

9. That Rule 38 be amended as follows:

- (a) by deleting “21 days after the close of pleadings or affidavits” and inserting in lieu “28 days after the time limited by the Rules for making discovery in the action” in Rule 38.01(1).
- (b) by deleting “for the Pre-Trial Conference” and inserting in lieu “for the first hearing of any application to refer the action for trial” in Rule 38.01(3).
- (c) by inserting a new Rule 38.01A after Rule 38.01:

“Rule 38.01A Further requirements for Experts’ Reports.

- (1) Rule 38.01A applies only to actions in which the pleadings have closed on or after 3 June 2000 and to such other actions as the Court directs.

(d) by deleting "pre-trial conference chamber" in Rule 38.02(1).

(e) by deleting "Rule 75.05" and inserting in lieu "Rule 67.01(6)" in Rule 38.02(3).

10. That a new Rule 46A be inserted after Rule 46 as follows:

"Rule 46A Pleadings and Affidavits of Loss.

46A.01 (1) Rule 46A is to apply to all actions proceeding on pleadings commenced on and after 3 June 2000 and to such actions commenced earlier as the Court Directs.

(2) Rule 46A applies to the exclusion of Rules 46 and 47.

46A.02 All pleadings are to:

- (a) be as brief as the nature of the case permits;
- (b) plead only the material facts relied upon and not the evidence or arguments by which they are to be proved;
- (c) be divided into discrete numbered paragraphs so that admissions and cross references may be made readily by referring to the paragraph numbers;

(d) bear the proper action heading and an endorsement of by whom and for whom they are filed;

(e) bear the following certificate signed by a legal practitioner except where the party has no solicitor on the record:

‘I certify that this pleading is put forward in accordance with the instructions of the (plaintiff/defendant/third party/etc) and complies with the Rules concerning pleadings.

(Signed)

(also print name under name signature)

46A.03 In an action where damages for personal injuries are not claimed the Statement of Claim must plead, but plead only:

- (a) the material facts relied upon to constitute any cause of action, or grounds for an extension of time or other relief sought;
- (b) such further material facts as are necessary to give other parties fair notice of the case which they will have to answer;
- (c) the general nature of the legal causes of action;
- (d) any statutory provisions relied upon; and
- (e) the general nature of the relief sought.

46A.04 In an action where damages for personal injuries are claimed the Statement of Claim is to be pleaded in accordance with Rule 46A.03, and in addition:

- (a) where liability has been agreed, only the fact of that agreement is to be pleaded and not why the defendant is liable to the plaintiff;
- (b) the plaintiff must plead, but plead only:
 - (i) the general nature of the injuries suffered;
 - (ii) the general nature of the major treated received;
 - (iii) the general nature of any resulting disabilities;
 - (iv) the general effect, if any, of the injuries and disabilities on the plaintiff’s capacity to work; and
 - (v) the general effect of the injuries and disabilities on the plaintiff’s activities which would give rise to damages for economic or non economic loss;
- (c) the plaintiff is not to plead the history of the treatment, items of special damage or topics which will be covered by the Affidavit of Loss.

46A.05 (1) Unless the summons is endorsed under Rule 25.01 for summary judgment the defendant must file a Defence within 28 days of service of the Statement of Claim, but if it is endorsed under R25.01 within such time as the Court directs.

(2) The Defence must plead, but plead only:

- (a) what parts, if any, of the Statement of Claim are admitted;
- (b) the material facts relief upon to constitute any ground of defence on which the defendant bears an evidentiary or a legal onus of proof;
- (c) such further material facts as are necessary to give other parties fair notice of the defendant’s case which they will have to meet;
- (d) any defences in law; and
- (e) any statutory provisions to be relied upon by the defendant.

(3) Where none of the matters in (2) are properly pleadable the defendant must within the time limited for the Defence obtain leave of the Court to defend the action without filing a Defence. Such leave will not be granted unless the defendant shows bona fide grounds to put the plaintiff to proof of the claim.

(4) A counterclaim under Rule 48 may be added to the Defence as if it was a Statement of Claim under Rule 46A.

46A.06 (1) A plaintiff may file a Reply, and must file any Defence to Counterclaim, within 14 days of service of the Defence.

(2) Any Reply or a Defence to Counterclaim must plead, but only plead:

- (a) what parts, if any, of the Defence of any Counterclaim are admitted;
- (b) the material facts necessary to constitute any ground of reply or of defence to counterclaim;
- (c) any further material facts necessary to give the other parties fair notice of the case which they will have to meet by way of reply or of defence to counterclaim; and

(4) Where a Defence to Counterclaim is filed the defendant may within 14 days of service of it file a Reply to it in accordance with subrule (2).

46A.07 Any pleading subsequent to a Reply is only to be filed in accordance with leave of the Court granted for its filing.

46A.08 Where an allegation of fact in a pleading is not admitted by the opposing party it is required to be proved at trial by the party alleging it.

46A.09 (1) No order is to be made that any further material facts are to be pleaded other than where the material facts pleaded do not disclose facts sufficient to give the other parties fair notice of the case which they will have to meet and the party seeking them would be significantly prejudiced in the conduct of its case by not having them. (The intent of Rule 46A is that parties should include all material facts in their pleadings as initially filed so that there is no unfairness to another party by any lack of particularity and if they have not done so the trial Judge may refuse to allow that party to present a case which is outside the terms of its pleading.)

(2) No pleading is embarrassing for want of particularity unless the missing particulars would be ordered under (1).

(3) Where an order is made under (1) the pleading is to be amended.

(4) No costs are to be allowed to the party making any amendment under (3) in respect of it unless the Court or a taxing officer for good reason allows them.

46A.10 (1) At trial a party is not without leave of the Court to cross examine witnesses (other than on credit) or to adduce evidence about matters not properly raised on the pleadings where that course would be likely to prejudice or embarrass other parties in the conduct of their cases.

(2) In determining what issues are properly raised on the pleadings the trial Judge:

- (a) will act without undue technicality and with regard to the substantial merits of the case so that no party suffers any injustice thereby; and
- (b) in considering whether another party is likely to suffer prejudice or to be embarrassed may have regard to the contents of any Affidavit of Loss, experts' reports or discovered documents, but they are not to be treated as if they were pleadings.

46A.11 (1) In actions for personal injuries the plaintiff is to swear and file an affidavit known as an "Affidavit of Loss" at such time as is directed on the Status Hearing but in any event by no later than 14 days before the first Settlement Conference.

(2) The Affidavit of Loss is to contain the information required by Rule 46.15 except for such matters as the defendant may notify to the plaintiff in writing prior to the Status Hearing are not required to be included in it.

(3) After the Status Hearing and before the action is referred for trial the Court may direct the plaintiff to file a supplementary Affidavit of Loss updating the information contained in the previous Affidavit of Loss.

(4) At such times as the Court may direct, but in any event before the action is referred for trial, the defendant must file a document, entitled "Answer to Affidavit of Loss", stating what parts of the Affidavit of Loss and any supplementary Affidavit of Loss are admitted or denied.

46A.12 With the leave of the Court a party may incorporate into a pleading facts giving rise to a cause of action or any matter which have arisen after the institution of the proceedings where that is not unjust to any other party.

46A.13 Insofar as a document or conversation, or parts of them, need to be pleaded under Rule 46A only the effect of them need be pleaded and verbatim quotations are to be included only if that is necessary for proper pleading.

46A.14 (1) A fixed fee only is to be allowed as between party and party and as between solicitor and client for drawing any pleading unless the complexity or difficulty of the exercise is such that a taxing officer considers that some greater fee is justified.

(2) Any counsel fee properly payable for settling a pleading is to be in addition to the fee in (1).

(3) "page rate" means the cost allowable under the Rules at the rate applicable when the pleading was prepared for drawing 1 full page of a pleading.

(4) The fees allowable under (1) are:

- (a) State of Claim—4 times the page rate.
- (b) Defence of Defence to Counterclaim—twice the page rate.
- (c) Reply—the page rate.
- (d) Counterclaim—twice the page rate and in addition to the fee for the Defence.

46A.15 (1) Where a party unreasonably fails to admit in its pleading any part of an earlier pleading of another party it may be ordered to pay the costs incurred in proving that which should have been so admitted.

(2) A legal practitioner who improperly or without reasonable cause gives any certificate under rule 46A.02(e) may be ordered to pay costs personally in accordance with Rule 101.06.

46A.16 Except insofar as they are inconsistent with Rule 46A, Rules 46.05(2), 46.06, 46.07, 46.09, 46.11, 46.12(4)(a) and (ab), 46.18, 46.22, 47.02, 47.03, 47.06, 47.07 and 47.08 are to apply to pleadings governed by Rule 46A."

11. That Rule 53.01(1)(a) be amended by adding "or Rule 58A" at the end of that subparagraph.

12. That Rule 54.01(4) be amended by deleting "prior to the day fixed pursuant to Rule 56.05 for the Pre-Trial Conference in respect of the action" and inserting in lieu "after the time limited by the Rules for making discovery in the action".

13. That a new Rule 56B be inserted after Rule 56.

"Rule 56B Status Hearings and Settlement Conferences.

56B.01 (1) Rule 56B applies to the exclusion of Rule 56 to all actions commenced on and after 3 June 2000 and to such actions commenced earlier as the Court directs.

(2) Rule 56B does not apply to:

- (a) ex parte proceedings;

- (d) actions in the Land and Valuation Division;
- (e) actions for possession under Rule 65;

- (f) actions under Rule 60 for discovery before action;
- (g) actions for Judicial Review;
- (h) actions where the Rules do not require the filing of appearances;
and
- (i) actions where the Court so directs.

56B.02 In Rule 56B:

- (a) “complex action” and “ordinary action” have the meanings set out in Rule 2A.02.
- (b) “alternative dispute resolution procedures” means mediations, arbitrations, conciliations or references to experts as referred to in these Rules.
- (c) “the close of pleadings” means the earliest of:
 - (i) the filing of the last Reply;
 - (ii) the time limited for the filing of the last Reply, or
 - (iii) any interlocutory judgment being obtained against all defendants.

56B.03 A Status Hearing will be held on a date to be notified by the Registrar:

- (a) in complex actions when directed by the supervising Judge;
- (b) in ordinary actions not later than 7 weeks after the filing of the first appearance by any defendant;

- (j) what documents are to be lodged for the use of the Judicial Officer who is to conduct the Settlement Conference, which party is to lodge them and when they are to be lodged.

56B.05 It is the intention of Rule 56B that:

- (a) other than for good reason a Settlement Conference is to be held within 4 weeks of the holding of the Status Hearing;
- (b) a Settlement Conference will ascertain whether the parties can reach a settlement before they have incurred more expense in pursuing the litigation, or, if not, whether it is appropriate to seek to resolve any of the issues by some procedures of alternative dispute resolution;

56B.07 (1) Upon closing a Settlement Conference:

- (2) Where the Court dispenses with holding a Settlement Conference the first Settlement Conference for that action will be deemed to have closed at the time when the dispensation is granted.

56B.08 After a Settlement Conference has been closed the Registrar will convene a second Settlement Conference if all parties join in a request for it.

56B.09 In actions to which Rule 56B applies no interlocutory applications are to be made to the Court before the close of the first Settlement Conference unless a party would suffer significant prejudice if that application was not dealt with before that time.

- (a) no time limits other than those for filing appearances, pleadings and affidavits in lieu of pleadings are to run prior to the close of the first Settlement Conference;
- (b) no lists of documents or notices to admit facts and/or documents are to be filed or served prior to the close of the first Settlement Conference.

56B.11 Any person required by these rules to be present who without reasonable excuse does not attend at a Settlement Conference after being directed by the Court to do so is liable to be found guilty of contempt of Court.

56B.12 The costs of all Status Hearings and Settlement Conferences are to be in the cause unless the Court otherwise orders.

56B.13 Subject to any agreement or direction to the contrary the proceedings at Status Hearings and Settlement Conferences are:

58A.02 (1) (a) Within 21 days of the close of any first Settlement Conference;

(b) within such other time as the Court may direct; or

(c) where there is to be no Settlement Conference within 21 days of the close of pleadings, each party is to file and serve a list of documents in Form 16B.

(2) Within 7 days of the close of pleadings or affidavits all parties to an action may agree:

(a) to dispense with any discovery of documents; or

(b) to substitute an agreed process of informal discovery which is not to be supervised by the Court.

(3) Where any agreement is made under (2), discovery for the purposes of the Rules in that action is deemed to have been completed within 14 days of the date of that agreement.

(4) Where an agreement has been made under (2) the parties are to file before the expiration of the time for making discovery a document signed by them or their solicitors stating that such an agreement has been made and its date, but without necessarily stating its terms.

58A.04 (1) Parties are not to include in their lists of documents any documents which are only indirectly relevant to any issue arising on the pleadings unless it is ordered by the Court where it is in the interests of justice to do so.

(3) Rule 58.07(4), (4a) and (5) applies under Rule 58A.

58A.07 Where it is in the interests of justice the Court may order a party to file a supplementary list of documents identifying specifically each document contained within a general description of documents given in its previous list.

58A.08 A list of documents is only to be verified on oath where the Court in the interests of justice so directs.

58A.09 Where at any time the Court considers that a list of documents is longer than is necessary to comply with Rule 58A it may exercise its power under Rule 101.06(1) if there has been any default by the solicitor who prepared the list.

58A.10 Rules 58.01(2), (3), (4), (5), (6) and (7), 58.04, 58.04A, 58.05, 58.06, 58.08 and 58.09 are to apply to discovery which is governed by Rule 58A, but nothing in Rule 58 is to override what Rule 58A provides about which documents need be discovered, how they are to be described in a list of documents or otherwise.”

“74A.05A (1) Rule 74A.05A applies only to actions commenced on and after 3 June 2000 and to such actions commenced earlier as the Court directs.

(2) In Rule 74A.05A:

- (a) “complex action” and “ordinary action” have the meanings set out in Rule 2A.
